DISTRICT NEWS.

APPLETON.

Special to THE HERALD.

Lieutenant A. V. Brown and Mrs. Brown, of Ottawa, spent the week-end with Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Baird.
Misses McEwen and Parker spent the week-end at "Riverside Cottage."
Misses Isabell and Margaret Drynan, of Carleton Place, were the week-end guests of Miss Janet Wilson.

Mr. and Mrs. Jenkinson, Mr. and Mrs. Pettie, all of Ashton, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. McDougall.
Mr. and Mrs. James Caldwell, of Hall's Mills, spent the week-end with Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Paul.

Pte. Gordon Neilson, of Kingston, is visiting with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Neilson.

Mrs. Wm. Ainslie and little daughter, Theodora, of Smiths Falls, are visiting with friends at "Riverside Cottage."

Miss Christina Wilson, of Ottawa, spent the week-end at her home here.
Mr. Wm. Lorimer, Miss Annie Lorimer, of Ladore, and Mr. Carl Leishman, of Kingston, visited their cousins last week.

Quite a number from here attended the exhibition at Ottawa last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Hart and family, Mr. Gordon Paul and Miss Anna Paul spent the past week with friends at Poland.

Mr. John Stewart spent the past week in Ottawa.

Children's Day was observed in St. Andrews church last Sunday. The service in the morning was for the children and the evening one for the young people. Rev. A. D. Fraser preached two very fine sermons. The church was beautifully decorated with flowers and special music was given.

LANARK.

From the Era.

Mr. Allie Buffam, son of Mr. and Mrs. John H. Buffam, is another Lanark boy to join the colors in the west. Allie is now with the 113th Battalion of Calgary at Camp Hughes.

Lanark Fair records its perennial presentation as one more success added to the long list now standing to its credit.

"Jimmy" Legary left yesterday for Englehart, where he has secured a position in the T. & N.O. shops as "wiper," the initiatory step towards eventually becoming a locomotive engineer. He was accompanied north by his sister, Mrs. Harvey Thomas, who had been visiting here for several weeks.

Mr. James Yuill of Hopetown, met with a severe accident last Wednesday while on his way home from Middleville cheese factory with a load of whey. The rear of his wagon broke and the cans fell off, frightening the horses and in the resultant runaway Mr. Yuill had a couple of ribs broken besides being considerably bruised.

Mr. and Mrs. Arch Rankin of Middleville, on their way from home to Lanark Fair last Friday, met with a mishap which prevented them from reaching their destination and gave them a severe shaking up. The horse shied at some unfamiliar object on the roadside and caused the buggy to keel over, throwing the occupants on to the ground. Both were severely shaken up and bruised but were able to make their way into Mr. Robert Reid's house. They were forced to abandon their visit to the Fair.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Cooper returned home this morning from Cobalt where they had been spending a few days with their son, William D., mine captain at the Temiskaming, and incidentally celebrating their golden wedding. Monday was the fiftieth anniversary of their wedding day, their marriage having taken place in Galt on Sept. 11th, 1866.

ALMONTE.

From the Gazette.

Rev. Mr. Brown and Mrs. Brown returned home on Thursday evening last, after a visit to the old homestead near Oshawa.

Mr. Jas. Earnshaw has enlisted for overseas service and expects to eat his Christmas turkey in France.

Mr. W. Thoburn was at Quebec this week, and was on the boat with the Government officials when the bridge went down, and thus was an eye-witness of the terrible catastrophe.

Mr. W. H. Williams, who has been employed in Renfrew Woollen Mills for several years, has been engaged by the Kir-Ben as packer and shipper.

Miss Winnie Williams is here from Fort Frances, spending a holiday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Williams.

The many friends of Mrs. Coates will regret to hear of her serious illness. She is with her sister, Mrs. Raines, by whom she is being cared for.

Prof. W. B. Munro arrived in town on Saturday to close up his summer residence here, and left again Thursday of this week, accompanied by his sister, Miss Valdimir Munro, who are also returning to Boston, where Miss Munro will enter upon another year in Arts.

Mr. Wm. Young, of Carleton Place, is holidaying at the parental home in town.

Mr. McNaught, of Tweed, who succeeded Mr. Stevenson as accountant in the Bank of Montreal here, has returned to Tweed, and has been succeeded by Mr. R. G. Rigby from B. Wm. Anville.

Mrs. M. McGrath, sr., has been suffering for some time with gangrene in her foot, and lately conditions developed which rendered an operation necessary. This was performed at the R. M. Hospital on Saturday morning, when the limb was removed at the knee. To one of Mrs. McGrath's years the experience was a severe one, but it is hoped that she will now recover from her painful malady.

On Wednesday a couple of officials of the Merchants' Bank of Canada from Montreal were here arranging for the opening of a branch in Almonte. Temporary quarters have been obtained in Mr. West's store building, and will be occupied until more suitable premises can be secured. Mr. H. W. Britton of Montreal will be manager.

Miss Agnes Whitely had the misfortune to step on a needle on Sunday and ran it into her foot so deep that the doctor experienced some difficulty in removing it. She was taken to the hospital while this was being done.

F. Bissett, Merrickville, has been appointed by the government to the position of instrument man, on the Welland Canal, with headquarters at St. Catharines.

THE CARLETON PLACE HERALD.

FRANKTOWN.

The funeral of the late James Anderson last week was one of the largest ever seen in this community. Forty-five members of the Orange Order marched in the procession. The drum, which deceased had carried for fifty-four years, was heavily draped with crape, and was carried by Mr. R. Prescott, of Montague, who played the flute for him fifty-four years ago. Many floral tributes adorned the casket, including a wreath from the family; crescent, Mr. and Mrs. Ernie Anderson, Smiths Falls; wreath, Mrs. A. Houston; bouquet, Miss Elsie McLaren; anchor, Mrs. J. Houghton; bouquet, Miss S. Saunders; wreath, Mrs. D. Cameron; wreath, Mrs. W. J. Saunders. The pallbearers were three sons-in-law, Mr. W. J. Burchill and Mr. Wm. D. Cameron, and a brother-in-law, Mr. S. Morris. The service was held in St. James church, conducted by the rector, Rev. Mr. Osborne, and interment was made in the churchyard.

Hon. Robert Rogers, minister of public works, denies the story that will be suspended on the Welland Canal or any other public works to provide men for war work.

Three million dollars worth of cured meats, hams, and pork for the French army, is the nice order just won by the Canadian packers, Pat Burns & Company, Calgary, Alta., in competition with the largest Chicago firms. There is also a large chilled beef order for the same firm. It is estimated that it will take 250,000 hogs to fill the first contract. Mr. Burns is a former resident of Renfrew.

ROLL OF HONOR

Several thousand officers and employees of the Canadian Pacific Railway Company enlisted for active military duty with the Canadian Expeditionary Forces, and the majority of them are now in Europe. As particulars of Army Reservists are not available, these lists of those who have given up their lives for their country or been wounded in action are necessarily incomplete, and do not therefore indicate fully the extent to which the Company's officers and employees have participated in the great struggle.

The following casualty to a member of our European Staff on active service, has been reported:

Roberts, Preston T. Clerk London, Eng. Wounded

Montreal, September 6th, 1916. (List No. 9)

THE THREE MUSKETEERS

THESE three Pals of the C.P.R. staff in London, England (reading from left to right: R. J. Harden, Passenger Department; E. G. Moore, Advertising Department; and P. T. Roberts, Management Department), at the outbreak of War lost no time in offering their services for their King and Country, and within eight days of the Declaration of War they had all been posted to the 24th County of London Regiment (The Queen's).

They trained together, and early in 1915 they crossed together to France. They shared together the privations of trench warfare in the early months of that year, and in the great battles in which their Regiment took part; but in May all three were wounded. Harden and Roberts only slightly, but Moore, in the Giverny fight, was so seriously injured that he was invalided to England and since his recovery has, to his great regret, been fit for Home service only. Harden and Roberts had rejoined their Regiment by June and a month later Harden, who had been promoted to Lance-Corporal, was again hit, this time very seriously and since then remained in Wharfedale Hospital, Sheffield, where he has undergone so many operations that he is looked upon as a wonder by his doctors and a darling by his nurses and lady visitors. Though no longer able to take his part in the strenuous work at the front, he has yet had plenty of opportunity of showing his possession of one of the most soldierly virtues—patient endurance. It is hoped that after fifteen months in hospital he will soon be able to return to the service of the Company.

Roberts, the only remaining member of the trio, was promoted Corporal at the outbreak of the war and has now come to his promotion to the rank of Sergeant and the award to him of the Military Medal, "for bravery in the field," in an action on May 23rd last. In decorating him General Sir Henry Wilson—the Corps Commander—stated the award was given "For gallantly leading an attack on a flank under very heavy fire, and directing his men in operations for four hours after being wounded." During these operations he was wounded, but has again rejoined his Regiment, and seems to be under the impression that he has not yet done all his bit.

Elsie Pauline, formerly employed at the tannery of Pouliot and Brothers, Quebec, when he fell into a lime bath where leather was cured. His body was partly burned by the lime, though removed from the bath a few seconds after the fatality.

"Pro Belgica" "The relief work for the Belgian victims of the war," of whom the President is the most devoted General Consul for Belgium at Ottawa, is editing for some weeks past, the paper "pro Belgica", printed in two languages. This paper discloses the painful condition of the Belgian people so worthy of admiration, and shows what Canada is doing for its relief. It is very interesting to observe the manner in which the subscriptions received for the relief of Belgian and French populations of the invaded departments are employed. The subscribers of "pro Belgica" are not only acquainted with all what happens in Belgium, they also contribute to the revictualling of this unfortunate country, for all receipts to the paper are paid into the receiving office of the "relief work". The amount of the subscription is but one dollar, which can be sent to the management of the paper, 149 St. Luke, Montreal. Give your subscription for "pro Belgica". It is a mere trifle, but it is for the relief of the destitute Belgium.

The Awful Toll of Death.

During the last three months alone British casualties have totalled over a quarter of a million men.

German losses from the beginning of the war to the end of August are estimated at 3,375,000, of whom the killed alone total 822,000, more than double the entire population of Toronto.

Contemporary Opinion of Beethoven.

When the First Trios and the First Symphony appeared the conservative critics declared that they were "the confused explosions of a talented young man's overweening conceit."

The Second Symphony was called a monster, a dragon wounded to death and unable to die, thrashing around with its tail in impotent rage! Later Von Weber declared of the sublime Seventh Symphony that "the extravagances of this genius have reached their apex plus ultra, and Beethoven is quite ripe for the madhouse!"—Dole in "Famous Composers."

A Remarkable Shawl.

The empress of Russia was once presented with a shawl of a remarkable kind. It is contained in a box only a few inches square, in which it fits easily, yet when it is shaken out it is ten yards square. This notable gift was the work of some women weavers in Orenberg, southern Russia, by whom it was presented. The box containing it is of wood, with hinges, hoops and fastenings of beaten silver.
