Concerning Our $18 and $20 Suits*THESE garments should be judged not by their modest cost, but by their style and character which distinguish them from most suits at that price.

The man with a price limit is usually as particular as the one who does not study economy in buying clothes.

IT IS TO THE ECONOMICAL MAN THAT WE COMMEND OUR $18 AND $20 SUITS—satisfied that at that price they offer the utmost in style, quality and tailoring.

I. C. R. LOCAL MATTERS

A change is being contemplated in the matter of the arrangement and keeping of stores in the I. C. R. and C. R. buildings introduced for the first time in the service in this city. The new methods are widely different from those formerly employed and in order to deal with the introduction of the new system some of the officials from Montreal are today in the city, and may remain for a while until it is established in order to see how it works out. W. F. Taylor, general store-keeper of Montreal was here today in connection with the matter, as was J. Stewart, inspector, and it is expected that the latter will remain for some time to aid the local staff in the work.

J. B. T. Caron, of the I. C. R. board of management was also in the city today with George Ackman, claims agent, S. L. Shannon, who came yesterday, is still here, while J. F. Halsey and W. F. Paver have returned home.

QUEEN SQUARE CLUB.

At the home of A. B. Gilmour in Duke street last evening the members of the Queen Square Reading Club conducted an enjoyable meeting with about forty-five members in attendance.

The programme was arranged under the direction of Miss Gilmour, as a musical night, and a number of the lives and works of the great composers were given, accompanied by musical numbers serving to illustrate. Refreshments were served by the hostess and a pleasant time was enjoyed.

GERMANY SENDSTHE NOTE ALONG

Consents to Presentation of Document to Turkey

MORE CRUELITIES ALLEGED

Twenty-five Thousand Albanians Said to Have Been Slain by Servians and Commission of Inquiry is Demanded

London, Jan. 17.—Germany's consent to the presentation of the ambassadors' note of which has delayed the action of the powers, has now been given. Instructions have reached the German Ambassador in Constantinople to participate with his diplomatic colleagues in handing the note to Turkey.

Yenna, Jan. 17.—Twenty-five thousand Albanians have been "more or less wantonly" killed in the Turkish province of Kosovo, by the Servian regulars and irregulars since their invasion of European Turkey, according to the Reichpost.

The newspaper, which avers that its informants are absolutely reliable persons in Albania, demands the despatch of a European commission to verify the accuracy of the reported horrible atrocities.

Constantinople, Jan. 17.—Representatives of an international group have had several interviews with the Turkish finance minister with a view to arranging a loan to relieve the pressing wants of the Turkish treasury. Slow progress has been made and it is feared that nothing can be done until peace has been concluded.

Athens, Jan. 17.—A royal decree appoints Dorothy Prince Constantine commander-in-chief of the Greek armies in Macedonia and Epirus.

JANUARY THAW IN PRICES.

The clearance sale at Waterbury & Rising's, King street store opened with a rush this morning. Evidently people are convinced that when this firm announces a sale, a bargain feast can be looked for.

The mildness of the weather, no doubt, tempted many to visit the sale this morning, as the store was crowded from the time of opening and the staff of salespeople were kept hustling up to the hour for dinner.

The firm wisely decided on closing up for an hour from 1 to 2, enabling the entire staff to be present throughout the entire day. Extra salesmen have been provided for Saturday's business. The Dorothy Doid samples which were offered at the remarkably low price of $2.98 a pair, were picked up rapidly. Undoubted bargains are being offered in every department.
