proundry the first of many that will take place between now and June. The occasion was the marriage of Miss Inez Mitchell, daughter of Mr. W. J.-Mitchell of St. Georgestreet, to Mr. George Broughall, nephew of the rector of St. Stephen's. It was an ideal hridal day, and if there is any truth in the old belief that the bride is happy upon whom the sun shines, then yesterday's bride will be happy, indeed. The chancel rail was daintily decorated with a lattice work of smilax and rows of snowy carnations, white each side of the entrance was banked with clusters of Easter lilles. Seven red lights, burned before the altar, which was starred with Easter lilles, nestling at the foot of the tall silver candlesticks, and on either kide were beautiful groups of graceful palms and green trees.

There was a full supplied choir, led by Mr. Plummer, and the officiating clergymen were the rector of St. Thomas' and Rev. Mr. Broughall of St. Stephen's, uncle of the groom.

The guests began to arrive about 2 o'clock.

World...

The guests began to arrive about 2 o'clock, and soon the central alsles, which were divided off with white ribbons, were filled with splendidly gowned women, all in gay colors, as befitted the joyous occasion. The heautiful bridal chorus from Lohengrin, sung by the choir boys, announced the arrival of the bride, and soon every eye was turned upon the pretty marriage procession. The four ushers, wearing white button-hole bouquets, came first; then five handsome bridesmaids, all in pink, and carrying green shepherds' crooks, to which were attached along bouquets of bridesmaid roses, tied with bows and long ends of green ribbon: then came a tiny maid of honor, Miss Eleanore Phillips, in snowy white big hat, and carrying a long bouquets of marguerites; finally came the bride, the centre of attraction, a radiant figure in her shimmering bridal robe, and large tuile veil, leaning upon her father's arm. They were met at the chauged by the groom and the best-man, and Rev. Mr. Broughall, who performed the cercmony.

St. Thomas' Church was yesterday afternoon the scene of a fashionable wedding, probably the first of many that will take

The third of the series of "Home Topics" lectures, arranged by the Women's Local Council, was delivered yesterday afternoon in the Normal School Hall by Mr. James L. Hughes, before a very appreciative audience. Mr. Hughes' subject was "Home and School," in which was discussed very ably the relations that should exist between parents and tenchers for the better development of the child. Mr. Hughes said that the proper training of the child was the only true basis for the right evolution at the proper training of the child in the midst. The highest training is impossible until all training agencies are intelligently co-operative, and the most influential of the school. To find the best that is in and the acts of its incorporation, was a provincial company, as appears by its charter, and the acts of its incorporation, was a provincial company, subject only to the same stand the best that is in and the acts of its incorporation, was a provincial company, subject only to the child's character.

Nothing will do this like Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills.

After such serious diseases as Typhoid Fever, Scarlet Fever, Pneumonia, Diphtheria, La Grippe, etc., the heart and nerves are left in an extremely weakened condition, and the blood is thin and watery.

Getting back health and strength again seems slow work. At this time there is nothing that will help a convalescent to health like Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills. They impart vitality to the heart and nerves, enrich the blood and invigorate the whole system. Since the recent epidemic of Grippe, thousands of people have not regained their strength—don't feel their old self yet. A few boxes of Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills will banish all the evil after effects of this disease and rapidly restore health and animation. Mr. T. Barnicott, with Messrs. Hutchinson &

Thompson, Aylmer, Ont., made the following statement: "About a year ago I was quite sick with La Grippe, which left my system in an exhausted condition.

"I could not regain strength and was very nervous and sleepless at night, getting up in the morning as tired and unrefreshed as when I went to bed. I was very listless, had no energy, and was altogether in a miserable state of health.

"Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills, which I got at Richard's Drug Store, changed me from a condition of misery to one of bright and happy healthfulness.

"They built up my system, strengthened my nerves, restored vigorous circulation of the blood, and in fact made a new man of me. They are a splendid remedy for all enfeebled and nervous conditions, and I heartily recommend them to any one suffering from the after effects of Grippe."

Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills cure Palpitation, Dizzy and Faint Spells, Shortness of Breath, Nervousness, Sleeplessness, Anaemia, Dyspensia, St. Vitus Dance, Partial Paralysis, Female Troubles, Weakness

The Demon Dyspepsia—In-oiden times it was a popular belief that demons moved invisibly through the ambient air seeking to enter into men and trouble them. At the present day the demon, dyspepsia, is at large in the same way, seeking habitation in those who by careless or pawise living invite him. And once he enters a man it is difficult to dislodge him. He that finds himself so possessed should know that a vallant friend to do battle for him with the unseen foe is Parmelee's Vegetable Pills, which are ever ready for the trial.
