

the amount of the subscription at the reduced prices, and any further quantity at cost price.

IX.—That for the purpose of giving full effect to the benevolent design of the British and Foreign Bible Society, in their grant of the Scriptures for distribution among the poor, the Committee shall make it their business to inquire what family or individuals residing within their several sections are in want of Bibles and Testaments, and unable to procure them: and that it shall be the duty of the Committee to furnish them therewith, at prime cost or otherwise, according to their circumstances.

X.—That such persons, within the sphere of this Society, as shall be desirous of forming themselves into Bible Associations, shall, on sending a copy of their Rules to this Committee, be entitled to purchase at the Depositary of this Society, under the direction of the committee, copies of the Scriptures at prime cost, for gratuitous distribution or sale among their poorer neighbors.

XI.—That all Clergymen and Ministers within the sphere of this Society, making collections in their respective congregations in behalf of this Institution, shall be entitled, on remitting such collections to the Treasurer of this Society, to receive Bibles and Testaments to an amount not exceeding one-half of the said collections, estimated at prime cost, as shall be found to be needed by the poor in the vicinity: such return of Bibles and Testaments to be claimed within one year from the remittance of the collection. It is recommended, in all practicable cases, to supply the poor by sale rather than by gift.

XII.—That a General Meeting of the subscribers be held at such time as shall be convenient in each year, when the accounts shall be presented, the proceedings of the past year stated, a new Committee appointed, and a Report agreed upon, to be printed under the direction of the Committee, and circulated among the members.

XIII.—That in the formation of the new Committee, the President, Vice-Presidents, Treasurer, Secretary, Depositary, and such three-fourths of the other members as have most frequently attended the Committee, shall be re-eligible for the ensuing year.

