NEWS

DEADLINE - Wednesdays, 12 pm

SRC Cuts Funds

By Allan Carter

no n,

Union.

According to Wayne grants. Carson, Student Union President, The by-law states that:"..the should depend on that." Student Union should recognize religious organization".

Fellowship (on of the oldest clubs want money to party with". on this campus), as well as the Campus Christian Community Campus Ministry feels the SRC's (Newman); and other religious way of defining religion is "too student groups will not be funded narrow". For one thing, "religious is at the chair of the UNB United helping people in the Fredericton attempts to fill in the gaps mined by the Student Union. In the past, groups are opened to everyone on Way appeal. He believes that the community. It supports 22 around $2000 was allocated to campus". In fact he thinks it attainment of the $46,000 goal agencies and over 70 programs. UNB campus and the these groups.

President of Finance says they community. will not fund these groups on "an ongoing nature". It is felt that fall of 1987, the Student Union and Economics in each of their are used effectively. From every government employees had 60%. many of the events held by the asked Campus Ministry to respective faculties". groups are not events that would distribute funds to various benefit the university as a whole. religious groups on campus. If an event "would appeal to all

Doyle states "in religion, SRC by-law which had been (sic) to further spread the word of activity and cultural activity". ignored over the past few years. God. We feel it (the groups)

With regard to why this but not fund any political or does not affect cultural groups, Doyle says, they share their This decision will mean culture (ie. holding a cultural that organizations like the Muslim event) and educate students at Student Association which has UNB. But for a number of things over a hundred active members; that the religious groups want The Inter-Varsity Christian money for, Doyle feels they "just Kim Doyle, Vice benefit the whole university 60% of our objective", he says, " other groups.

"look at these groups as (a) church 100% participation rate.

UNB students, then the Student on campus. These groups do not campus if their activity is cultural. be funded. The SRC has decided Union would take that into function here on campus as (a) But for many activities, he feels, eligible for funding through challenge the SCR's definition of believe in their religion".

The Gay and Lesbian that religious groups on campus consideration," says Doyle. In church functions in the rest of that the religious groups "should Alliance has been given funding will not be funded by the Student other words the groups will be society". Campus Ministry would depend on support for ones who from the Student Union only if they act as a "peer support

In addition Carson network", claims Carson. Around Carson says you must believes once you recognize one $200 to $300 dollars will be given the decision merely enforced an old everyone gives money to church "distinguish between religious religion group on campus, you to GALA. must recognize all of them. And at According to Carson the

He sees no problem in times it might be difficult to say council has yet to adopt a position funding a religious group on which religious groups ought to on other funding for GALA.

United Way on Campus

Dr. John Valk of By Pierre St. Amand

Professor Leroy Johnson people attend" events. In his he hopes that more UNB staff and Brothers/Sisters, The Fredericton opinion these religious groups faculty will respond. "We have Rape Crisis Center, and countless with the leading participation

The United way is about

United Way makes it a Valk states that since the groups being Civil Engineering point to see that all the pledges 81% participation rate and organization it sponsers, The

The United Way by governmental agencies on the would be "wonderful if more mark is a little slow. This year The Arthritis Foundation, Big community. Last year's goal was attained with 29% participation on campus, up 3% from the previous year. In comparison, city employees had a staggering

The question remaining The library staff is off United Way expects real feedback. is whether or not other faculties to a good start also and the It makes a commitment towards and staff groups will take up the Valk feels you cannot administration excels with a allocating people's contributions challenge to increase their participation.

El Salvador Broadcast Activists to Speak at UNB

Release From the Department of Public Relations and Information

at the University of New government of El Salvador. Brunswick in Fredericton.

Gutierrez, spokesman for Radio for Democracy in El Salvador. twinning with Canadian campus community radio station Farabundo Marti, will make two The 7:30 pm presentation is community radio stations. public presentations on Monday, Prospects for Peace in El Nov. 13, at 4 pm. and 7:30 pm Salvador: in the MacLaggan Hall Perspective. Both talks are free America studying the politics and CHSR, said the campus station Auditorium. Radio Farabundo of charge. Marti (RFM) is the official voice

Raul Gutierrez is a native of He is the national co-ordinator for reports from El Salvador for

1 to Toronto-based repre- of the Farabundo Marti National El Salvador who left his country the RFM International Network sentatives of a left-wing radio Liberation Front (FMLN), a in 1982 in fear of reprisals for his in Canada. station in El Salvador will speak group opposed to the right-wing student and labor activities. He is the chief representative of presentations at UNB are The 4 pm address is entitled RFM in Canada, responsible for sponsored by the UNB Student Brent Anderson and Raul Radio Farabundo Marti - Voice co-ordinating support groups and Union and CHSR-FM, the

The FMLN who has spent time in Central Jeff Whipple, station manager of

The RFM visit and operated on the Fredericton Brent Anderson is a Canadian campus by student volunteers. the radio operations of the region. has been carrying RFM taped about a year now. "The student membership of our radio station is very sympathetic with the stated goals of RFM and we think it's important to present information about events in El Salvador from a source not otherwise available to our listeners," he explained. RFM's broadcast facilities are moved around constantly, Mr. Whipple said, to avoid being captured and destroyed by government troops.

Can-Mate Meeting at UN

From the Department of Public Relations and Information

Press Release

dedicated to disseminating board came to see the techinformation on technology in nological needs and resources of Canada met for the first time people outside Toronto and outside Central Canada when it Montreal," said Dr. Bonham who held its quarterly board meeting at oversees the operation of the the University of New Brunswick Manufacturing Technology in Fredericton recently.

Can-Mate, a joint effort of the the Canadian Manufacturing Association, met at UNB at the invitation of one of its board A national organization members, Dave Bonham. "The Centre at UNB.

"Can-Mate's mandate is to link with technological needs," he said. Until the visit and tour of UNB facilities, the two-year-old board had held its quarterly meetings in Central Canada.

The Can-Mate board is chaired by Brian McGourity, president of Industrial Expansion.

During the visit, the board systems. members toured MTC to view facturing Association, the Science, and the Maritimes Canada.

National Research Council and together technological sources National Research Council and Forest Ranger School, where Department of Regional they examined sawyer and mill simulation projects and expert

MTC-UNB was one of the first research and development projects organizations to link with Cansuch as modelling of Cat Scan Mate and provide its services data and expert system develop- locally. Through a computer Honeywell, and includes pres- ment, and industry project link, people in New Brunswick idents and CEOs of several major examples such as robotic design. can access all abstracts and corporations, as well as repre- They also toured a lab in the important references to advances sentatives of the Canadian Manu- UNB School of Computer in manufacturing technology in