going. I feel that the legislature of the Province of Quebec would be acting wisely to follow in the main provincial Acts already passed. If the Quebec legislature should take any other course I fear the same might be considered in a light none of us would desire. Stop. You have your own local laws, but in the main I feel confident the Acts passed by the other Provinces will be helpful and I feel sure you will be able to guide your House to pass an Act that will meet the situation in Quebec, and also be acceptable elsewhere.
