the pure minds of old subscribers by way of remembrance, to collect as much as I could myself, and to set others to work to collect. I have now been collecting five weeks, two in our own Presbytery, and three in the Presbytery of Miramichi. I have received in that time $1250. In one place two or three did not wait to be called upon, but sent on a few days before my arrival what they owed, $76. I have the promise of a good deal before the first of March.

In the third place, I tried to get new subscriptions wherever it was pessible to get any. In Sherbrooke I got a new subscription of $10, in Derby a
