ROYALS AND FTON PIRATES EACH WIN

The Fredericton Pirates and the Royals divided the honors in two games on Saturday, the former winning the evening game by a score of 16 to 13, and the latter the afternoon game, by a score of 13 to 5. Both games, which were played on the Barracks Square diamond, were witnessed by a crowd of about 300 people. Nelson pitched for the Royals in the afternoon game while McInnis did the hurling for the visitors. In the evening game Diggs was on the mound for the local men with Hogan relieving him later in the game and Jacobson pitched for Fredericton.

SATURDAY'S WAS A GREAT GAME

Baseball fans throughout the city were given a real treat Saturday when the Quincy, Mass., All-Stars and St. Peter's met in two games. The afternoon contest went to the visitors, 2-0, and the evening was called at the end of the eighth inning with the score standing, 6-5. The afternoon game was conceded to have been one of the best played in this city in years and was replete with sensational fielding. It developed into a pitcher's battle between Greenhaugh, one of the leading semi-pro pitchers in the New England States, and Hansen, four hits were secured of both pitchers.

Neither team had been able to secure a run until the first of the ninth when the visitors netted two. Two men were out and two strikes on Greenhaugh when he nosed a fast drop which carried along the left field foul line striking about six inches in fair territory and bouncing struck a pole supporting a wire fence in front of the bleachers and passed inside. This break of the game decided the issue as St. Peter's failed to tally in their last half. The box score and summary follow:

The evening game was a different brand of ball as both sides seemed tired from their supreme effort in the afternoon and many errors resulted. Errors were responsible for the majority of the runs as both King and Knight pitched well and kept their hits scattered. At the end of the eighth inning the umpires decided to call the game on account of darkness. The box score and summary follow:

ST. JOHN PEOPLE ARE STILL talking about Mr. Arliss in the historical play "Dracon"—an artistic triumph. In this modern and lighter offering his unequalled artistry stands out just as prominently. Cultured people of the larger cities and the most exacting press critics place this photoplay in a class distinctly alone as to literary merit, clean sparkling humor and delightful acting. The picture comes from the exclusive studios of the United Artists Corporation. A company of players quite in keeping with the brilliance of the leading player give Mr. Arliss faultless support.

TUESDAY PALACE

Did men powder, paint and rouge ten years ago? The answer is an emphatic "No." But today? The answer is just as emphatic "Yes." Men are now demanding everything from the stores which deal in cosmetics which we once thought sacred to women and the stage, so the Toronto Star says. Men now have their favorite powders, their particular hair oils, and their delicate perfumes.

Further some of Toronto "beauty parlors" are now specializing in giving men neat marcel waves, "that natural curl." We are now reverting in one respect at least to the Elizabethan age. In that area men wore lace cuffs and velvet clothes, silk stockings to the knee, and trousers which we would now call bloomers. If a man was short he wore high heels. He did all in his power to outshine his brilliantly garbed rivals. In later centuries our hardy forefathers came to Canada and laid nature's cavalliers low. They had little time or inclination to devote themselves to the acquirement of feminine charms.

Today, however, all is different. Girls in some Toronto stores handling powders and perfumes say that the men are more fussy and exacting in their wants than women.

The executive of the Central Baptist Sunday school on Saturday at the home of H. S. Wanamaker of Renfrew held a conference on the work of the school. At the conclusion of the business session a social hour was spent. The party was
