

PREFACE.

In presenting to our patrons and the public our first issue of the Oxford County Directory, we beg to state that we have spared neither pains nor expense in collecting and arranging the information for the work, and trust that it will prove to be what we intended, and believe what we have succeeded in making it, viz., the best work of the kind ever published in the Province. Several new features have been introduced hitherto not found in publications of this kind, which will be found an important and valuable addition to the work. Absolute freedom from errors has seldom or never been obtained in Directors or any other class of publications, and while we may not claim to be an exception to the general rule, yet we have no hesitation in saying that the errors and omissions, if any are found, will be few and unimportant.

Respectfully,

CROTTY & DART.
