Thursday, March 26th, 1908

THE CATHOLIC REGISTER

Design of Oak Pulpit installed by us in ST. FRANCIS CHURCH, Toronto. Prices upon application.

NOTES FROM OTTAWA

(From our own Correspondent.) Rev. Fathers Tamisier and Lalonde Mgr. Sharretti, Papal Delegate; His of the Jesuit Order, Montreal, have Grace Archbishop Duhamel, Rev. Dr. just concluded a most successful Mis- McNally, Chelsea; Rev. W. J. Mur-

sion in the Basilica. As the proceeds of a concert recent-ly held under the auspices of L'Insti-Gleeson, L. J. Kehoe, R. Devlin, Rev. tute Canadien, for the purpose of aug- Canon Poli, O.M.I., and Rev. Fathers menting the Plains of Abraham and G. Fitzgeraid, J. T. Fallon, D. Fin-St. Foye project, a cheque for $100 negan, W. J. Stanton, Wm. Kelly, has been forwarded to His Excellency, T. P. Murphy, G. O'Toole, M. Murthe Governor-General, from that so-ciety. Dry, P. J. Hammersley, O.M.I., and S. Murphy. Mr. J. F. McDonald ciety.

The Separate School Board recently many rousing choruses were rendered appointed a committee to inspect all by the students' glee club. will be acted upon at once.

We are making a distinct Lecture by Very Rev. J. R. Teefy specialty of the building of ALTARS ALTAR RAILS wants of this kind.

PULPITS HOLY WATER FONTS

In Brass, Wood and

Marble

W. E. BLAKE

123 Church St. Toronto

MANUFACTURER AND IMPORTER

ments, Altar Furnishings, etc.

Church of the Sacred Heart, Paris, Very Rev. Dr. Teefy of Toron-to, lectured before a large and inter-ested audience, including many of the priests of the surrounding district. The Very Rev. lecturer spoke as follows:

On St. Patrick's Day at the

I have chosen you that you should go forth and should bring forth fruit and that your fruit should remain.—

We believe the time has ar ived when work of this kind can be done success-tells in Counda We have already had a very large amount some past historical person or event, of success, and we respectfully solicit whose mystery, life or fact bears your correspondence when you have any deeply upon the present. What is true of the individual memories is true of We have our own artists, and will be the general feasts. A glance at the pleased to forward designs and prices Church's circling years will show the beauty of its varied calendar, the magnificence of God's redemption, and the labors and triumphs of His saints. So we may go through many a gold-en day of the Christian mysteries which spring from the depths of Him who is at once the source and origin MANUFACTURER AND IMPORTER Chalices, Ciboria, Ostensoria, Vest- advocate and mediator of our praise and prayer, to find in them the principle of our conduct and the type for our imitation. What is any saint's feast day but the memory of a life thy, '09; "United States," T. O'-Linke, '09; "Soggarth Aroon," Rev.

W. J. Stanton, O.M.I.; "Our Guests," and the Church's appeal to us to imi-Rev. J. P. Fallon, O.M.I. Among those present were His Excellency, not mere individuals of rengious faith ilies, but whole nations, peoples. Such is the feast of to-day, the glorious festival of St. Patrick; the memory of festival of St. Patrick; the memory of and devotion, which formed the glory and devotion, which formed the glory thing so important in life or produc-'08, presided as toast master and truth, high deal, stirring morality; all these and a thousand more are the be well arranged, and a few further recommendations of the committee was held on the preceding Sunday, from that Lord the power necessary was a success, there being over seven for the accomplishment of a plan and many of the local clergy, while the dered the Irish race in giving them an numbers were rendered in the usual everlasting faith. In conclusion he everlasting faith. In conclusion he urged that every Irishman aim to excapable manner of the pupils. Under the auspices of the County Board, Ancient Order of Hibernians, a most enjoyable children's concert bled in St. Patrick's Hall, where splendid speeches, dealing with affairs county your attention, but this at any the balance, and in the other scale, the balance scale, the balance scale, the balance scale, the scale scale, the balance scale, the scale scale

In all the Church of God no aposto-heroically spent in the service of God, faith which he planted remained; the tate those who have gone before us on the blessing of God continued to be seed which he sowed fructified, and by the royal highway of the cross. But there is a set of feasts which touch not mere individuals or religious fam-for three hundred years the church a man mighty in word and work, whose children, scattered over the But the time came when the Irish whole world, love, and should love to nation learned what it was to tread praise him for the life he led, the the wine press, to bear the crown of work he did, and the fruit he brought thorns, and suffer for the faith. First forth unto Christ. There can be no- came the Danes, and for hundreds of tive of fruit as the great virtue of these stern Norsemen strove to wrest years the awful fight went on. and religion. Praise of God, love of God, the heavenly gift from this noble people, but they could not. Then began result and fruit of some saint. It is meant ruin for Erin, abandonment of the local schools as to the conditions which would prevail in case of fire. The report showed the institutions to be well arranged, and a few further be well arranged, and a few further is no use opening up the wound of the past. Whatever trials the Irish have had-and God knows they have had will be acted upon at once. *** On St. Patrick's night the pupils of the Rideau street Convert held a most enjoyable Irish concert. The attendance was large and included the rideau street convert held a most enjoyable Irish concert. The attendance was large and included the rideau street convert held a most enjoyable Irish concert. The attendance was large and included the rideau street convert held a most enjoyable Irish concert. The attendance was large and included the rideau street convert held a most enjoyable Irish concert. The attendance was large and included the great service which he had ren-attendance was large and included the rideau street convert held a the great service which he had ren-out the local clarge while the the great service which he had ren-the great service which he had ren-the rideau street convert held a the great service which he had ren-the great service which he here rent the great service which here here rent h many of the local clergy, while the the great service which he had ren- St. Patrick's work, not only religion, years the Irish had no other arm, no a most enjoyable children's concert bled in St. Patrick's Hall on St. Patrick's Day. The orphans of St. Patrick's Asylum, under the direction of Ireland, her Nationalist party and the struggle for Home Rule, were de-livered by Mayor Scott, E. B. Devlin, M.P. Clevalier John Heney, W. E. of Mrs. A. McGarr, contributed a part of the programme. M.P., Clevalier John Heney, W. E. His Grace the Archbishop visited St. Patrick's Orphans' Asylum on St. Patrick's Day and was welcomed by the Sisters and the little ones, whose appearance and singing were favorably commented upon by His Grace. He afterwards visited each of the aged immates a service which they much God. It means a sincerity of pur-

Underwood There are 5062 typewriters used in Toronto. Of these 2544 are Underwoods; all others, 2518. The ratio is the same throughout Ontario. The Underwood is the best

UNITED TYPEWRITER CO. LIMITED

7 Adelaide St. East, TORONTO

the perseverance of the saints. Pro- of Hamilton, to his old narish of perty, social standing, temporal ad- Paris and the beautiful church of the Sacred Heart typewriter.

Cathelic Protest Against Pictures

inmates, a service which they much faction the introduction of elective saint for its particular nation. Alappreciated vince of Quebec has passed away in proven by her statesmen, the time has glory. the person of Magistrate J. T. St. come when the same form of govern-Julien of Aylmer. Born at L'Orignal, ment as that of Canada should be lic labors have been so indelibly burnt Ont., in 1838, he was educated at granted to Ireland. It also expressed into the life and history of the people Rigaud and in the University of Otta- confidence in John Redmond and his as St. Patrick's labors have been in wa finally graduating in law from La party and admiration for the Hon. the hearts and story of the Irish. val University. He is survived by Edward Blake. two derighters, Mrs. F. A. Labelle, Hull, and Miss Eva St. Julien, at St. home. The funeral was held to Paul's church, Aylmer, where Rev. Father Myrand officiated. The church was crowded to the doors and the Legal Bar of Ottawa District attended in a body.

tion "urging upon the Federal Govern- Keilty, of Douro, Ont., whose cousin people and their character; here at ment the necessity of adequate Irish she was: Catholic representation in the Cabinet" was adopted. It strongly impressed upon the Government that the portfolio recently made vacant by the elevation of Sir Charles Fitzpatrick to the position of Chief Justice of the Supreme Court be filled by an Irish Catholic. Mr. C. J. Foy, in moving the resolution, stated that while the and good representation, still they have not as much of it as they should.

Mr. Arthur Cummings of Boston, who is National President of the Ancient Order of Hibernians, stated in an address recently that an effort would be made to erect a Celtic Cross on Grosse Isle, neat Quebec city, over the graves of the some twelve thous-Irish immigrants who died of and ship fever and famine during 1848. The graves have been unmarked and uncared for until recent years. He also stated that the school system of Canada was superior to that of the guest of a banquet tendered him by the Ancient Order of Hibernians. The lecture was especially well attended, and on the platform were many of the most prominent local Irishmen as well as a large number of the clergy.

The twenty-fifth annual banquet of the Ottawa University Irish students, this year undoubtedly surpassed all former ones. The attendance was large; the concert programme interesting and much enthusiasm prevailed throughout. The toasts were appropriate and as follows: "The Da We Celebrate." J. R. Corkery, '09; "The Pope," M. D. Doyle, '08; "Canada," V. K. Gorman, '09; "The Irish Par-liamentary Party," J. C. Connaghan, '09; "Alma Mater," E. H. McCar-municipal bodies in Ireland and as the low me, therefore, to dwell upon the pose in the worshipping of God, and A well-known official of the Pro- of governing themselves has been dis- faith of the Irish people as their > Death of a Distinguished Ursuline an Irisinian, the greater part of the Nun.

From a Thurles (Ireland), paper we life he was taken prisoner in Ireland take the following account of the and employed as a slave to herd catdeath of a nun of the Ursuline Order, tle. Strange as this may be, it was At a recent meeting of local Irish-men in St. Patrick's Hall, a resolu-lished at the request of Rev. W. J. here he learned the language of th this time he had opportunity of thin Many sad deaths have been recorded ing more seriously upon Almigh in Thurles of late, but none could be God, and the wants of those go sadder or more regretted than hers souls who appealed to him with the whose loss we mourn this week-Mo- simplicity, their bravery and the ther Patrick Tracey of the Ursuline morality. On his return home Convent, Thurles. We regret Mother was haunted with the thought that I Patrick the religious, who was loved should devote his life to the conve by her community-the highly gifted sion of the race. He resolved to Irish Catholics have representation and accomplished teacher of arts and so. Having finished his studies ar sciences-but above and before all, we having received due authorization and mourn for Mother Patrick, the true, consecration as Bishop, he landed large hearted Irishwoman, whose gen- second time in Ireland.

erosity, broad-mindedness and kind- The story of St. Patrick's conver ness drew all to her whatever might sion of Ireland is an old one and fa miliar to you all. Sweet it is to go be their creed or station in life. For almost twenty years Mother back in history and took at a peop Patrick was head mistress of St. An- whose trials had not yet begun, but gela's Academy, and in this position the doors of whose heart seemed open became generally known to the people to Christ's great messenger. I need of Thurles and the surrounding dis- not tell you, my brethren, how the tricts. For the past eight years she great apostle came amongst our an has held the post of Mistress-General cestors and subdued them to the gen over the large boarding school of the tle rule of Christ's gospel. How t Ursuline Convent. Her remarkable grace of God fell upon them, and wit talent for organizing and discipline, out compulsion the multitude became her untiring watchfulness for those Christian. How St. Patrick journey a splendid open lecture, he was the entrusted to her care, her zealous ef- ed up and down the country consecration forts for anything which would furth- ing bishops, ordaining priests, erec er the cause of God and of Ireland, ing churches, and planting the faith made her pre-eminently fitted for such through the whole island. You re an arduous and responsible post. With member that day at Armagh, wh the learned she was learned, but with stooping to earth he picked up th children she was as a child, and the little shamrock to explain the great great secret of her success as a teach- mystery of the Trinity. For sixty er and organizer lay in her whole- years he labored with the zeal of hearted devotion to her pupils and her St. Paul, and he had the happine personal interest in each individual to hear the Latin hymn chanted, and child-an interest which remained to to see the holy sacrifice offered by five help and encourage when the child had hundred priests whom he himself exchanged her happy school days for dained. But we cannot part with our apostle without a woru concernthe cares and trials of the world. The number of children in the well- ing his own interior life and spirit, known boarding school of the Ursuline for a saint is a saint not by reason Celebrate," J. R. Corkery, '09; "The known boarding school of the Ursuine for his works as his piety, his morti-Pope," M. D. Doyle, '08; "Canada," Convent, Thurles, varies from eighty of his works as his piety, his morti-" M. D. Doyle, '08; "Canada," Convent, Thurles, varies from eighty of its work and his humility. St. Pat Gorman, '09; "The Irish Par- to ninety each year. This fact alone faction and his humility. St. Pat makes us realize how widespreading tick, notwithstanding the wonderful was the influence of Mother Patrick's labors which he undertook seemed to work and teaching. Therefore she will have time to devote himself to an exbe mourned for not only in Thurles, traordinary amount of prayer; he was where her great and genial personal- perfectly versed in the holy scriptures, ity was most directly felt, but in ev- and notwithstanding his great labors ery province of Ireland there are peo- he had strength enough to undertake ple who have experienced her kindness, great mortification. St. Patrick not parents who bless her for the help she only converted the whole country by has given their children, and children his preaching and wonderful miracle whose mothers have taught them to but also cultivated the vinyard with reverence Mother Patrick's name. so fruitful a benediction and increase from Heaven, as to render Ireland a a nun, so gifted a teacher, and such most flourishing garden in the Church It is sad that we have lost so good a true, unselfish woman, for Ireland Patrick passed to his reward, but the needs many such women at present.

But it is well that we have the example of her great self sacrificing life. W. D. McVey, the Photothat we can see the good results of her efforts and hear her praise from grapher, will make your young and old. In thinking of her we are consoled by recalling the words of photograph day or night. a great man, who, like her, devoted Studio 514 Queen St. W. his life to the education of youth -"Truly, a life lived in earnest cannot die. It goes on forever." Mention this paper.

That faith has been a consolation to Spanish Inquisition," and, in advance, the sorrows of Erin; it has been a warned persons of weak nerves that treasure when all else was poverty. they might be effected by the picture, It has been a light when all else was as women had been known to faint, darkness, and joy where all else was so herrowing were the scenes depict Sorrow.

Where St. Patrick was born is a mat-I have said that the feast reaches out from the past to the present, that saw the inquisition pictures. He proter of dispute. Certainly he was not we, my brethren, are links which bind tested to the management. The pican Irishman, the greater part of th it with imperishable bonds to the fu- tures went on. A Catholic clergyman ture as well. The religion and pa- saw them as a representative of the France, where his father as an officer in the Roman Army was stationed mournful fashion if they were to ter- Rochester. He, too, protested, In the sixteenth year of our Saint's minate with us. royal people. We are the heirs of the sent, couched in language which ages. worldly love or false liberalism. Our versity with a heroism of the mar- but still, they were taken off. It must be our duty to bear tyrs. with moderation the advantages of prosperity, and bring to God's altar the tribute of our religion, our worldly efforts, and our vitality in order to continue what St. Patrick so gloriously began, what our fathers so bravely preserved, and what is to us heaven's richest trust. by Mrs. W. W. Whitehead, Paris, and Mr. Malher, Brantford, rendered Moselections from the best composers. At the conclusion the pastor, Rev.

Father Crinion, thanked the Bishop, Dr. Teefy, the choir, and the excellent tallent which so ably assisted, Sir John and Lady Lister-Kaye (Natand Rev. Father Cummings, P.P., St. Mary's, Brantford; Rev. Father Gehl, , Preston; Rev. Father Ferguson, good and pleasant it is for brethren to siderable that his wife fears she may dwell together in unity."

The organ used for the first time ing, to join the Catholic Church.

One of the "moving picture" houses, statement that Irishmen are incapable life and labors of St. Patrick, and the Divine Master so strongly insists. reproduction of "the tortures of the triotism of Ireland would close in Catholic authorities of the Diocese of We are sons of the the pictures went on until word was ad-We stand in the foremost files mitted of no half-way measures, that of time. It has been our blessing to unless the pictures were withdrawn, receive the fruits of the great labors a mass meeting of Catholic citizens of St. Patrick. It must be our hap- would be held at which action would piness and our pride to hand down be taken that would materially diminthe same benediction unalloyed with ish the revenues of the playhouse. This had its effect and the pictures fathers stood the trials of stern ad were withdrawn, reluctantly possibly,

A prominent Catholie gentleman

Disowned His Daughter

has become a convert to the Catholic natures of tenderers.

faith in order to marry Captain An accepted cheque on a chartered Besides the lecture, which was an the famous Jesuit priest. Her con- Honorable the Minister of Public intellectual treat, the choir, assisted version has so angered her father, Bir Works, for four thousand five hunzart's Gloria, and other appropriate Newcastle's sister, that they have be forfeited if the person tendering disowned her. But her aunt, heraelf, decline the contract of fail to comty-third year. She is a niece, too, of ance of tender. ica Yznaga, sister of the Dowager Duchess of Manchester). Lady Lister-Kaye will return from St. Basil's, Brantford, and the large America to attend the wedding, for audience for their presence. He said she sympathizes with Miss Florence, the presence of so many distinguished it is said. The young woman thrice citizens to join with them in celebrat- accompanied her uncle, the Duke of Department of Public Works, ing St. Patrick's Day, reminded him Newcastle, to the United States. Her of the words of the Psalmist: "How religious influence over him is so con-

This is one of our many styles of ornamental fences suitable for lawns, parks and cemeteries.

The above style of fence is made from the best hard steel galvanized wire. The wire is then enameled by dipping the fabric in white or green enamel, as desired.

Get our 1908 prices and catalogues, or enquire at any Hardware tor our Ornamental Lawn Fence, Iron Fence or Lawn Border. If your hardware dealer cannot supply you write direct to

The Cyclone Woven Wire Fence Co. Limited Phone Park 2800 1170 DUNDAS STREET

HEAD OFFICE, TORONTO

SEALED TENDERS addressed to the undersigned, and endorsed "Tender for Toronto Island Breakwater Extension," will be received at this officeuntil Friday, April 24th, 1908, inclusively, for the construction of an Extension to the Breakwater on the South Shore of Toronto Island, in the County of York, Province of Ontario. according to plan and specification to be seen at the offices of J. G. Sing, Eaq., Resident Engineer, Confederation Life Building, Toronto; Charless Desjardins, Esq., Clerk of Works, Post-Office Building, Montreal, and at ther Department of Public Works, Ottawa ... Tenders will not be considered unless made on the printed form sup-Florence Lister-Kaye, of England, plied and signed with the actual sig-

Vaughan, nephew of Father Vaughan, bank, payable to the order of the Cecil Lister-Kaye, and her mother, dred dollars ($4,500.00), must accom-Lady Beatrice Adeline, the Duke of pany each tender. The cheque will a convert to the Church, has taken up plete the work contracted for, and the young woman, who is in her twen- will be returned in case of non-accept-

> The Department does not bind itself to accept the lowest or any tender.

By order, FRED. GELINAS.

Secretary,

Ottawa, March 11, 1908.

Newspapers will not be paid for this persuade him, after many years' waver- advertisement if they insert it withlout authority from the Department.

