JUDGE PARKER AND DAVIS

Democratic Ticket Nominated at St. Louis on Saturday.

Parker's Dynamic Despatch—Hearst Sends Telegram of Congratulation.

St. Louis, Mo., July 9.—Chief Judge Alton B. Parker, of the New York state court of appeals, was nominated at about 15 minutes to 6 o'clock this morning for president of the United States by the democratic national convention. But one roll call ensued, and so decisive was the result of that one that contrary states began to call for recognition, and the ballot finally resulted in a unanimous vote for the New York state man. The scene was dramatic in the extreme. Darkness had witnessed the gathering of the democratic hosts, while broad daylight, the sun paling the electric light, witnessed the close. The convention was in session from 8 o'clock last night until nearly 6 o'clock this morning. In that time eight names were presented to the convention. Nominating and seconding speeches innumerable were made, and as dawn approached it became necessary to limit the seconding speeches to four minutes each. An exception was made in the case of William Jennings Bryan, who, in one of the most dramatic situations ever witnessed in a political gathering, addressed the convention and concluded by seconding the nomination of Senator Francis M. Cockrell, "the favorite son" candidate from Missouri. After the nomination of Parker, adjournment was taken until 2 p. m. St. Louis, Mo., July 9.—When the convention re-assembled this afternoon, the startling announcement was whispered around in different circles, that a sensation was to be sprung upon the convention at the eleventh hour. It developed that Judge Parker had telegraphed his views upon finance, in which he declared for the gold standard, and suggesting that the convention should know this fact that it might be given an opportunity to secure someone else for the party nominee, should his view not be in accordance with those of delegates. When this surprising information circulated around Convention Hall, Wm. J. Bryan was absent, being at his hotel sick.

JUDGE PARKER'S TELEGRAM.

The following is the text of the telegram from Judge Parker to Hon. W. F. Sheahan, Hotel Jefferson, St. Louis:—"I regard the gold standard as firmly and irrevocably established, and shall act accordingly. If the action of the convention to-day shall be ratified by the people. As the platform is silent on the subject, my views should be made known to the convention, and if it is proved to be unsatisfactory to the majority, I request you to decline the nomination for me at once, so that another may be nominated before adjournment."
"Signed"—A. B. PARKER.

DAVIS FOR VICE-PRESIDENT.

Henry G. Davis, of West Virginia, was nominated on the first ballot. He received 652 votes. The various states which supported other candidates changed their votes, and the nomination was made by acclamation. This convention then adjourned sine die.

WHAT HEARST SAYS.

St. Louis, Mo., July 9.—A. M. Lawrence, of Illinois, this afternoon read from the platform in the convention hall a telegram from Wm. R. Hearst, as follows:—

"I wish to thank my friends for their unflinching support. I think I can best express my appreciation of their loyalty by continued devotion to the principle of true Democracy, for which we have fought, and by loyal support of the man chosen by the convention to lead the Democratic party."
"Signed"—William Randolph Hearst.

It was warmly applauded.

OBSERVED THE ANNIVERSARY

Delightful Services by Canon Farthing at Christ Church Yesterday.

Special Music by the Choir was Much Enjoyed—Children's Flower Festival.

The anniversary services of Christ Church were held yesterday and were very successful and well attended. The church was very beautifully decorated with palms and flowers and both services were greatly enjoyed by the large congregations.

Rev. Canon Farthing, of the new St. Paul's church, Woodstock, preached both morning and evening and his sermons were forcibly and impressively given and well received.

Farthing is one of the ablest preachers in the English church, and he gave two of the most eloquent sermons heard in Chatham for some time.

The music rendered by the choir was of a special nature, fitting to the occasion. In the morning, besides the usual hymns and anthems, Mrs. Milton Bogart, one of Chatham's sweetest singers, sang a solo. Mrs. Bogart's magnificent voice is especially adapted to sacred song, and her solo yesterday was well rendered and greatly enjoyed. In the evening Chas. W. Rogers, basso, sang a solo and Miss Lucie McKellar and R. W. Angus sang a duet. Mr. Dolman, organist, gave excellent opening and closing voluntaries at each service.

In the afternoon the children of the Sunday school held a flower festival and an address on flowers. He chose as his subject the verse "I am come into my garden."

He illustrated that each of the children were gardeners in God's garden and He was watching them to see what kinds of flowers they would cultivate. He spoke against the weeds of impurity, disobedience, swearing, stealing, lying, etc. God wants flowers in his garden, and if we keep our thoughts, words and deeds pure we are cultivating flowers for God. He spoke of the lily of purity, the pansy of humbleness and thoughtfulness, the rose of love, and the violet of modesty.

All of the children brought flowers with them and these were collected and afterwards sent to the two hospitals.

The choir was also present at this service and led in the singing of the hymns.

HONOR HER

Tribute of Appreciation and Esteem to Accomplished Young Organist by Congregation of Holy Trinity Church.

On Saturday evening, after the choral rehearsal, the rector, Rev. T. Beverley Smith, on behalf of the congregation of Holy Trinity Church, quietly presented Miss Rose Morrison, the accomplished young lady organist of the church, with a purse of gold as a tribute of the affection and esteem in which she is universally held.

Accompanying the purse was the following brief greeting:—"In wishing Miss Rose Morrison a pleasant vacation her friends of Holy Trinity Congregation, of which church she is organist, take this opportunity of presenting her with a purse as a slight token of their appreciation."

Miss Morrison has presided at the Holy Trinity organ for over a year and is held in highest regard by the congregation, both for her exceptional musical talents and her generous and hearty co-operation in all the services of the church.

W. J. Ferguson, of Thamesville, spent Sunday in town.

JAP ATTACK ON RUSSIANS

Fierce Onslaught by Daring Troops—Russian Loss Over 300.

Port Arthur and Vladivostok Squadrons Sailed Again—The Eastern Situation.

Liao-Yang, July 9. — A column of Russians, after proceeding to a point about seven miles north-west of Fen-Chui Pass, on the Liao-Yang-Peng-Wang-Cheng high road, halted at night, worn out with heavy marching and fighting. The Japanese hurried up fresh troops and attacked them at dawn with a superior force. The Russians retired, fighting. Their losses numbered 300. The Japanese also suffered severely.

Another forward movement of the Russian rifle brigade began during the night of July 6. The Russians attacked the Japanese position in the darkness. No particulars of the engagement are yet obtainable, but it is believed that a severe fight occurred.

The Japanese force of 25,000 which was advancing toward Mukden, has now fallen back. Similar backward movements are reported from other points.

Chinese report that Gen. Kuroki's headquarters have been established at Fen-Chui Pass.

RUSSIANS AND KAI-CHAU.

St. Petersburg, July 10, 2.12 a. m.—The War Office is still without information regarding the report of the capture of Kai-Chau, but the general inclination is to believe that most severe fighting took place there, and that it reflected great credit upon Gen. Samsonoff's few hundred Cossacks, who constituted the garrison.

SAKHAROFF'S STORY.

Gen. Sakharoff, in a report received from the general staff, gives further details of the advance of the Japanese forces, and says that on July 7 several minor engagements occurred, but that the casualties were not of any consequence. It is evident, the reports say, that the Japanese are advancing along a wide front, though as yet there has been no serious engagement.

SQUADRONS SAIL AGAIN.

The Associated Press is informed that there is reason to believe that the Vladivostok and Port Arthur squadrons have sailed again, as there has been ample time for the former to re-coal and prepare for another cruise since its return to Vladivostok on July 5, and as it is considered unlikely that the Port Arthur squadron would remain at that port more than a fortnight for the slight repairs necessary to be made to the battleship Sevastopol. It is regarded as significant that the Admiralty has not received a report from Rear Admiral Witholt, although the War Office has a despatch from Port Arthur, partly dealing with naval matters. The Admiralty does not deny that both squadrons have gone out.

RUSSIANS CAPTURE FIFTY SCOUTS.

The war minister to-day received a despatch from Gen. Seilinsky, General Kuropatkin's chief of staff, reporting a couple of unimportant affairs between frontier guards and small parties of Chinese bandits near Port Arthur, and adding that the troops forming the garrison are in excellent spirits. Skirmishes occurred daily. The Russians captured fifty Japanese scouts on July 1, and the chief of police recently captured 240 head of cattle. There is an abundance of ammunition at Port Arthur, the despatch adds.

WHAT RUSSIA FIGHTS FOR.

M. Souherin, manager of the Novoe Vremya, in a leading article in that paper, which is attracting much attention, declares that it is not Manchuria nor Korea for which Russia is fighting, but it is for her future position in the far East, where covetous hands are stretched out not only by Japanese, but by the United States and Great Britain, which is the cause of American and English sympathy for Japan.

NO COMPLAINT FROM JAPAN.

Paris, July 9.—The Foreign Office discredits the reports that Japan has complained of the attitude of Germany and France. No such complaint or protest has been received. The only possible ground for a protest is the prospective coaling of the Russian Baltic fleet at French ports going on the way to the far East, but no protest would be warranted before the action occurs. Moreover France's course will be carefully kept within international rights.

BOARD OF EDUCATION

"I saw in The Planet," said a member of the High School Board this morning, "an article advocating the formation of a Board of Education elected by the citizens and a single Board to govern the Public and High schools. I think this is a very desirable thing to have all of the school trustees elected by the people and responsible to the people for their actions, and a single Board would prevent confusion and over-stepping and would forward continuity and uniformity of work."
