ARS. CYRIL SCOTT COMMITS SUICIDE

Actor's Wife, Despondent Over Her Mother's Death, Hangs Herself at Home.

New York, May 28—Mrs. Louise Elsng Scott, 50 years of age, wife of Cyrill cott, an actor, committed suicide at her ome in Queens Gorough. Her husband, ho had left the house a short time bere, found his wife dead on his return.
e told the police that she had been desmdent on account of the death of her other, about two years ago. He said at when he left the house his wife as preparing dinner, and there was as preparing dinner, and there was thing in her demeanor to lead him to spect that she was preparing to end spect that she was preparing to end life. When he returned home about 3 o'clock the afternoon, he said Mrs. Scott apured in good spirits and greeted him ctionately, and went about her work he dining room. The Scotts have no ren and keep no servants as Mrs. Scott erred to look after the domestic argements herself. About 5.30 Mr. Scott ped into his automobile and went to railroad station for the evening ers. He returned less than half and later and found the body of his hanging suspended by a sash cord in the banister on the second floor, he had made a slip-knot in one end he sash cord, placed it around her, fastened the other end of the cord he banister on the second floor, and thrown herself from the lauding, husband found her body resting nst the stairs, almost in a sitting tion. He cut the cord and hurrirdly moned Dr. G. Willard Dickie, whose is nearby. Dr. Dickie said that Scott had not been dead nore than minutes.
