that some accident may have befallen The Rev. Arthur Mount, who was ordained a deacon at St. Paul's church last Sunday week, left on Thursday for Armstrong and Enderby, where it is expected that he will be permanently pla by the lord bishop of the diocese.

It is feared that all hope must be given up of finding either Clarence and Gerald Mannion or young Sawers alive. It wil be remembered that the three young lads started out for Bowen Island in rowboat last Sunday. The boat has been picked up, stove in, and Captain Cates of the Defiance has also found can belonging to one of the Mannion
