

- (i) determining the class or classes of persons other than those mentioned in section four of this Act to whom payments may be paid;
- (j) determining the cases in which a dependent, other than the wife or child, of the insured may be named as a beneficiary under the contract;
- (k) determining in cases not otherwise provided for by the contract or by declaration or by this Act, the person or persons entitled to the share and the apportionment thereof in the death benefit of any beneficiary dying before the payment of instalments of the said benefit has been completed; and,
- (l) any other purpose for which it is deemed expedient to make regulations in order to carry this Act into effect.

18. The moneys received under the provisions of this Act shall form part of the Consolidated Revenue Fund, and the moneys payable under the said provisions shall be payable out of the said Consolidated Revenue Fund.

Moneys received to go to Consolidated Revenue Fund.

19. (1) The provisions of this Act may be administered in such department or departments of the Government as the Governor in Council may from time to time determine.

Administration.

(2) The Superintendent of Insurance or such other officer as may be appointed for that purpose by the Governor in Council shall, within three months after the close of each fiscal year, prepare for the Minister a statement showing the amount received for premiums during the last fiscal year for all insurance contracts entered into previous to the said date, the amount of all sums paid in connection therewith during the said period, also the number of new contracts entered into since the previous statement and the gross amount thereof, with such further details and particulars as the Minister deems advisable.

Statement to be made for Minister.

(3) The Minister shall lay the said statement before Parliament within fifteen days after the statement has been submitted to him if Parliament is then sitting, and, if not, then within fifteen days of the opening of the session of Parliament held next thereafter.

Statement to be laid before Parliament.

20. No application for insurance shall be received under this Act after the first day of September, nineteen hundred and twenty-two.

No insurance after 1st September, 1922.

21. This Act shall come into force on the first day of September, one thousand nine hundred and twenty.

Commencement of Act.