Mr. F. T. Angel, formerly the Universalist minister at Clifton Springs, N.Y., was recently confirmed by the Bishop of Western New York, on the occasion of the celebration of the 100th anniversary of the parish of St. John's, Clifton Springs. The Bishop has admitted Mr. Angel as a postulant for Holy Orders.

On St. Andrew's Day the lately recovered fragments of the Worcester Gospels were deposited in a worthy case in the Lady Chapel in Worcester Cathedral, behind the high altar. They consist of two entire and consecutive leaves, containing the last sixteen verses of St. Matthew's Gospel and the entire capitula of St. Mark's Gospel. The third leaf has been mutilated, having been cut down to fit a ledger and contains part of St. Mark X. The M. S. is of the eighth century, in a noble script of English origin. Some other fragments of the 7th and 8th centuries have been recently extracted by the Librarian, Canon Wilson, from the bindings of books in the mediaeval library; some leaves of Jerome's Commentary on St. Matthew of the 7th century, probably of French origin; of Isidore's Libri Sententiarum; of Paterius; and of Gregory's Regula Pastoralis; sufficient to indicate the existence in the early Anglo-Saxon monastery of a patristic library. All of these fragments are of considerable paleographic as well as historical interest.
