Y. M. C. I. Alleys to Open

A meeting of the physical committee of the Y. M. C. I. was held last evening and it was decided to re-open the bowli alleys on next Monday. The alleys have been put in first class condition and a meeting will be held next week to reorganize the House League and map out plans for the coming season. The alleys will be again in charge of William J. Stack.

NEW WORLD RECORD.

Amp Perry, Ohio, Sept. 10.—A new world's record was established here today when the 1,000 yard range was won by W. Adkins, United States Marines, a run of 71 bull's eyes without a miss. This is said to exceed the previous record of 62.

The new record was made in theington cup match late Tuesday and was Sergeant Adkins the first prize in event. He was still on the range in his team captain stopped him because of darkness. Sergeant Ernest C. Crowley, both of the Marines, each had a string of 16 bull's eyes for second place.

NEXT IMPERIAL CONFERENCE IN BRITISH COLUMBIA

Premier Massey of New Zealand Suggests This in Vancouver Speech.

Vancouver, Sept. 10.—British Columbia as the venue of the next imperial conference was advocated by Right Hon. Mr. Massey, premier of New Zealand, in an address before the Canadian Club here yesterday. The conference that just closed, he said, had been such an unqualified success that it was recognized by all representatives that the meetings should be held from time to time. He saw no reason why they should not be held in the several dominions of the empire. Premier Massey and his party will sail on Saturday for New Zealand.

GOLF MEET AT ST. ANDREWS
Annual Tournament in Canadian Senior Association Begun This Morning.
St. Andrews-by-the-Sea, Sept. 10.—Play in the fourth annual tournament in the Canadian senior golf association began this morning on the picturesque links of the Algonquin Hotel, here, with players from most of the clubs in Eastern Canada competing. This morning eighteen holes of the thirty-six that will be contested for the championship were played. The player securing the best gross score in the two rounds, the second eighteen holes of which will be played on Monday morning, will be for the championship. The title at present is held by George S. Lyon of Toronto, who is defending that position at this tournament.
In addition to the challenge cup, presented by Lord Shaughnessy, which is held by the champion for one year. Twenty other trophies are up for competition, consisting of the miniature Shaughnessy cup, which becomes the permanent property of the champion, and cups for the second best gross score, the best net score in the various classes in which the players are grouped, and
