London, July 12.—British newspapers publish a statement by a Swede just returned from Moscow that Alexis Romanoff, son of Nicholas Romanoff, the former Russian emperor, has been killed by a Bolsheviki soldier by means of a bomb, says an Exchange Telegraph dispatch from Copenhagen.

There have been numerous rumors recently of the death of the young Alexis Romanoff, the former heir apparent, but none has been confirmed from any authoritative source. The most recent commercial account of his supposed whereabouts were printed in German newspapers late in June. Tiese declared that he was in Tabolsk, Siberia, having been left behind there because of illness when the other members of the fam-
