That there is no place for yesterday's news in today's paper, is the policy of St. John's newest daily. It is the policy that has already placed THE STANDARD in the first ranks, and it is destined for a circulation second to none in the Maritime Provinces. FIRES RAGING AROUND CALAIS.

Calais, Me., June 8.—Several hundred fire fighters combatted tonight four distinct forest fires in this city, Baring, Robinson and Charlotte.

Within several miles of Calais the fires had devastated 10,000 acres at a loss of $50,000, and were still on their flaming rampage at a late hour tonight. While the wind was carrying the flames in the direction of the city and of settlements, no buildings had been reported burned up to that time. The fires are not of today's beginning. Without exception all have been burning for two or three days, and have spread constantly despite the efforts of several hundred men who have been working in relays during that time. Unless rain comes soon, it is believed that the flames must reach some of the buildings in outlying sections of the towns.
