

ist and legislator, was b. in Devonshire, Eng., Dec. 12, 1844. Coming to Can. with his parents, 1853, he was ed. at the local schs., St. Thomas, Ont., became a public sch. teacher, and later, founded, with Hon. G. W. Ross, the Strathroy Age newspaper. Subsequently, he purchased the Seaforth Expositor, and afterwards founded the Daily Home Guard (Goderich). He went to Man., 1871, where, in the following year, he established the Man. Free Press (Winnipeg), and remained in control of that journal for 21 yrs. In Feb., 1894, he established the Daily Nor'-Wester (Winnipeg), but retired from its management the same year. In the early days of Man. he was active in agricul. organizations. He was Presdt. of the Provl. Ag. Soc., 1878, and a dir. of the Soc. for 10 yrs. He has been also a mem. of the Provl. Bd. of Education, the Council of the Bd. of Trade, Chairman of the Winnipeg Sch. Bd., and is a life gov. of the Winnipeg Genl. Hospital, of which he was one of the founders. He sat as a Lib. for Rockwood, in the Man. Assembly, 1874-78, and for South Winnipeg, 1886-88. He contested Marquette for the Ho. of Commons, 1878, but retired, with the consent of his political friends, to allow Sir John Macdonald to be elected therefor, by acclamation. He ranks now as an Ind. in politics, with Reform proclivities. Is a Freemason. He m. Apl., 1866, Sarah Jane, dau. of Jeremiah Edwards, Lobo, Ont.—Winnipeg, Man.; Manitoba Club.

"A very able writer."—Witness.

LYLE, Rev. Samuel (Presb.), was b. at Knockanboy, Antrim, Irel., July 16, 1841. Ed. in the local schs., at Magee Coll., Londonderry, at Glasgow Univ., and at Glasgow Free Coll. (B.D.), he was licensed as a min., 1868. Accepting a call from Connor, the largest ch. in the Irish Assembly, he remained there until his appt. to his present charge over the Central Ch., Hamilton, Ont., 1878. While at Connor he was sent as a representative from the Irish to the Welsh Ch. He was elected Moderator of the Hamilton and London Presb. Synod, 1896. He received the degree of D.D., from the Presb. Coll., Montreal, 1895. Dr. L. has always taken great interest in literary and scientific investigations. He was V.-P. of the Hamilton Assn., 1885-86, and Presdt. of that body, 1887-88. He has been also a dir. of the Public Library, and is now Presdt. of the Hamilton Art Assn. In 1897 he took a 4 months' course of lectures at Berlin Univ. He is opposed to the Ch. having any control in public sch. matters. He m. 1870, Miss, Elizabeth Orr, Dublin, Irel. Mrs. L. has been elected Presdt. of the Local Council of Women in Hamilton.—Central Ch. Manse, Hamilton, Ont.

LYMAN, Henry Herbert, manufacturer, is the s. of the late Hy. Lyman, by his wife, Mary Corse. B. in Montreal, Dec. 21, 1854, he was ed. at West End Acad., at the High Sch. (Davidson med.), and at McGill Univ. (B.A. and Logan med., 1876; M.A., 1880), and obtained his business training in the office of Lymans, Clare & Co., wholesale chemists and druggists, Montreal. Admitted to a partnership, 1885, the firm name becoming Lyman Sons & Co., subsequently on the conversion of the firm into a joint stock co., he became V.-P. thereof. Mr. L. has been Treas. and V.-P. of the Univ. Lit. Soc., and Treas. and V.-P. of the Graduates' Soc. of McGill Univ. He has taken an active interest in the study of Nat. Hist., especially Entomol., and has been for yrs. a contributor to the Can. Entomologist and other scientific journals. Elected V.-P. of the Entomological Soc. of Ont., he has also been chosen Presdt. of the Montreal branch of that body. He was one of the organizers of the Imp. Fed. League in Can., and was a mem. of the deputation that waited upon Lord Salisbury and Mr. Stanhope, 1886, to ask that an Impl. Conf. be summoned, which Conf. took place in the following year.