Earrings have always been among the most favorite ornaments of nearly all the nations of the world, certainly with those which are called civilized. Indeed among the Persians, Babylonians and Carthaginians they were worn by men as well as women. They were always worn by Greek women from Hera in the "Iliad" down to the Venus de Medici, whose ears were pierced for the reception of earrings. Pliny tells us that there was no part of dress upon which greater expense was lavished among the Romans. Many Egyptian earrings of very beautiful design have been preserved, and these antique de-signs have been imitated in modern times.

BOILS ALL OVER HIS FACE AND NECK

BURDOCK BLOOD BITTERS DID FOR HIM WHAT FOUR DOCTORS) FAILED TO DO

KEEWATIN, ONT., July 28th, 1906.

Duan Stree.—I am writing to let you know what Burdock Blood Bitters has done for me. I am a young man, twenty years old, and a year ago last March I began to feel dull and eick, and was greatly troubled with boils coming out en my face and neck, mostly on the latter. I would no sooner get rid of one than I would have, perhaps, two or three more appear.

I had four doctors trying to cure me but hey had very little success. They would stop them for a month or six weeks and then they would be as bad as ever again.

would be as bad as ever again.

Almost every patent medicine, advertised to cure boils, I could get hold of, I tried, nessell without success. At last one day, last spring, someone medicine, advertised spring, someone medicine before the blood of the best spring, someone medicine blood setters for the blood of? I was willing to try anything and immediately send for a bottle, but at the time was doubtful fit would be of any use. However, I used that bottle and while I was taking it I began to feel better, although it still kept having a few boils but not nearly such bad ones. I did not missany work, while otherwise, I used to miss, sometimes, a week out of every month. I kept on taking the medicine until I had taken six bottles, and needless as any, I was not sorry I did so when I tell you I have not had a boil appear for the past three months. Every body was surprised when they heard that Burdock Blood Bitters had done for me what four dectors failed to do. If any sufferers are afflicted with boils, I would strongly advise them to use B.B.B. It makes you feel like a new man. I always keep a bottle in the shouse, now, as I think it is a medicine thad should be in every household.

"Jesus, the Sinner's Friend." -Luke 7, 36-50.

Golden Text-"Thy faith hath saved thee, go in peace.'

We thank God for giving us this most touching scene and the table talk between our Lord and Simon, the Pharisee, who evidently invited this wonderful guest to dine, in a spirit of condescension, and never of-fered Him the usual attentions furnrered Him the usual attentions furnished his friends. We can only understand this incident when we know that their meals were eaten from a low table, the guests reclining on their left elbow, with their feet turned outwards towards any standing around the circle of those invited. A stained, fallen woman, notorious for her sin, pushed through the through with her box of spikenard.

Verse 38—Standing or stooping behind, at His feet, she wept, wetting His unsandled feet with her tears.

hind, at His feet, she wept, wetting His unsandled feet with her tears, wiping them with her flowing tresses, and kissed His feet, anointing Him with her fragrant ointment. Simon evidently thought Jesus no prophet, or He 'would dissern the character 'of this woman, whose touch was defilement; yet Jesus was reading both Simon and the woman through and through through and through.

Verses 40-47—Our Lord gives Simon an exercise in mental arithmetic in sinful proportions. As 500 is to 50, so this great Saviour gives an abundant pardom while her heart overflows with love to Him, and Si-mon's miserable, icy hospitality is shamed by the contrast.

Love to Jesus Christ is the root of all true Christianity. It is the per-fection of faith and is the fulfilling of the law. The heart that takes fire at the mention of the Saviour's fire at the mention of the Saviour's name, that swells with sympathy and ardor at the story of His life, and deeds, and death, and triumph; that looks to Him in His hidden home as the Lord of its affections and the chief joy of its life; that is bound and drawn by sweet constraints of living gratitude, to untring devotion and obedience; that thrills with the contemplation of seeing Him as He is, and being with Him forever; that longs and prays in His absence, "Come, Lord Jesus, come quickly"—is the heart most surely in harmony is the heart most surely in harmony with heaven, and on which the favor of the Heavenly Bridegroom is most unmistakably set. Let a soul be alive in love to God and make it his joy to give his whole heart to Jesus, his title is clear, and his acceptance

It seems presumption to comment on this lesson; it is such a perfect gem, set by the Holy Spirit, that nothing said or written by man can improve it, and may only spoil it. Oh, that our hearts were thus fill-

Napoleon was a hero to his valet, Constant, though he sadly marred the servant's effort to dress him neatly. Said the valet:

His breeches were always of white cashmere. But two hours after leaving his chamber it often happened that they were all spotted with ink, thanks to his habit of wiping his pen on them and shaking ink all around him by striking his pen against the table. However, as he dressed in the morning for the whole day, he did not change his toilet on that account, but remained in this state until night. The whole inside of his boots was lined with white fustian. Whenever one of his legs itched he rubbed it with the heel of the boot or shoe with which the other leg was
