JOHN GUINANE,

Won. Lost,

Won. Lost,

Yonkers and Charley McKeever of this city fought a rattling six-round bout at the Arena to night. McKeever was on the offensive most of the time and landed repeatedly. In the fifth round both men attacked each other savagely, and, after a number of rapid exchanges, McKeever gained first blood as the bell rang. In the next round they continued their savage attacks and fin/shed the bout punching hard at each other. McKeever had the best of the fight.

cheer which is about to be enjoyed in every home in the land.

Everyone Given Gifts.

Not one of all the 277 patients was over looked in the distribution of Xmas cheer. Many who were unable to move from their rooms unassisted were brought down on stretchers, and the unbounded pleasure which beamed from many a pain-whitened face was itself ample reward for the efforts put forth by Mrs. Col. Hamilton and there kind friends. To those who were unable to leave their beds fruits and sweetmeats were given, in addition to more subsantial presents.

Santa Claus Came.

Owing to the scarcity of snow Santa Claus' reindeer were a little behind scheduled time, but once there that folly wight infected both the convalescent and the robust with his joility and good humor. Dr. Bradley impersonated the character.
