SAINT JOHN, N. B., WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 6, 1886.

NO. 40.

Directions to Subscribers in Remitting their Subscriptions.

Many subscribers live there there is no agent, and are in doubt as to the way to remit their subscriptions...

Pastors should set an example to their flock in giving as in all things else...

Dear reader, don't have anything to do with such direful business. Allow yourself to be consumed by the slow fires of martyrdom...

We must have honest boys and honest girls. Sincerity is the stone at the bottom of all successful character.

No raising nothing. What should we raise? You are raising something. If you are not farmers, yet you do raise what is more valuable...

There is a lesson for both parent and daughters in the following extract from the Detroit Free Press.

—Moss of It.—At the quarterly meeting of the N. B. Southern Association, held at Painesville, business occupied but a little of the time...

—COURT OF WAR.—It is reckoned that four and a half millions of lives have been sacrificed in the carnage of war since 1793.

—FRANZ BRUCKNER.—The Rev. Harold reports H. E. Ellyson, Esq., of the Southern Baptist Association, as saying...

—The following lines were taken from The Christian Visitor over 20 years ago...

—During one of my holidays in North Wales, I was staying with my family near a range of hills to which I was strongly attracted...

—The two young ladies did not see the photograph, or recognize whether it was man or woman...

—STUDENT'S EXPERIENCE.—It is said that the late Saml. Morley has been in the habit of setting aside at least $150,000 a year for religious and benevolent objects.

—A MARRIAGE.—The Rev. Messrs. Charles, N. B., on the 25th ult., writing the address of his paper changed to 214 Brunswick street, Halifax, will kindly send his name, we shall be glad to make the desired change.

—THE BAPTIST CHURCH OF GLASGOW.—Scotland is showing marked aggressiveness in Christian work. They have just opened the sixth place of worship which has been erected or purchased during the last eight years.

—THE COUNTRY PASTER.—The simple annals of a country pastor's daily life are uniform and uneventful, and afford little scope for the biographer's pen.
