The elder Mr. Beck taught a school of fifteen select boys in Pennsylvania William Thaw, the mother, who said in it that she feared Harry's mind was unbalanced-he was so different from her other four children.

One of Mr. Thaw's eccentricities, which it is said soon will be testified to, was the sending of 84 pounds of beef to Evelyn Nesbit one morning when she was ill. The attorneys have the recepits for the meat.

Mrs. Wm. Thaw, mother of the defendant, is now in New York.

August Webber, the former Thaw builer, who yesterday testified to various incidents in the life of Harry K. Thaw during the early months of 1903, was recalled to the witness stand when the trial was opened to-day. He was asked by Mr. Littleton of the defence if Thaw's actions, as he observed them, while employed in the Washington and Philadelphia homes, impressed him as rational or irrational.

Abraham R. Beck, of Lancaster county, Pa., father of former Assistant Attorney-General James L. Beck, who was present this morning, was called. He said that Harry Thaw was one of the fifteen boys in his school in 1881 and 1882. The memory of the boy had always lived with him, said the witness, who is quite an elderly man.

The witness declared that Thaw was Thaw an irrational act.

"It seemed queer for what I did."

The witness declared that Thaw was not dissipated and seemed healthy when he knew him, but always was nervous and excitable.

Christopher Baggan, steward of the New York Whist Club, was recalled to give the dates of Thaw's visits to the club in 1904-5 and 1906. Mr. Jerome brought out from the witness the fact that he was able on each of these occasions to play bridge whist with the best players in the club.

R. A. Brown, a mustc publisher and a witness. to the killing of Stanford White, was called, and testified to Thaw's irrational appearance on the roof garden.

Brown said that he knew Thaw personally, and spoke to him during an intermission in the performance, but could not get a coherent reply.

"Did you ever get a reply from any other man twenty minutes before he took the life of a fellow-human being?" asked District Attorney Jerome.

"No," replied the witness.
