"The Largest Exclusive Fur House in the British Empire"

Beautiful Furs at Attractive

CUMPTUOUS furs, beautifully at-Tractive, to enhance Milady's beau-ing---these are the furs chosen for special sale to-morrow. Our most exquisite models, those suggestive of rosy cheeks and smiling eyes, those which air the spirit of youth have been marked extremely low. It is an opportunity to obtain gorgeous furs with most authoriimitably low.

ty---make her charm doubly allur-

The name of Ye Olde Firme of Heintzman & Co., Limited, is your zuarantee.

Why a Heintzman & Co. Piano?

ing a piano bearing the name of "Ye Olde Firme of Heintzman & Co., Limited." is its

Other reasons, of course.

All through the sixty-five years that this piano has been built the skill of the most capable craftsmen and the wisdom of the most musicianly artists have contributed to keep it in the front rank.

For long years it has been the standard in piano building. But beyond all else that gives it a distinctive place is its Tone. And when Tone is wanting nothing else counts.

of Tone and delicacy of touch any piano I have used anywhere."

HEINTZMAN & CO.

LIMITED 193-197 Yonge Street TORONTO

HOSPITAL CIRCUS RECORD SUCCESS

Fete at St. Andrew's Amuses 2500 Patients and Friends.

As had been foretold, the cincus, witness. concert and dance put on yesterday afternoon and evening at St. Andrew's Hospital for the patients of the hospital and their friends were the finest thing of the kind yet attempted in the way of entertainment.

About 2500 enjoyed the insenious program. Twenty-two tents on the campus provided for many varieties of an who sent the Johnstons to her, side shows. The opening of the midwitness said: "She brought me a baby way was introduced by stirring strains from the band. Acrobats and jug-to look after it. She lives in London, to look after it. She lives in London, to look after it. glers performed feats fascinating and mysterious. Nursing sisters played ball and provided a wonderful "zoo," in which the Wild Man of Borneo and the snake charmer were much admired features. magic dancers a "Punch and Judy" show, "push ball" between officers and n.c.o.'s, races, a fish pond, containing a whole shoal of fish. These and other attractions, all followed by a splendid supper, the final course being ice cream galore

Evening Program. In the evening a most enjoyable vaudeville program was given by arthen dancing in the flag-draped hall

At the ball some of the "boys" aped round holding the train of his long red gown gracefully looped on his arm. Another was in black lace and chif-Fancy costumes, together with in writing?" asked the crown. the blue uniforms of the nurses, the white veils of the 150 Red Triangle women, who served during the day, and the many khaki uniforms made a

The bed patients were not forgotten. the women going to the huts and seeing that the men got a generous share Chapter, Royal Arch Masons, was reof the ever-popular ice cream cone. the · hospital management.

GUNNS' EXHIBITION

16.500 19.000 Adams, afrs., 103 East Lynn Avc.
Allan, R., 636 Ossington Ave.
Austin, V., R. R. No. 1, Pickering.
Baldock, H., R. R. No. 1, Malton.
Cowie, Geo., 130 Montgomery Ave.
Craig, T., 67 Brookfield Ave.
Danner, J., 1137 Dovercourt Road.
Day, M., 126 Campbell Ave.
Dunlon, Mrs. E., 278 Centron St. Dunlop, Mrs. F., 258 Carlton St. Erskine, Mrs. D., 454 Durier St. Findley, Mrs. 36 Follis Ave. Foy, Geo., 248 Pape Ave. Foy, Geo., 248 Pape Ave.
McGraw, J. M., 16 Humber Blvd.
Harrison, J., 22 Blantyre Ave.
Henson, Mrs. J., 148 Woolfrey Ave.
Jackson, G. B., 103 Bay St.
Johnston, F. E., 110 Oakwood Ave.
kingswood, A., 7 Langemarck Ave.
Layerty, Mrs. B., 124 Harrourt, Ave. Laverty, Mrs. R., 124 Harcourt Ave. Fred. 29 Paton Road. H. B., 119 Welles ey Crescent. Miller, Mrs., 88 Pinecrest Road. McBride, N. J., Angus, Ont. McCoy, H., 113 North Deacon Road. Oidham, Geb., 326 Logan Ave. Sohan, J., 20 Thelma Ave.

tacey, J., 17 Strathcona Ave., horne, Chas., 215 Dineen Building.

nderwood, B., 2863 Dundas St. W.

Woolfall, P., 99 Davenport Road.

at the end of the week.

FLORENCE GILL FOUND SUILTY

Baby Farmer Found Responsible for Loss of Infant. Maxwell Wood.

MADE NO INQUIRY

Delivers Infant for Adoption to Unknown Parties Without Permission.

Mrs. Florence Gill appeared before Judge Coatsworth and a jury in the general sessions vesterday on a charge that she did take away and detain one Maxwell Wood, a child under the age of 14 years, with intent thereby to deprive his mother of the protection of the child. After hearing the evidence, the jury, who were out for a little over an hour, returned a verdict of guilty with a strong recom-mendation to mercy. Judge Coatsworth remanded the case till Monday, saying the jury's recommendation would be fully considered. It is stated Mr. Robinette will apply for a reserved

The mother of the child, who gave her age at 23, said that she was an operator earning $12 a week.

"I was to be consulted first and must see the people," she cald, referring to the adoption suggestion. On a Saturday she had seen the baby, but when she went back on Tuesday it was gone. Mrs. Gill had never told her that the people who had her baby were called Johnston. She went with D. Cohn, a private detective engaged by Mrs. Gill's lawyer, and searched London in vain. They also had a useless visit to

"Mrs. Gill told me she did not know the name of the people," said witness.

Inspector Advertised.

Robert Martin, provincial inspector of neglected children, told of having advertised for the mission.

advertised for the missing baby, offerng a reward of $300. Giving evidence on her own behalf, Mrs. Gill said: "The mother came four Saturdays and one Sunday to see the baby, and paid me $25 in all. She asked me if I thought any one would come to adopt her baby, as she could not hold out much longer. I told her God is good and that some person would turn up to give him a good home," said Mrs. Gill, who told of her an who sent the Johnstons to her, witness said: "She brought me a baby and told me she was not well enough to look after it. She lives in London, and told me that her husband was a changlain in the army" chaplain in the army." After her license had been canceled social service worker had asked her

Cross-examined by Mr. Greer. "Why should Mrs. Mitchell, whose husband, you say, was a chaplain overseas, come to you to have you adopt it? Was it illegitimate?"

"I do not know. I did not ask," replied Mrs. Gill, who said that the child had been adopted thru a solicitor. "You let this baby go on the statement of the Johnstons that they had been sent by Mrs. Mitchell, without requiring a line to show that they came from her?"

Mrs. Gill said that she had tried to get the mother over the phone and peared as charming ladies. One float- had gone to the factory where she worked, but could not see her. "Why did you not ask these people to leave you their name and address

"They promised to write to me." ROYAL ARCH MASONS RESUME CONVOCATION

The regular convocation of Orient The entire entertainment was sup- Hall. The first principal, Ex. Comp. Mrs. Albert Brown was in charge of good attendance of members. The work of the evening was the advance-ment of a brother to the M.M.D., which until the girl in the case puts was carried out in an exemplary man-ner by the officers, and very favorably The average man doesn't waste any politeness on his wife.

Commented upon by Rt. Ex. Comp. A.

L. Tinker, grand superintendent of Toronto district, who was on his official visit, and received a warm welcome. Rt. Ex. Comp. H. T. Smith. grand scribe E., in a very brilliant CONTEST WINNERS manner, presented V. Ex. Comp. S. Ward with a handsome grand chapter regalia in recognition of the honor be-stowed at last convocation of grand the contest conducted by Gunns, Limited, in connection with their sexh.pit in the Dairy Building at the Canadian National Solomon's Chapter, were among the Exhibition. The capacity of the plant for three months is:

Ex. Comp. W. E. Logan, P.Z., of King Solomon's Chapter, were among the visitors.

The musical ritual was given by members of the eastern district Masonic choir and the entertainment at the banquet table by Comp. D. Cowan and Bro. N. Maudsley.

DRAUGHTSMEN MEET.

At the fortnightly meeting last night of the Draughtsmen's Association the executive committee reported having received a letter from Mr. Warrington of the Ontario Association of Architects, and it was decided to ask the architectural members to submit drawings not later than August 29 for the exhibition, which will be held at the Grange. Reports were also received from the wages committee, who are co-ordinating their schedule for the Engineers' and Architects' Society and service overseas by the "Adriatic," arriving last Wednesday, is spending a week with his relations in Fredericton, N.B., before committee the Canadians participated in, being wounded at Vimy Ridge, and is also a veteran of the South African war. Since the armistice he has been assistant provest marshal in London. Mrs. Wandless is remaining in London for the present.

The Hon. Phillipe Roy. Canadian commissioner to France, will be the guest of General Landry, during his visit to quebec.

Major J. F.Wandless, who feturned from four years' service overseas by the "Adriatic," arriving last Wednesday, is spending a week with his relations in Fredericton, N.B., before commissioner to remain for toronto. Major Wandless has been thru almost every battle the Canadians participated in, being wounded at Vimy Ridge, and is also a veteran of the South African war. Since the armistice he has been assistant provest marshal in London. Mrs. Wandless is remaining in London for the present.

The Hon. Phillipe Roy. Canadian commissioner to France, will be the guest of General Landry, during his visit to Quebec.

Major J. F.Wandless, who drew "Adriatic," arriving last Wednesday, is spending a week with his relations in Fredericton, N.B., before commission for the South African war. Since the armistice he co-ordinating their schedule for the Engineers' and Architects' Society, and hope to report fully at a later date. An employment committee was formed, which it is hoped will be of service to the employer and employe.

Mrs. Thomas Mills is in town from Mrs. Thomas Mills is in town from Mrs. vice to the employer and employe.

Kingston, visiting friends in Grenville Bishop Off to Ottawa.

The Bishop of Toronto will leave this morning for Ottawa where he will be the guest of the Bishop of Ottawa during the provincial synod. The bishop will preach in Alf Saints', Ottawa, Sunday morning, and in St. John's Church in the evening.

The Toronto Tennis Club gave a dance at Jenkins' galleries last night for the visiting players, one hundred invitations being issued. Supper was served from a luffer across the corner of the room, decorated with brilliant autumn flowers, bishop expects to return to the city was a served from a luffer across the corner of the room, decorated with brilliant autumn flowers. John's Church in the evening. The decorated with brilliant autumn bishop expects to return to the city Mrs. Henderson received the guests. looking remarkably well in peach colored ey raise fine babics; in Earlscourt, and this sturdy chap, Albert Thompson, 47 Erie terrace, is said to be the finest of them all. He was yesterday declared champion at the Earlscourt Fall Fair baby show, at which there were a large number of competitors.

EARLSCOURT'S CHAMPION BABY

SOCIETY NEWS

come to adopt her baby, as she could not hold out much longer. I told her God is good and that some person would turn up to give him a good home," said Mrs. Gill, who told of her efforts to get in touch with the mother before giving the child to the Johnstons, who had to leave on an afternoon train. "When the mother found out she was perfectly satisfied," said witness.

Eight Died.

Witness had been a nurse in England. She began with one or two chidren in her home after she came to Toronto. Eight children had died in her home, three this year. The missing babe weighed 4% pounds when she got it and six pounds when accompanied the Prince of Wales on his Considering Further Representations Made.

will be the guest of the staff and returned officers of military district No. 10 at dinner. The dinner will be followed by a bail, to which a large number of invitations will be issued.

Her Excellency the Duchess of Devonshire went to Winnipeg for the purpose of being present at an executive meeting of the Canadian Red Cross, of which her excellency is president.

The Health Bath

For the future welfare of Canada the children must be kept healthy now. Protect them from the germs and microbes of disease by using Lifebuoy Soap.

and the antiseptic agents disinfect the bruises, scratches, etc. that might otherwise be a source of danger. A Lifebuoy soap bath sends the children to bed glowing with health and happy cleanliness.

The carbolic odour in Lifebuoy is a sign of its protective qualities—quickly panishing after use. Limited.

Provincial Secretary is Now being present at an executive meeting of the Canadian Red Cross, of which her excellency is president.

Their Excellencies the Duke and Duchess of Devonshire, Lady Dorothy Cavendish, Miss Edgerton, Miss Saunders, Capt.
H. McMillan, A.D.C. Capt. H. Cator, A.D.C., are at the Fort Garry during their stay in Winnipeg.

The marriage announced of Mr. C. J. Hambro, Coldstream Guards, son of Sir Eric and Lady Hambro, to Miss Pamela Cobbold, daughter of Mr. and Lady Evelyn Cobbold, will take place in England at Ipswich, on Wednesday, October 22. The bride-elect is sister-in-law of Lady Blanche Cavendish, daughter of their Excellencies the Duke and Duchess of Devonshire.

For the bath-nothing equals the healing, cleansing freelathering vegetable oils in

HEALTH SOAP

CONTROLLERS HEAR PAPE DEPUTATION

Railway Board Indicate Two Parties Unwilling to on an educational mission to the Unit-Lay Track. ed States. Touching on the bilingual question, he said some difficulty had

The delay in the construction of the proposed Pape avenue car line was commented upon at the meeting of the board of control yesterday, when a large deputation of residents headed by Alderman Honeyford ap peared. The alderman read extracts from letters from the railway board, the city and the company which, he maintained, indicated that the parties the Ryrie building, it was reported were disclaiming responsibility for that thru the efforts of the committhe delay. One passage from the tee 15,000 names have been added to cated that that body was dealing with to lay the tracks.

'two unwilling parties to the order" "That is not a credit to either the city or the company," declared Controller Maguire.
The mayor: The railway board is to blame for the delay. How could the city tear up the road bed until the company had the tracks ready to Cont. Maguire: Who allowed the company to use the rails for the via-"I don't know." replied Commissioner Harris. "That is not my business. As for the taking down of the poles and wires, that was done on order of the railway board, in compliance with a request from the Hydro-Electric Commission. It was claimed that the railway wires inter-fered with the Hydro service. We fered with the Hydro service. have been prepared to proceed at any minute, as soon as the company had them, but the company does not want to build the line." The mayor: They were bluffing the railway board. Cont. Maguire: And the city has not called their bluff. Why hasn't the department told the board that we were ready to go on? Mr. Harris: We did so instruct

It was eventually decided to instruct the legal department to apply for an order requiring the company to proceed at once with the laying of

BRITISH EDUCATIONAL AUTHORITY IN TORONTO

An interesting visitor at parliament uildings yesterday was Sir Alfred T. Davies, permanent secretary of the

Prices to Please Milady

Mail Order

Red Fox Neckpieces

Inimitable Furs at Inimitable Prices

Hudson Seal Coats, Trim-

tative style at a price in-

Full box and semi-fitting styles, finished with all-around belts and pockets, have large, long shawl collars and deep cuffs of best quality full furred Alaska sable; 42" long. $395.00 Hudson Seal Coats, Plain

Made from selected Hudson seal skins, full box style, finished with all-around belts and pockets, large, long shawl collars and deep cuffs; best quality all silk brocaded linings; 42" long. $365,00

Hudson Seal Coatees, Trimmed and Plain The trimmed coatees have collars and cuffs of Australian opossum, mole, kolinsky, grey squirrel and sable; all finished with belts and pockets, very smart styles. Special $150.00,

Hudson Bay Sable Neckpieces

Welsh education department of the board of education of Great Britain. He discussed with Hon. Dr. Cody the possibility of holding an imperial conference on educational affairs in Lon-on next year. If the conference takes place, the standardization of teachers'

qualifications and the bilingual situa-

Sir Alfred Davies, who is remaining in Toronto for a few days, has been been encountered in Wales, India, Cey-

At a meeting of the Ontario Referendum Women's Committee, held in the list. It had also been ascertained that from 80 to 85 per cent. of the English-speaking women are in favor

HARRY SPECIALLY PLEASED.

Harry Kerwin, president of the Marine Trades Federation, yesterday afternoon expressed himself as spe-cially pleased with the general selection of the labor representatives to the national labor conference, which own federation is represented by J. A. McClelland, vice-president of the Machinists' Union: R. C. McCutcheon of the Boilermakers' Union. John Morrerrash of Halifax, all of them excellent

STEEDMAN'S

SOOTHING POWDERS

Contain no Poison

His

to be held at Ottawa shortly.

EE SPEAKING FROM EXPERIENCE

men for the delicate job.

JOIN REFERENDUM

ion will be discussed.

lon and South Africa.

FIFTEEN THOUSAND

Made up from fine quality na-tural skins, collarette styles, finished with tails and paws; lined with soft, rich silk lin-

Large, full animal style, finished with head, tail and paws; made from choice, full-furred skins. Special. $55.00 Red Fox Muffs to $45.00 match. Special White Fox Neckpieces Made from fine quality skins, full animal styles, finished with large tall, head and paws; crepe de chine linings. $95.00

$85.00 Canadian Mink Capes Wide over shoulders, deep back and fronts; made from selected, full-furred, dark mink skins, crepe de chine linings. Hand-some capes. Special ... $235.00

$95.00 Australian Opossum Collarettes

Made from fine quality skins, wide over shoulders, long shawl effect, finished with button and button hole. Spe- $75.00 match. Special $175.00 Muffs to match. Special $35.00

SELLERS-GOUGH FUR CO.

244-250 Yonge St. -

GIRLS HAVE YOU JOINED THE MAN-HATERS' LEAGUE?

WE FOUND A BACKSLIDER SHE WILL STAND TRIAL NEXT WEEK AT THE ALLEN IN CLYDE FITCH'S FAMOUS PLAY GIRLS

But restore your grey and taded hairs to their natural color with LOCKYER'S SULPHUR HAIR RESTORER Its quality of deepening greyness to the former color in a few days, thus securing a preserved appearance, has enabled thousands to retain their position.

Lockyer's gives health to the Hair and restores the natural color. It cleanses the scalp, and makes the most perfect Hair Dressing.

This world-famed Hair Restorer is prepared by the great Hair Specialists, J. Pepper & Co., Ltd., 12 Bedford Laboratories, London, S.E., and can be obtained of all dealers and is.

SOLD EVERYWHERE.

LYMAN & CO., Toronto-Montreal.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Notices of future event, not intended raise money, 2c per word, minimum ac; if held to raise money solely for patriotic, church or charitable purposes, le per word, minimum $1.00; if held to raise money for any other than these purposes, 6c per word, minimum $2.50.

THE NATIONAL CHORUS WIII hold it; first rehearsal for the coming season at the Academy of Music, 12 Spadina road, on Monday evening, 23rd instant. Dr. Albert Ham will interview prospective members at his residence, 561 Jarvis street, on Monday, Tuesday or Wednesday evening next.

OUR FORCES AND HOW to use them-Address by Mrs. Clara W. S. Eayrs. Newcastle, England, for The Theoso-phical Society. Sunday, seven-fifteen. Concert Strangers cordially invited.

FIRST WOMEN PRINTERS.

The first woman printers are said to have been nuns of the Dominican Order, who ran a printing press in the convent at Mount Ripoli, Italy, as early as 1476.