GLORIED IN SERVICE FOR WHICH HE DIED

"One Could Not Fall in More Beautiful Cause," Wrote Father Wallace

Praised His Soldiers—Gassed Chaplain Sends Mother His Last Thoughts Written in the Glare of Bursting Shells

(New York Times)

The mother and sister of Chaplain E. J. Wallace, who died recently in France from inhaling gas while ministering to dying soldiers on the battlefield, have received recently an eloquent letter written by Father Wallace just before he went into the action which resulted in his death. The letter was sent to his mother, Mrs. Mary Wallace, of 1068 Dean Street, Brooklyn, by the Rev. John H. Long of St. John's College, to whom it was sent with the request that it be delivered in case of his death.

Father Wallace, who was 38 years old, had been assistant rector of St. Patrick's church at Fort Hamilton, where he had acted as chaplain before he sailed for France on May 10 last. The letter said: "In the name of the Father, and of the Son and of the Holy Ghost, My Dearest Mother and Sister Mary: As I write these lines I am under orders to go into the danger zone, and I want you to know that my thoughts and feelings are of you and that I desire to see you all again. I have recommended myself to the sacred heart of Jesus, which has been my greatest comfort and consolation all through life. Next to God, I owe you, dearest mother and sister, all that I am. Your good and holy life was a model which I strove to imitate. Your love and teachings led me to God's altar, and in my own way I have tried to follow your holy counsel. God has been exceeding kind to me in giving me first such a mother and sister, and choosing me to be one of His disciples. I have tried to fulfil my duties as a priest of God to the best of my abilities. Realizing my many shortcomings and defects, I humbly ask God's pardon if I have offended Him in any way. I have found a refuge of consolation in His Divine Heart in life, and I have the same hope that He will grant me in eternal reward in the Sacred Heart in Heaven.

"If God so will, dearest mother and sister, that I should be called home to Him, do not grieve for me nor murmur against His holy will. Remember He gave me to you and has an absolute right to call me when and where it may please Him. One could not fall in more beautiful cause than to die for my God and my country. As I write I can hear and see the glare of the cannon. Yet I have no fear since God is my protector. I have always remembered you, dearest mother and sister, every day at the altar. The happiest hour of the day was at holy mass, and oh, what a comfort and consolation my priesthood has been. I can never sufficiently thank God for His kindness to me in giving me a vocation to the priesthood. He has blessed me with many kind friends, and I want to convey my sincerest thanks to them all. If I have ever grieved you, dearest mother and sister, I know you have long since forgiven me. The same forgiveness I hereby ask of any whom I may have offended. Should I be called to God I ask their prayers. I ask that you inform the priests to bring my masses said for my soul.

"Dearest mother and sister, I have already told you of my love for my regiment and my work among my soldier boys. They have been a comfort and consolation to me. I can't tell you too much of what splendid fellows they are, and I know they will be a credit to their church and country. These are my thoughts, dearest mother, and I have requested Father Long to deliver this note to you in case I am called home. With your love and affection I recommend you, dearest mother, sister, to the Sacred Heart of Jesus.

"Lovingly, your son and brother, FR. ED."

NAZARETH.

(New York World)

The capture of Nazareth by General Allenby has the double sentimental interest and military advantage which has all along attended the triumphant progress of the British forces through Palestine. More holy ground of Christianity is redeemed from the Turk and another effective blow is struck against the infidel in the East. The conquest of the Holy Land, indeed, has become something more than a brilliant feat of arms in the eyes of the world. Its effect on the morale of Germany's half-hearted Moslem ally is bound to be profound. Nazareth, which has been a success for the Allies on their eastern front worthy of their victories on the western front and calculated to inspire them with a new vigor.
