Lieut.-Col. Bernard C. Rreyburg recently made an attempt to swim the English channel. After being seventeen hours in the water he was forced to give up his hopes when only 600 yards off the English coast near Dover. He was handicapped by wounds received in the great war, in which he served through out. He rose to the rank of Brigadier-General, was nine times wounded, six times-mentioned in dispatches, won the V.C. and the D.S.O. with two bars. He commands the Grenadier Guards. The picture shows him being taken from the water.

ESSAYS BY TWO HANTSPORT YOUNG LADIES

Mr. Fitch, so prompt and keen, With suggestions is not a bit me Miss Hirtle, with smile so bright, Teaches her pupils how to write.

Mr. Wiles, good-natured and nice, Makes one understand in a trice. Miss MacLean is in her glory,
When she is telling a children's story.

Professor Wellard with touch sublime,
Makes the piano fairly chime.

Sergeant Jackson, stern and witty.
Fills our hearts just full of pity.
Sgt.-Major Leon, with command so stern,
For our drill hour makes us yearn.
Miss Baker, who has so much to do,
With a smile always accepts something new.

At Last He Advertised

Don't wait until you have to advertise your business for sale, to learn the benefits to be derived from advertising.

Advertising is the Luther Burbank of modern business. It makes money grow where only moss grew before. It plants the seed of prosperity in the untilled land of opportunity, and it garners a harvest of wealth for the farsighted and enterprising.

We can supply you with ads written by experts—men who make advertising their life's business, and know how to sell goods, through the printed word. We can supply you with illustrations—the best that can be purchased anywhere—the product of the highest paid commercial artists in the world today.
