

Extract from the Writings of the Late Speaker.

The late Sir James Edgar was favourably known as a poet, some of his writings being particularly pleasing.

Canadian Camp Song.

A white tent pitched by a glassy lake, Well under a shady tree. Or by rippling rills from the grand old hills.

Weak and Nervous.

THE CONDITION OF A YOUNG LADY OF WELLAND.

Subject to Frequent Headaches, was Pale and Emaciated and Grew so Ill She Could Barely Walk.

From the Tribune, Welland, Ont. Miss Hattie Archer, of Welland, an estimable young lady, whose acquaintance extends among a large number of citizens of the town, has the following to say regarding the virtues of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People.

Savory Sandwiches.

In preparing sandwiches care should be taken to make them look as attractive as possible. Two thick slices of bread with a large slice of ham between do not make an inviting sandwich.

Revenue From Appetite.

In connection with a long article on the consumption of alcohol, the editor of the Chicago Tribune recently made the following statement:

But people who make such statements and such calculations seem ever to forget that "voluntary consumption" of health and character-destroying substances, must always cost the country more than it can give in taxes.

As some are To-day. Pinch your feet in wrong shaped shoes; make you nervous, irritable; spoil your temper; lose your concentration.

"Slater Shoes" are made to fit feet—to cover every tender joint comfortably—make you forget you have a painful foot.

They fit the first time they're worn, and ever after, because the stretch and shrink has been for ever taken out of them while six days on the lasts.

Twelve shapes, all sizes, six widths, all colors, styles and leathers. Good-year welted, stamped on the soles with name and price, $5.50 and $5.00.
