THE DOCK SCHEME. The general committee of the Common Council, which includes all the members of that body...

The Rev. Mr. Lawson stated in his sermon yesterday that the Lower Cove wharf which was seen by Rev. H. A. S. Harley was a real spirit and the last name was Gin.

Mr. Samuel Schofield in a letter to the Globe states that the steamers of the Furness Line, owing to want of proper facilities here, are compelled to land their passengers at the wharf of the Upper Province portion of their cargo at Halifax, and for the same reason are forced also to land their return cargo at Halifax instead of at St. John.

Mr. George Robertson goes to the Upper Province tomorrow to interest the merchants there in the new West India line of steamships. Mr. Robertson is well qualified for this kind of work and no doubt will be successful in it.

Under the title "The Duty of the Hour" the Montreal Gazette publishes an article demanding increased expenditures on the harbor of Montreal.

The defalcation of Silcott, cashier to the Sergeant at Arms of the House of Representatives, and his flight to Canada, bring the lack of proper extradition treaty very near to the minds of the members of Congress.

The Chatham World says of Imperial Federation: The scheme at present has not been referred to that point which brings it within the range of practical politics.

Refer to our criticism on three and four masted schooners the Windsor Tribune says that the only four masted schooner ever built in Nova Scotia is the Uruguay and that she is only 736 tons measurement.

type of vessel we had in view. A four masted schooner of the size of the Uruguay would be less objectionable than a three masted schooner of the same size, because her sails would be smaller.
