

SEISMIC LIVES TO GENIANS FLARE OF LIGHTS MURDER CASE "FRUIT-A-TIVES" IN VANCOUVER

Immigration Official Shot Down in Street
by Hindu.

ASSASSIN QUICKLY
CAPTURED BY POLICE

Inspector Hopkinson's aggressiveness in Kamagata Maru case proved to be his death warrant.

Vancouver, Oct. 21.—William C. Hopkinson, chief assistant to the immigration inspector here, was shot and instantly killed at the Court House on Georgia street, this forenoon by a Hindu. The alleged assassin was immediately arrested by the police. Hopkinson was standing in the main corridor of the court house when a party of Hindus passed by. A man named Mewa Singh is charged with having done the shooting. Hopkinson was threatened at the time of the Kamagata Maru's visit to Vancouver, but the reason of his assassination this morning probably arises out of a trial now pending at the assize. He was to have been a witness today in the case of Bela Singh, which was to have been taken up the grand jury this morning. Ram Singh, another Hindu, was acquitted on a charge of murder yesterday. Hopkinson gave testimony favorable to Ram Singh, who was an enemy of Mewa Singh. The police intend to proceed immediately with the charge against Mewa Singh, so that the matter may be disposed of at the present assize. It is stated that after the departure of the steamship Kamagata Maru a vendetta was declared against all those, white or Hindus, who were active in preventing the landing of the ship's passengers and in having them dispatched back to Hong Kong. Arvan Singh, who was shot in a rooming house some weeks ago, and Herman Singh, found with his throat cut, are supposed to have been two of the marked men. Inspector Hopkinson was a third.

Fell Out Again.
"I thought you said Jack fell in love with Alice at first sight," said a second look.

Cured Both Stomach Trouble and Headaches

Palmerston, Ont., June 20th, 1913.
"I really believe that I owe my life to 'Fruit-a-tives.' Ever since childhood, I have been under the care of physicians and have been paying doctor's bills. I was so sick and worn out that people on the street often asked me if I thought I could get along without help. The same old stomach trouble and distressing headaches nearly drove me wild. Some time ago, I got a box of 'Fruit-a-tives' and the first box did me good. My husband was delighted and advised a continuation of their use. Today, I am feeling fine, and a physician meeting me on the street noticed my improved appearance and asked the reason. I replied, 'I am taking Fruit-a-tives.' He said, 'Well, if Fruit-a-tives are making you look so well, go ahead and take them. They are doing more for you than I can.'"

MRS. H. C. WILLIAMS.
"Fruit-a-tives" are sold by all dealers at 50c. a box, 6 for $2.50, trial size 25c. or sent postpaid on receipt of price by Fruit-a-tives Limited, Ottawa.

PROCESSED MIDTLETON GUNS INTERESTING BUT UNCONFIRMED STORY RELATING TO ALLEGED OPERATIONS OF BRITISH WARSHIPS ON SUNDAY LAST.

London, Oct. 21, 4.45 p. m.—A newspaper correspondent at Dover has sent to London some details of the recent operations of British warships off the coast of Belgium. He says that last Saturday night the ships watched a force of Germans digging trenches along the coast under a flare of lights. This enabled the English boats to get the exact range, and at daylight they shelled the enemy's positions heavily. A Tulse aeroplane was brought down, and later a Zeppelin, and it is declared that the guns of the British vessels opened for 1,000 Germans in killed and wounded, in addition to putting six batteries of artillery out of action. In the meantime German submarines tried in vain to sink the British ships.

This despatch is not confirmed by the official press bureau.

Eleven prisoners appeared in the police court yesterday morning as a result of having too close an acquaintance with the god of pleasure.
