

The Divine Raphael.*

(Continued.)

R. P. TESNIÈRE.

Translated by Miss E. LUMMIS.

SUMMARY OF CONTENTS.

VI. Preservation in danger : Domine, invadit me ! Jesus repels and overcomes the devil.

VII. Raphael reveals to Tobias the wife God has chosen for him and arranges the marriage. Importance of knowing one's vocation. Enlightened counsels of Raphael regarding marriage. Necessity of consulting Jesus in the matter of choosing the vocation and to obtain the grace to live in it holily. The Holy Eucharist and Christian marriage.

VIII. Conclusion. Return of Tobias. The end of the journey. Our return. The house of our Heavenly Father.

VI.

UT what is this I hear? A cry of fear !
 " Domine, invadit me !" " Raphael, my protector ! He seizeth me, come quickly !"
 A monstrous fish coming up out of the waters of the river, sought to devour the young Tobias, who was bathing his feet
 wearied by the journey. " He cometh upon me !" But Raphael is near, Ra-phael, the protector, the defender. " Fear nothing !" he cries to Tobias, " take him by the gills and cast him ashore." The youth obeyed and flung the fish panting on the strand. It is evident that Raphael, while * All rights reserved.