WHO WILL BE THE LIBERAL CHOICE?

The War Is On

To the Editor of The Times:

Sir,—It may not be generally known, but it is a fact that a very determined effort is to be made by a few of the so-called leaders of the Liberal party in St. John to prevent the Attorney General from securing the nomination of that party. For some years the machinery of the party has been in the hands of two or three individuals who have been manipulating things to suit themselves with the hope that events might turn out to their personal advantage. St. John was lost to the Liberal party in the last general election because of the weakness of the candidates placed in the field and the fact that they had been nominated by a stuffed convention. In other words the gentlemen who received the largest number of votes as the result of unfairly conducted primaries were rejected by enough Liberal voters who objected to being led by the nose by those would-be political "bosses" to defeat them. Under the system which prevails the patronage is dispensed by the defeated candidates and for two years this patronage has been exploited with the intention of controlling future primaries. Why men who have been rejected by the people and by their own party should be permitted to do further injury to party interests by being allowed to retain and operate for their personal benefit what really belongs to the executive of the party is difficult to explain. But this is the condition of affairs that really exists, and which must be overcome if St. John is to be represented by a man of ability, for be it known the "boss" of the Liberal party does not want a man representing this city who can control the expenses of those under his control in their efforts to again obtain control of the primaries next Monday evening.

There is not a business man nor a thinking man in this community who does not recognize that the best man we have got to represent us at Ottawa for the next few years is none too good. He will have a hard fight to get justice for John and will have to take a determined stand against other interests which would rather ignore St. John altogether, or compel action that would be detrimental to our best interests. A second-rate man is no good, for two reasons, the principal of which is that he is not likely to be elected, a fact that would mean nothing of the kind. There was every reason why the Liberals should have carried St. John. It was admitted generally that the Canadian people would again return Sir Wilfrid Laurier to power, and common sense, if nothing else, would have urged the people of this constituency to send government supporters, but the candidates put forward by the Liberal party were so lamentably weak that the party which had been built up with such care, and easily had a majority, was so torn asunder by internal strife that it was defeated. In history to be allowed to be defeated is a disgrace. Are the same methods which brought about this defeat to be permitted to guide the party in the next election? If they are, a come recognition of the Liberal party is necessary, and its control removed from the hands of those who would exploit it for their personal advantage. To do this, those who desire the representation of the city to be in proper hands must attend the primaries and get their share of the vote. The control removed from those who rank

The annual sale of the market tolls, stalls and scales for the ensuing year will be held on Friday, April 26, at 11 o'clock.

People living between Germain and Sydney streets, on Princess street, have just cause to complain about the condition of that street. No effort has been made to take the ice away from that district. A number of men were put to work on the middle of King square recently, when they might have been sent to Princess street.

Tormented by small boys, and fearing the loss of his eye, Thomas Minehan, an aged resident of the vicinity of Haymarket square, called at the police court yesterday and asked if something could not be done to prevent small boys throwing snowballs at him. As he came out of the house yesterday he was struck on the nose with a missile hurled by a lad who had been waiting for him. He has but one eye and is afraid of losing the sight of it by the thoughtlessness of the young set. He reported a lad named Fish, who will be called to court.
