Synopsis of Canadian North-West
HOMESTEAD REGULATIONS.

ANY even numbered section of Dominion Lands in Manitoba, Saskatchewan and Alberta, excepting 8 and 26, not reserved, may be homesteaded by any person who is the sole head of a family, or any male over 18 years of age, to the extent of one-quarter section of 160 acres, more or less.

Application for entry must be made in person by the applicant at a Dominion Lands Agency or Sub-agency for the district in which the land is situated. Entry by proxy may however be made at any Agency on certain conditions by the father, mother, son, daughter, brother or sister of an intending homesteader.

DUTIES.—(1) At least six months' residence upon and cultivation of the land in each year for three years.

(2) A homesteader may, if he so desires, perform the required residence duties by living on farming land owned solely by him, not less than eighty (80) acres in extent, in the vicinity of his homestead. He may also do so by living with father or mother, on certain conditions. Joint ownership in land will not meet this requirement.

(3) A homesteader intending to perform his residence duties in accordance with the above while living with parents or on farming land owned by himself must notify the Agent for the district of such intention.

W. W. CORY,

Deputy of the Minister of the Interior.

Much interest has been aroused in antiquarian circles by the discovery of a Roman camp at Pamphill by Mr. H. Le Jeune, of Parkstone. In the centre of the camp is a mound, which Mr. Le Jeune thinks may be the base of a lookout tower. The chief interest of the discovery lies in the fact that it definitely settles the line of the Roman road north of the Stour. It is regarded as a true and reliable specimen of a Roman "station."

The Rev. Jenkin Jones and Mrs. Jones, of Senny Bridge, Breconshire, have been presented by the communicants and friends of St. Luke's Church, Cwmclare, with a silver pocket communion service and a silver teapot. For the last four years Mr. Jones has been a curate of St. Fagan's, Aberdare, and in charge of St. Luke's Church, and has recently accepted the vacant curacy of Llywel with Rhydybriw, near Brecon.

The apse in Boyle parish church, Diocese of Kilmore, Ireland, has recently been laid with ornamental glazed tiles by the Misses Clarke, of Rosenberg, Kingstown, and Mrs. Brady, of Carnew, in memory of their mother. They have also, in conjunction with the Archdeacon of Elphin, set in memory of their father a curb of Caen stone into which the standards of the brass rails have been fixed. These, along with the tiles already lain in the outer channel by the Archdeacon, complete the entire channel floor. Mrs. Murphy, of Abbeyview, Boyle, has also presented the church with three Hymn Notice Frames.

A very beautiful churchyard cross has just been erected at Etherley, Bishop Auckland, by the rector of the parish, the Rev. C. Atkinson. It takes the form of an old-style wheel cross, on die and plinths, twelve feet in height, executed in the beautiful silver-grey Cornish granite, left with a rough surface, which looks very effective. The following brief inscription is engraved in inlaid lead letters on the base:—"To the Glory of God, and in pious memory of the holy dead. Erected by Charles Atkinson, rector, 1908." "Them that sleep in Jesus will God bring with Him. Therefore comfort one another with these words."—1 Thess. 4:13-18.
