

GOUGH'S Friday Bargains

The price reductions told of below come at a most opportune time for the man who needs stylish winter clothing, and for those whose gift ideas run into the practical. Everything offered to-day is brand new this season. Don't overlook that fact. We're just as enthusiastic about these Friday bargains as our customers are, because we know, and you will know, if you come, that we are offering nothing but the highest-grade clothing—and we're selling them at the lowest prices ever heard of.

Fur-Lined Coat Specials

These specials offer the greatest opportunity of the winter for the man who wants a stylish fur-lined coat for his own use, or wishes to make a handsome Xmas present to his best friend.

$40 Fur-Lined Coats, $28.75
Splendid large full-bodied coats, made with beautiful black beaver shells, luxurious marmot lining, and stunning Western beaver collar. These coats are not only perfectly-tailored throughout, but are full of style, being made after the most recent models. Regular $40.00, Special Friday bargain, $28.75.

$70 Fur-Lined Coats, $49.50
It is only the backwardness of the season that causes us to place these coats on sale at this price to-day. Everything that has gone into their make-up is of the very finest quality. Shells are of the finest beaver, linings of No. 1 selected muskrat, and collar of beautiful natural Canadian otter. They are every inch a gentleman's coat, and the beautiful workmanship, finish and style stand out all over them. Regular $70.00, Special Friday bargain, $49.50.

$14 to $18 Men's Suits, $7.95
There are two hundred and fifty sample suits in this lot, and they are the season's finest creations in ready-to-wear suits. The tightness of the money situation forced a well-known manufacturer to put them on the market, and we came along with the ready cash and snapped them up at our own price.

They are made of beautiful imported worsted and corduroy, and the style features shown in this season's fashion plates, such as broad shoulders, rather wide tapering lapels, and medium-length coats without vent in back. The linings are of the finest, and they are finished throughout like custom-made. Every suit in the lot is worth from $14 to $18. You may select yours to-day at $7.95.

$10 to $12.50 Men's Overcoats, $6.95
You may consider yourself lucky if you have put off the overcoat question until now, in being able to take advantage of this wonderful sale. These coats come in smart tweeds and handsome black beaver-lined.

RESTRICTING IMMIGRATION.

Federal and Provincial Governments Cable Agents to Quit Work.

The 300 destitute Bulgarians were marched in picturesque procession yesterday from their hovels on Eastern Avenue to the House of Industry, where they are being cared for. Park Commissioner Chambers does not look with favor upon housing these needy individuals in any of the exhibition buildings, none of which are really suitable for the purpose. Property Commissioner Harris says they were herded like cattle in a stock car, one room 14x20 feet being occupied by twenty-six of them. Three of the houses occupied were without heating. He has been informed that the Dominion Government has cabled its agents in Europe to discourage all immigration during the winter, and has instructed the steamship companies to do likewise. Mr. Harris recommended the board of control to apprise the gov-

OLD MAN RESCUED IN THE NICK OF TIME
Thomas Miller's House Discovered to Be on Fire in the Early Hours of Morning.

BROCKVILLE, Dec. 5.—(Special.)—Rescued just in the nick of time, as his house was burning down, was the experience of Thomas Miller, a farmer living alone about 15 miles from Brockville.

It was just before daybreak this morning that the attention of neighbors was directed to the scene by the reflection of the blaze. Miller, who is very old, deaf and an odd character generally, had come outside and was about to re-enter for some valuable papers he had forgotten, when he was restrained by force. The house collapsed a few minutes later, destroying the entire contents.
