offer to assist the murderer. The soldier continued his struggles. but the mastery was not in his power Tried To Pull Pistol.

He made a sudden dash for his poc ket, but the ever-watchful officers intercepted it, and after some minutes' fight, the handcuffs were placed on the wrists of the slayer of Lloyd. Motr was a pitiful object after hi

When he saw that he was captured he raged like a wild beast. His ungovernable temper was manifest during the terrible struggle, and he did not cease to fight until it was impossible for him to make a move. He kicked and bit and tried every possible means of getting his hands free, but to no purpose. Was Fully Armed.

As soon as the officers made sure that he was securely handcuffed they

Around his waist was one of the revolvers he took with him when he left the barracks.

Five out of the six chambers were loaded, and the trigger was on the empty cell. Moir had made many ineffectual attempts to get the revolver, but the vigllance of the officers alone prevented another tragedy. The prisoner was placed in a bug-

Arthur. In an hour or so, the party reached any chances on that. that place, and Moir was locked in a cell to await the coming of the London officers to take him to London to face his trial for the worst of human Constable Farrell's Story.

Constable Farrell, of Arthur, freely discusses the capture, and is quite elated over the successful ending of the exploit.

"I have been on the lookout for Moir ever since I was informed of the murder," he said. "When I heard that he was heading Stratford way, I thought that perhaps he might come in this direction, so I kept a lookout for him. "I did not hear anything definite for some time, although there were many

"About a week ago, I heard that a man answering Moir's description was working somewhere in the vicinity. "I did not put much faith in this vague rumor, as there had been so many of them.

A Clue

"Saturday morning, however, farmer came to me and said that man answering the description of Moir had been seen by him along the road in Nichol Township.

"The farmer made inquiries road. "This information looked most reasonable to me, and I ordered my horse hitched right away.

"I sent for Stephen Coughlin, another constable, and we started. "Coughlin is a good man, and I knew him to be a splendid man in case of a fight. He has been tried and was Reached the Farm.

"Well, we started out, and after and so we drove right up to it." the barn through the cow stable.

"There was no person in sight. But before we got there. there was a wagon drawn up, and I other end of the barn, and we listened.

Murderer Approaches. "I made a sign of silence to Cough-

"We then went to the place where we heard the voices. "When we arrived there we saw two murderer.

"One was unharnessing one of the horses and the other stood behind the other animal.

caliber of Moir

he made a move.

"I would have shot him down had he made a move to pull a gun. "I did not want to kill the man, but I wanted to prevent him killing me.

Talked Horse.

"So we made it appear that we were two horse-dealers. "You have some pretty good horses there, I said to David Robb. 'Would you like to sell the team?" "Robb said that he would

"I looked the team over for a few tirely unsuspicious. "'Would you sell this team?" I asked Robb.

"'Yes, I would sell them if I got enough money,' Robb answered. "Coughlin and I had not lost any

"Coughlin just appeared to be a man with me, and Moir paid no attention to posed to have given up the chase. We

"When both of us got right behind

Moir I gave Coughlin the sign and we jumped him in a moment. "I grabbed his right Coughlin seized his left. We threw him on the ground, and then the fight began.

"Moir fought and struggled. He fairty screamed with rage. "Moir is only a slightly-built fellow, but he fought us hard.

"Then he commenced his fight. He break our hold. "I never saw a man put up a more had an awful time trying to hold him. "He called for David Robb to assist im, but Robb refused to aid him.

"'Help me, Dave! Give a man a chance!' he shouted. "His fearful temper was shown then, as it had not been before.

"Had he been able to get a revolver there would have been another story to Fought All Over the Floor.

the stable floor. Finally we got the He started to work for us." "We could have laid him out, had we so desired, but we did not want to do "When we stood him up he was in khaki trousers and tan shoes. bad shape. His eyes fairly gleamed with hate, like a beast at bay. His temper was absolutely fiendish. Gave Up at Last.

"When the handcuffs were on him. he quieted down. He seemed to know that it was all up with him, and he made no further trouble.

"We searched him and found a 32 caliber revolver on him. Five chambers were loaded. The trigger was on gy. His belongings were gathered up the empty one. He was eviby the officers, and they started for dently trying to get the gun when he made a grab, but we were not taking "Moir cursed himself for being such a fool to be captured so easily. That seemed to bother him a great deal.

Talked With Officers.

"We put him in the buggy and drove him to Arthur. He talked with us on the way in, but I am not at liberty to tell what he said. "We reached home about 7:30 and had Moir placed in the cells. "He was quiet and made no further trouble. We watch him all the time.

so that he cannot get away.

Admitted His Identity. "There is absolutely no doubt that the man is Moir. He told us he was. in fact. The description tallies in every particular with the description of the murderer sent out by the London chief of police. "Moir told me that he did not know that he had killed Lloyd until he read an account of the murder in Stratford on Monday morning.

"I did not find out much Robbs regarding the man.' Constable Farrell acknowledged that he would apply for the $500 reward offered by the Government.

He did not know there was a reward for the man's arrest until informed of it Saturday night, after his return with the prisoner.

Shortly after the capture farmer named Robb, whose farm is Chief Blacklock, of Elora, an officer from Guelph, and Farmer Chas. Robb arrived at the Robb homestead Blacklock as soon as he had been told by Mr. Robb that a man answering Moir's description was working on his farm, phoned Chief Randall, who immediately set out for the farm. They were prepared to capture the man.

Constable's Story.

"Last evening Mr. Robb came to me and said that he thought Moir was many inquiries, we reached the Robb working on his farm," Mr. Blacklock farm about 5:30, I should judge. The said. "I tried to get someone to go barn was situated some distance back, out with me, but I could not. Then phoned Chief Randall, of Guelph, "I tied the horse up, and went into and he came out. We went out to the farm but the man had been caught

"Mr. Robb told me the circum knew that there must be some person stances. He said that nearly three weeks ago this man had come to his "In a minute voices came from the place looking for work. Mr. Robb needed a man, and after considerable dickering engaged him for $20 a month. He had heard of the murder, out had no description of Moir, "The other day the man troubled with the toothache. Mr. Robb advised him to go to Dr. Wallace at Alma, and have it fixed. Moir went.

Moir Had Toothache "In a couple of days Mr. Robb had "As soon as I looked I knew that a chat with Dr. Wallace. The dentist question that it was Moir. the man who was taking the harness remarked that the man whose tooth off the horse was Moir, the London he had attended to was none other excite suspicion. I came up when than Moir, the London murderer. Robb they had him on the floor in the "I gave him but a casual glance, as I was given a description of Moir, and barn. did not want to make him suspicious. agreed that it was he who was work-"At the same time I kept my hand ing for him. The hired man had a he was captured. But he was comon my revolver, as I was not anxious deformed ear, and all the other marks pletely whipped. All the fight had been to take any chances with a man of the of the missing Moir. Robb agreed to taken out of him. His spirit was inform the police regarding his sus-"I had it so arranged that I could picions. He was afraid to arouse shoot through my coat-pocket in case Moir's suspicions, as the Robb family knew that Moir was armed, and did not care to take any chances. "One of the Elora papers printed a description of Moir, but it had been cut out, presumably by Moir, who was not anxious that any description that might lead to his capture should be found lying around the house. Will Bring Him Back.

This morning Detective Nickle left for Arthur to bring the man back. It is not known when he will return. Chief Williams is highly pleased with the result of the capture. He seconds, keeping an eye on the man has been confident all along that the capture of Moir was only a matter of get familiar with him. It is not very of Color-Sergt. Lloyd would be house.

brought to justice. "The London police have been armed until over a week after he working quietly ever since this man came. One day we were working in got away," said Chief Williams. "We the granary. He was stooping over have not told everything that has and he grabbed at his beit. We were time, as we had moved quite close to been going on, but we have by no suspicious at the time that means been sleeping. I have had sev- volver was slipping out, and that he eral officers out since we were supwere of the opinion that we had Moir within a certain district. We then had a close watch kept. As soon as the man moved we were confident that we would get him. It shows that we had tween two water cranes in Hitchin the man located right, and that our method of doing business was not al-never wise to hurry. We have got our man at last." The Robb Farm.

"The first thing he did when we captured, is four miles directly north office, the gift being equal to a sixseized him was to make a dive for his of Elora. The farm is run by two penny rate. He has already given together bad. These things all take time. People get in a hurry, but it is

"We were ready for that move and David Robb, who was present at the capture, lives on an adjoining farm.

James Robb was interviewed about Moir, and freely told his story. "On the night of April 22 I was in bit and scratched, and clawed and Elora at a concert," said James Robb kicked. He squirmed like a snake, and "About 11 o'clock I returned; and found did everything he could think of to that a man had come to our house looking for work. My sister told me that he had come about sundown and wicked fight. One man would have asked for a night's lodging and something to eat.

"When he had his supper he asked if we wanted a man to work for us. I told him we did, and he applied for the job. I asked him if he had had any experience, and he said that he had about four years' experience.

"In the lamplight he looked to be fairly well dressed and a very respectable sort of chap. I asked him what he wanted a month, and he said "We fought and struggled all over but we compromised on $20 a month.

"In the morning he did that. We knew that we could hold him, look so well. His clothes were in so we let him struggle until he was bad shape. He wore a cap much too exhausted. Then we had him all right, small for him, an overcoat, a sweater, trousers were very dirty, and it looked as if the man had slept out all night "However, we did not suspect anyalthough it contained an account of the murder, it did not give a description of the man wanted.

Not Suspicious.

"At first, of course, we did not suspect the man. About four days after we found that part of the Elora paper had been cut out. On investigation we found that the missing part contained a description of the murderer. We thought this rather peculiar. "A day or so after we sent Moir t the sawmill at Alma. He did not wear his own cap, but too kanother cap from the house. We could not understand the head of the poll. that at all. However, we were very ing and that sort of thing, so we did not have much time to investigate.

busy about the farm with the seed-

Toothache His Undoing. "A week ago Saturday Moir complained of a toothache, and I told him to go to Dr. Wallace at Alma.

"We wear his own cap, but another one, 2,709. that came down quite far over his ears. We did not ask any questions for fear cer Churchill (Liberal), 7,079; Sir Geo. that his suspicions would be aroused. Baxter (Unionist), 4,370; Mr. Stuart "I thought I would see Dr. Wallace (Laborite), 4,014; and talk the matter over with him, as I thought he would probably know something about the case. I went in to see him Monday and talked it over with him.

"'Jim, you have the man working for "I agreed with him. Dr. Wallace stated that he was certain it was Moir when he filled his tooth. He noticed the fact that it was the right ear that was mutilated. I was under the impression that it was Moir's left ear that was disfigured. In spite of this apparent discrepancy we were certain this was teh man.

Moir Didn't Know "Moir had no idea that we suspected him. We talked of the crime with him. He used to answer our questions board of trade in effecting a settlebriefly, and did not seem to suspect that we knew anything.

"I had another chat with Dr. Wallace and he told us to go slowly, because if Moir became suspicious at all he would either make more trouble or get out.

"However, the neighbors began talk considerably about the case. Moir bells and goaded him on Friday evendid not go out much, and as a result ing to appeal to an assemblage of did not hear what was going on.

Told the Police. "So on Saturday my brother informed the chief of police at Elora, but the Arthur men had made the

"It seems that Constable Farrell had heard of the rumors afloat and investigated.

"It was something after 5 o'clock when Farrell and Coughlin came along. They told me their business, and I told them they would find Moir over in the barn with my brother Dave. I warned them to be careful, as I considered him a bad man and I knew he was armed.

"I teld all I knew about the man, occasion to go to Alma, and he had and they were convinced beyond all "I did not go with them, as it might

"Moir's eyes snapped like fire when completely broken. "The officers did not treat the man roughly. The could have laid him out error "One penny." had they desired. They got a grip on him, and let him wear himself Moir tried to get his revolver, but the officers prevented that. He asked my brother Dave to help him, but Dave would not do that. He was too anxious to get rid of him."

Moir's Actions. "Moir was not a bad sort of fellow. He was not very genial, but he did not interfere with any person. He minded his own business very well. He was not fresh or anything like that. Of course we had been suspicious of him for some time, and we watched his time, and that before long the slayer pleasant to have a murderer in your

"We did not know that Moir was had adjusted it.

"The women were not afraid of him. I am glad it is all over."

At Hitchin County Court a disagreement arose as to the distance bestation. Judge Snagge decided the point by stating that while he was at the station when the case was adjourned, he stepped the distance, and found it was 120 yards, which a railway official said was correct.

It was announced that the mayor of Bacup had presented the town with The Robb farm, where Moir was a site worth £2,000 for a new postbrothers, Charles and James Robb. a recreation ground costing £5,000.

BOVRIL renovates the blood and builds up muscle and nerve. It is good for children, athletes and invalidsgood for all.

MR. CHURCHILL

thing. We take a Toronto paper, and Brilliant Young Cabinet Minister Captures By-Election After Warm Contest.

Dundee, May 9 .- After a short, sharp contest Dundee today proved steadfast to the Liberal faith, which it has held unshaken for a quarter of century, returning Winston Spencer Churchill, president of the board of trade, to the House of Commons at

Although the Unionists did not expect to oust Mr. Churchill from that generally regarded safe seat, their most sanguine prediction being that Sir George Baxter, their candidate, had "a good sporting chance," still they He have the satisfaction of rising from went that afternoon and had the tooth fourth to second place in the poll as again noticed that he did not the Liberal majority from 5,411 to compared with 1906, and of reducing

The vote today stood: Winston Spen-

(Prohibitionist), 655.

Tariff the Issue. Dundee is one of the chief sufferers from prevailing bad trade, and the Tariff Reformers and Laborites made the most of it. The former paraded with placards, declaring that the jute workers had lost their employment through the American tariff, and that this was the opportunity for them. The local jute works closed today, and this afforded an excellent argument and one which the tariff reformers were not slow to take advantage of The advocates of protection and the laborites made capital out of the shipbuilding dispute, in connection with which there are 1,400 unemployed in The fact that Mr. Churchill was not so successful as his predecessor in the ment of the great industrial crisis was regarded as most hopeful by the Laborites for their cause.

Goaded by Suffragettes. Mr. Churchill also suffered much from the suffragettes who had frequently broken up open air meetings to by the clanging of railway and dinner workmen not to tolerate the rowdyism of toughs but to meet force by force. On the other hand, the budget announcement of the remission of the duty on sugar undoubtedly was in Mr. Churchill's favor, as Dundee is the center of the jam industry.

BABY JOINS THE ARMY. Madrid, May 11.—Prince Alfonso of the Asturias, the infant son of King death. Alfonso, who was born May 10, 1907, was enrolled in the Spanish army at prince was attired in the uniform of a private of "The King's Own Regiment," and was carried by the queen to the altar, where the military oath was administered. The income tax during the past year, in spite of a drop of 36 cents per $5,000 on earned income, has increased by fully two-thirds of a mil-

In London the other night Messrs. Plumridge realized $340 for an 1881 8-cent blue postage stamp of Cape of Good Hope, being the rarity with the

Our Values Are Supreme

Pretty White

Underskirt

WEATHER

PROBS:

You can't help saving when you make your purchases at this store. We always figure the biggest value for your dollar. Even when purchases are made under extraordinary and most favorable conditions our motto is, HOW LITTLE, not how much, can we sell it for. Whitewear----Higher Qualities at

Quality For Quality

These Prices Than for

MONDAY.

MAY 11.

Several Years For $2.48 Full Cut Garments-Don't be misled if you see a garment advertised at a very low price. Examine it, measure it. Many sales are made up of garments "made to sell," so pinchingly tight and skimped in every way that many are really only regular goods at regular prices. EXAMINE THE GOODS. KNOW YOUR STORE. We are proud of the excellence of our garments, proud of the values-best we have had in years. In many cases better than we ever had. Depend upon it. THEY'RE THE BEST.

Ladies' White Underskirt, $2.48

This style is represented by above cut. Lace trimmed, made of good cotton, with extra deep flounce of lawn, set with four rows of Torchon insertion and cluster tucks, finished with frill of lace and insertion, over dust-frill of self. Each $2.48 Another style at same price. Made of fine cotton, with extra deep umbrella flounce; cluster of seven tucks and wide embroidery insertion, finished with wide frill of embroidery, gathered band and dust ruffle of self. Lengths, 38, 40, 42 and 44 inches, and specially priced at, each

Ladies' Drawers, Special, 88c

These are made of special quality, fine cotton, and are extra good width, with frill of embroidery and cluster of hemstitched tucks above frill, gathered band, sizes, 23, 25 and 27; open and closed. Special, 88¢ pair. As represented by accompanying cut.

Special Cotton Gowns, $1.35

Made of good quality cotton, with Mother Hubbard yoke of embroidery insertion, beading and ribbon, with frill of embroidery around yoke, square neck, finished with edging of embroidery; sleeve also has frill of embroidery. Special, $1.35 each.

SPECIAL. 88¢ PAIR.

Marguerite Gown, 98c This gown is made of fine cambric, with yoke of alternate rows of insertion, fastened with beading and ribbon and lace, short sleeves, with frill of goods and lace. A SECOND FLOOR. TAKE ELEVATOR. Store Closes Malman & Ingram at Six o'Clock Daily.

Murdered a Score of Children day at the hands of an infuriated This morning she was found asleep

Several months ago the Weber wo-children. ed the belief that she was a victim her.

mob, after it had been learned that with the dead body of a boy by her she had strangled a 7-year-old boy to side. The child had been strangled. He was covered with blood, and his Doctors who examined her express- get at the tigress," and tried to lynch of infanticidal mania, but no proof to The police arrested the woman, but Awful Record of French Ogress Nancy, France, May 9-Janne Web- man arrived here Wednesday, and er narrowly escaped lynching here to- under an assumed name secured lodgtongue had been cut out. When an man was arrested in Paris charged identity of the murderess had been the royal chapel yesterday. The little with the murder of over a score of made an immense crowd gathered outside the house shouting, "Let us secure a conviction could be found, they were forced to fight their way to and she was allowed to go. The wo- jail with their prisoner.

long delay the Ameer of Afghanistan has replied to the Indian Governnent's remonstrance against the in-Afghans. The Ameer explains the difficulties of controlling the frontier and states that he has issued stringent crossed the border, and instructing immediately against the Mohmands. ARMY OF CURIOUS FLOCK TO LAPORTE housands Visit Scene of the Alleged Murders of Mrs. Guinness.

Laporte, May 10 .- All roads in Laporte County today led to the farm of ess of at least ten persons. Upwards of 15,000 sightseers visited the place find any likeness to his brother in the today, including nearly every ablebodied citizen of Laporte. The railroads and trolley lines brought about 8,000 non-residents to the city.

Hotels and restaurants were overrun with patrons, and every conveyance in Laporte was pressed into service in an attempt to provide transportation to the farm. Hundreds, however, were forced to walk.

Excavations for more bodies halted day. Several visitors, however, were eeking information concerning missng friends or relatives, and some of the further information regarding the possible identification of the victims | long standing.

Simla, British India, May 10 .- After the officials to prevent further incurs-

Advices from Peshawar yesterday stated that while the Mohmand tribesmen were still giving the British auvasion of British territory by the thorities much trouble, most of the Afghans had withdrawn. Major-General Sir James Willcocks, with two brigades of British and Indian forces, has been ordered to proceed with punorders recalling those who have itive measures and will take the field > of the farm resulted from their quiries.

The most definite information came from Olaf Lind Bee, of Chicago. He said that his brother Thomas worked for Mrs. Guinness three years ago and that the last letter from him said that Thomas intended to marry Guinness Olaf wrote to Mrs. Guinness later and she replied that Thomas had gone to St. Louis and that she had no word from him. Olaf has not heard of Thomas since. He viewed the unidentified bodles, but was unable to bundles of bones and flesh. Sheriff Smultzer will continue his investigations at the Guinness farm tomorrow

STEAMERS ARRIVED. May 8. Romanic.. Quebec Liverpool
New York Liverpool
Father Point Rotterdam
Portland Mauretania. Southwark.

BOILS, CARBUNCLES, ABSCESSES, ULCERS. Druggists refund money if DR. POR-TER'S ANTISEPTIC HEALING OIL

Ripe Strawberries

149 to 153

DUNDAS

QUART BOXES, 20c RIPE PINEAPPLES, 15c, 20c and 25c RIPE TOMATOES, per pound

CUCUMBERS, each 10c Lettuce, Rhubarb, Parsley, Green Onions, Radish, Spinach, Turnips, Carrots, Etc. Canned Corn, Peas, Beans, Pumpkins..... 3 tins for 25c

Splendid value in CALIFOR

NIA SEEDLESS ORANGES

per dozen 35c

.... 200

John Diprose TWO POPULAR STORES.

56-Dundas Street-266.

386-Phones-2261.

A "STRAWS INDICTE HOW

THE WIND BLOWS."

The Business Man's

Shows how progressive he is. He must use the neatest, cleanest and best printing that he can get if he would impress his business forcibly upon his fellow men.

We are prepared to give you neat, business. bringing printing-just the kind you are looking for.

ADVERTISER JOB

Telephone 175