WAITING ON CANADIANS.

For Advice Before Ratifying the Modus Vivendi in Regard to the Alaskan Boundary.

Washington, Oct. 6.—There has been no progress towards a final agreement upon a modus vivendi fixing the Alaskan boundary, even temporarily, since the tentative scheme framed by Secretary Hay and Mr. Tower, the British charge, was sent to London for ratification there. So far as is known here the London authorities are still waiting upon the Canadians in this matter.

WOULD LYING BE WRONG?

Another Friendly Crime by a Negro in Kentucky.

Mayville, Ky., Oct. 6.—Mrs. James Lashbrook, wife of a well-to-do farmer in this county, was ravished and murdered yesterday at her home at Clark's Station. After the outrage her assailants secured a club and beat out the woman's brains. The officers brought in Richard Coleman, a young negro, last night, who has confessed to having murdered Mrs. Lashbrook. It is doubtful if they will be able to save the negro from being hanged.

A Day at the Police Court.

Three months in the Central Prison was the sentence imposed yesterday by Magistrate Denison on George Sangster, an hotel porter, for robbing P. A. Richmond of Pittsburg of a gold watch and chain and some cash.

For using abusive language and assaulting a prisoner in the cells, John Noonan was committed to the Central for four months.

A fine of $2 was imposed on Robert Green, Joe Scott, James Knapp and Samuel McLennan for trespassing on the C.P.R. tracks.

Thomas Murray of Hayes-street was arraigned on three charges of stealing books and remanded for a week.

An adjournment for a week was made in the case of Miss Murphy and Nellie Mulqueen, charged with being keepers or frequenters of a disorderly house.

Mary Robson was acquitted of a charge of stealing a watch from Miss Dundon, with whom she was installed at Slater-street. She was rearrested on a charge of theft preferred by Constable James Robinson of Campbellford. They left for the east on the 2 o'clock train.

Scholarships for Competition.

Much interest is being manifested in the scholarships now being offered for free competition at the Metropolitan School of Music. The majority of these will entitle the winners to free instruction from about the beginning of November to the end of June, but in addition there will be a number of partial scholarships awarded. Early registration for competition is advisable, as the lists will be closed after a certain number of entries, and in any event none can be accepted after the 18th inst. Among the teachers contributing the scholarships are the following: Piano, Mr. W. G. Forsyth, director of the Metropolitan; Messrs. P. Arthur Oliver and Peter C. Kennedy; the Misses Annie J. Proctor, Sara Burr and Ethel K. Martin; Vocal, Miss Campbell Stotesbury, Mr. W. Y. Archibald and the Scissors violin Miss Nellie Waldman and Miss Kate Archer; elocution, Miss Lillian Burns, who will give one full and two partial scholarships. Printed particulars can be obtained from the secretary of the Metropolitan School of Music, corner of Queen-street and Macdonell-avenue.

Dr. Suse Rijnhart on Thibet.

The lecture by Dr. Suse C. Rijnhart on Thibet at the Cecil-street Church of Christ on Wednesday evening should prove of great interest to the general public as well as to missionaries. Dr. Rijnhart, who will appear in native Thibetan costume, will give her own description of the last fatal journey into the interior of Thibet, from which her husband never returned. No admission fee will be charged.

Australians at Albany.

Albany, N.Y., Oct. 6.—A distinguished party of Australians were among the visitors at the Executive Chamber today. They included General Sir Andrew Clark, Agent-General for Victoria, Australia; Dr. J. A. Cockburn, Agent-General of South Australia; the Hon. W. P. Reeves, Agent-General of New Zealand, and Albert G. Berry of Victoria.
