Congratulations to Rev. Dr. Burns, the sporting parson, who last week landed the Favelie trophy, the valuable prize that represents the rink championship of the Queen City Curing Club. He won the final in an uphili battle with George A. Kimpton, tho probably a majority of the members were pulling for the lay-

In the absence of The New York World's regular hockey reporter the genius who does the wrestling was assigned to write a notice of Parkdale's first appearance in Gotham. He did it as follows: The amateur hockey champions of control of the world will be decided to-night when the Crescent Athletic Club team, champions of America, meets the Parkdales of Toronto, amateur champions of Canada, in the St. Nicholas Rinks of Winning viotories over such teams as Modill, Queens, Toronto and St. Michaels in the Varsity League, as well as the Montreal A.A. Shamrocks, Maple Leafs and Cliffsides, the Parkdales have demonstrated their right to the title.

This season in 53 matches in English secere football the attendance was 945,305. against 711,100 in 63 games last season. The gates were $185,420.

The Jamestown meeting starts on April 5 and continues till April 25. During that period the association will disburst $2500 daily to horsemen.

The English newspapers appear to be aunt in saying that Bill Lang was an easy mork for Sam Langford and they generally predict that he will defeat Jack Johnson. If Langford beats McVey in Paris on March 5-and there is mo reason why he should not—he will do his utmost as indeed he has been doing for several years past—to, get a match with Johnson and the champion will have to be at his very best to maintain his laurels. Form, tits said, is of no account in summing up the chances of one boxer against another. This is undoubtedly true enough, but in the following facts Langford can be made out to possess a splendid chance against the champion.

Trounds against Johnson, losing only on points; four years ago Lang (when little more than a novice) went nine rounds with Johnson, who did not knock out his opponent. Langford badly punished Lang in five rounds and a haif, yet the Australian had little if anything the worst of 20 rounds against Tommy Burns last April, a few months previous to which Burns was still on his feet after 14 rounds against Johnson. The latter must soom defend his title or forfeit his claim to it, and his only logical opponent is Langford. It may be remembered that Johnson and Langford were matched to meet at the N.S.C. on May 24, 1909, but on gaining the dignity of champion Johnson broke the agreement.

Was John L. Sullwan ever champion of the proceeds of which will be divided between the two hospitals of that place.

Was John L. Sullivan ever champion of the world? Of course he was, as we always contended. However, there are those who say he was only American champion and they have very little argument on that account. Now, if you require convincement just have a talk with Manager Hall of the Sullivan-Kilrain combination, who are at the Star this week, who is a very interesting talker and well posted on puglistic matters. He believes that Langford will lick Johnson and Knows that Jeffries will never fight and knows that Jeffries will never fight

George Little has patched up his trouble with Jack Johnson and is again man aging the affairs of the heavyweight champion. Little has signed a contract with a western circus man to exhibit Johnson in the big tent during the summer months.

HAMILTON, March 12.—With the six clubs rounded up, Knotty Lee has called the Canadian League meeting for next Friday, and the clubs will likely be represented as follows:

Hamilton—Knotty Lee.

London—J: R. Minhinnick,
Brantford—Thomas Nelson and Fred Westbrook.

The Royal Canadian Regiment of Halifax, that sent Private Dickson to two of the Canadian championships, have three men they would like to enter in the Good Friday tournament in Mutual-street Rink.

The only good bet on the card, said Manager McGraw of the New York Nationals the other day, as he looked over the prices laid against the clubs of both big leagues by a Louisville future book concern, is the 6 to 5 offered against Connie Mack's Athletics in the American League. Most of the other prices are false odds. They have the Glants quoted at 8-to-5 favorites in the National League, while we ought to be about 4 to 1, with the Cubs at the top of the list.

C. Edwards, H. Glimore, G. Clarke, H. Bennett, G. Richardson, J. Doty, A. Cook, Cooke and any other players wishing to join.

Just because Chance's team was beaten in the world's championship last fall is no reason why they should not have first call in the betting this fall. I may have different ideas on how the race will result, but on past performances the Cubs should be the favorites.

should be the favorites.
Six to five, tho, is not too short a price against the Athletics. They won the American League pennant and the world's championship last year without half trying, and with a team that ought to be better this season. The Tigers, tho even better this season. The ligers, the they finished third a year ago, are natural second choices. Chase has what looks like a rattling good ball club in the New York Americans, but Detroit is the logical betting choice for second place.

LANGFORD AND MCVEY

Colored Heavyweights Matched to Meet in Paris on March 25.

PARIS, March 11.-Talk about a fight between Sam Langford and Joe Jeannette has amounted to nothing. A contest has now been arranged between Langford and McVey, which will take place here on March 25. The bout is scheduled for 20 rounds. There was considerable dickering before this match was brought about. McVey signed a contract some time ago with Hugh McIntosh, the Australian promoter, to meet Langford here to-night. He afterwards backed out of this agreement on the ground that he had to-night. He afterwards backed out of this agreement on the ground that he had signed the contract subject to the approval of Guiller, his manager. The latter objected to the contract because the purse was too small. After a week spent in letter writing McIntosh offered to give McVey 2000 francs if he dared merely to appear in the ring with Langford. The match for the 25th was then arranged.

Parkdale Shut Out Crescents of New York In a Speedy Game

NEW YORK, March 12.—In one of the most stubbornly-contested international hockey games of the season, the Parkdales of Toronto defeated the Crescent Athletic Club last night at St. Nicholas Rink by a score of 3 goals to 0. It was a brilliant and fast game through and, with the exception of the first five minutes, the visitors had all the better of the play. The feature of their work was their hard and clever blocking, which stepped the local players at every turn.

An unfortunate accident occurred in the second period, when Evans, the brilliant centre of the Canadians, received a bad cut on the chin from Wall's stick. He had to be carried off the ice, and several stitches were required to close the wound. The affair appeared entirely accidental. Evans tripped Wall, and both men went down, the latter's stick flying up in the air, catching Evans on the chin, and making a nasty gash. He was unable to continue, and Dobby was dropped from the Crescents. Wall was penalized one minute for the affair.

From that time on the crowd heeted Wall, who had been playing a wonderful game every time he got the puck, altho three-quarters of the spectators did not see the accident.

The Crescents did not play their usual brilliant game, and their team work was broken up by their fast, hard-checking opponents, who played better hockey than any seven seen in New York this year. Ridpath and Wall were the only two men ruled off for foul work.

Holmes, in goal for the Parkdales, gave one of the greatest exhibitions between the posts ever seen in his city, and his phenomenal work in blocking and elearing seemed to take the heart out of the Brocklyn men. The scores:

Walier Fitzgerald of Philadelphia has become a Blson. He is a young and promising datcher, picked up on the recommendation of Wild Bill Donovan, who says he is just the man Marager Stallings needs.

The contract of Third Baseman McDonald, who played with Toronto last season, was received at the Buffalo head-quarters yesterday and preparations are about complete for the shipping of the players and their tools to the training grounds at Miledgeville, Ga. The first batch will be sent away next Friday.

Jack Pfeister, premier left-hander of the Cubs, may be compelled to retire from baseball. Yesterday at New Orleans, Pfeister was ill and after an examination a heart specialist warned him against playing ball nt all and ordered him to take a complete rest. The fact is Pfeister's heart is in bad shape and the apecialists declare it is extremely dangerous for him to attempt any violent exercise.

Manager Hal Chase of the Yankees received a telegram at Hot Springs, Va., from Louis Brockett, to the effect that the twirler had forwarded his signed contract. Brockett went from the Newark-Indians to the New York Americans in 1909 with Big Chief George Stallings. He did not play ball last season. It is not unlikely that the Yankees will let the pitcher go to Buffalo, in case there is no room for him with the Yankees.

Well, Fighters May Come to Toronto.

NEW YORK, March II.—There were indications to day that the authorities are planning closer scrutiny of boxing bouts staged in New York City in the so-called athletic clubs: Summonses were issued at this afternoon for Tom D'Rourke, manager of the National Sporting Club of America, for P. Moore and Sammy Smith, a principals in the last fight on Friday night, and for John Doe, referee, and John Doe, timekeeper. They are returnable on Monday. Coincident with the issuance of the summonses complaints were lodged against four police captains and three inspectors for alleged negligence on their part in not taking necessary evidence regarding fights and fight clubs.

Harvard and Yale undergraduates are seeking a meeting on field and track with the combined teams of Oxford and Cambridge Universities the coming summer. If the meeting is, brought about, it is planned to have the games on the Queen's Club grounds, London, in July.

The Cornwall Lacrosse Club are not in favor of Mr. Findley's amendment to reduce the playing field and also the number of players, they claiming it would not in any way improve the game.

Three or four Ottawa lacrosse players are likely to be found on western teams during the coming season. Officers of two Abberta clubs have written to the capital in quest of material. They seek amateur players for the new western league, offering lucrative positions to good men. No deals have yet been closed, but it is understood that the westerners seek Jimmie Burke and Clint Benedict of the Stars, and Alex Seed of the Shamrocks. In the event of the big league materializing the raid may be more extensive, and may result in the departure of several Capital youngsters, including Jimmie Dooley and Herb Goodwin.

MISSISSAUGA GOLF CLUB Officers Elected at Annual Meeting-

The fifth annual meeting of the Mississauga Golf Club was held in the banqueting hall of the King Edward Hotel on Saturday afternoon, the 11th inst., at which a very large membership was represented. The treasurer's report showed the finances to be in a very satisfactory condition. The captain's report showed six matches won, three lost and one halved, and that the professional tourney held after the annual meet at Lambton was in all respects very satisfactory to all concerned. A friendly disgussion was held as to the present course, and was very much in favor of the course as it is now laid out, and the directors promise that it shall have their attention, and hope for a very successful season, which is assured. The following officers were elected for the ensuing year: President—L. A. Hamilton.

Vice-president—A. R. Capreol.

Directors—J. M. Godfrey, A. R. Coleman, B. H. Ardagh, George A. Morrow and James McMillan.

Metropolitan Bouts.

The admirers of Charley Christie are betting even money that he will defeat Harry Westerby when they clash in an eight-round bout at the Metropolitan Club's monthly show on Thursday night next. Christie's cleverness is expected to keep him out of harm's way, but should Westerby land one of his sleep-producing wallops it will be all over with his opponent. Another bout in which considerable interest is taken is that between Moore and Johnson. Moore is the Montreal boxer who made a most avorable impression in former contests hew, and unless he has lost his cunning and bility to land his punch, Johnson will have a lively time of it in their six-round contest. The bantamweight contest between F. Judge and G. Margott will bring together a former amateur champion and a dark horse from East. Toronto. Metropolitan Bouts. CLEVELAND NAPS THE
