vote was polled here to-day owing to a mix-up which demands another nomination and election for this year's town council to be held on Jan. 10 and ST. KITTS PREFERS RIDDELL 17. There was an election of water commissioners, resulting as follows. J. C. Breithaupt (502), George Rumpel (461), H. J. Bowman (452), P. S. Lautenschlager (450). K. Hartnung and E. Quirmbach got 240 and 152 votes respectively.

In accordance with the opinion and advice of Town Solicitor E. P. Clement, returning officers were instructed to count ballots of $20,000 market building, west ward sewer and Niagara bylaw until after the election of the town council, on which occasion the electors who did not vote to-day will be permitted to vote. It is reported, however, by officials who sorted the ballots that all of them would be carried by large majorities, especially the Niagara power measure. In one division where 153 votes were cast only six votes were marked against the latter bylaw.
