Passengers Will Be Carried to White Horse in Cars After Boat Sinks

Dawson Y. T., Oct. 14—Eighty pas-senger aboard the steamer Dawson, which struck a rock in the Rink Rapids, 25 miles north of Carmack, Wednesday morning, are safe and will be carried overland to White Horse, a distance of 125 miles, in trucks and automobiles, according to the latest reports reaching here this afternoon. The mail and baggage was shifted from the wreck, which occurred in shallow water, to a barge and will be sent up the river by launch.

No Change in Plan Follows

W. W. White was put into circulation this morning, it was said by Daniel Mullin, K. C., who is acting as counsel for the petitioners. Asked with respect to the advice of the City Soliciton that a separate election would be required for each of the four commisioners whose recall is sought, Mr. Mullins said the petition asking for the recall of the four commissioners had been in circulation for some days and, as he read the law, it was quite in order. This petition would be presented to the council in due time and if refused by that body then other steps steamship companies granted wage found in McCoy's Cod Liver Extract would be considered.
