REVOLTING CRIMES OF MADMAN IN BERLIN

Three Baby Girls Stabbed in the Abdomen. One of them Dead. Other Two Will Die. Man Accused of Crime Arrested. Crowd Wanted to Lynch Him.

Berlin, July 28.—A series of cold-blooded crimes singularly resembling the "back the Ripper" murders, but for the fact that instead of women the victims were little girls, occurred with remarkable clarity this afternoon, almost in the centre of the city and aroused the most intense excitement and indignation.

Within a short space of time the assailant successively enticed three little baby girls the oldest only five years old, into doorways of houses and stabbed them several times in the abdomen with a sharp instrument. As a result one of the children is dead, and another is dying and the third is dangerously wounded.

Dead Child Found.
The first knowledge that the crime had been committed came when an occupant of the house at the corner of Ryke and Belforter streets found the body of Margaritha Pravit, aged four, lying in the doorway bathed in blood, her bowels protruding and the lower part of her body horribly gashed. This was immediately reported to the police who were about to investigate the case when reports came that Hertha Leest, aged three and Ella Kniesel, aged five, had still been faintly outraged, but still alive in Frenz Lauer ally and Hanserdorfer street, respectively.

Excitement intense.
Rumors soon spread throughout the vicinity which magnified the number of victims and the inhabitants of the neighborhood became intensely excited. Mothers sought their children in the street and made them return indoors for fear that they might meet a similar fate.

Crowds gathered about the police station shouting vengeance against the murderer. In the meantime the two victims who still lived were taken to a hospital. Their condition is extremely precarious and they are not expected to survive the night.

The officials acted quickly in an endeavor to find the murderer and published an offer of a reward of $1,000 for his capture. Shortly after the crimes were committed a slip of paper with a death's head attached which had been pinned to a public seat near the scene. On it was scribbled in a rambling hand: "Away, away, in five minutes there will be a corpse. There is wild murder in the neighborhood. Deliver this note to the police. I have killed children in Belforter, Frenzauer and Hanserdorfer streets."

Murders Committed With Scissors.
The note was attached to the seat by means of a sharp single-edged razor blade and it is assumed that the crimes were committed with the other half of the instrument. All the available police and detectives were ordered to scour the neighborhood. Some parents reported that their children had seen a haggard man about 27 years of age, wearing a cap, offering fruit to little girls whom he asked to accompany him. A man was arrested shortly afterwards who makes some sense out of the incident's description. Later he was confronted by the two wounded children but they were too weak to respond to questions put to them. The man was then taken in a cab guarded by police to the police station. The crowd outside the station, believing that the murderer was near, attempted to drag him from the police and lynch him and he was saved

THE MACAULAY INVESTIGATION

Justice Scott Hears Evidence in Charge Against Alderman Physician.

(From Saturday's Daily.)

The investigation into the charges preferred by City Medical Health Officer Dr. Ternan against Ald. Dr. Macaulay was begun yesterday afternoon in the Supreme Court before Mr. Justice Scott.

The case for the city was conducted by City Solicitor Mr. D. Becke-Welch and the interest of the accused alderman were looked after by O. M. Biggar and D. H. McKinnon. The proceedings were conducted with closed doors.

The details of the evidence which dealt principally with the medical visits of Dr. Macaulay to a number of houses of ill-fame on the outskirts of the city were substantially the same as made in the formal charges. The charge of drunkenness while on this mission was however eliminated.

The witnesses examined yesterday afternoon were Dr. Ternan, Dr. Farquharson, Dr. Irving, recent city medical health officer, and Dr. Macaulay. The whole case of the defence is the contention of Dr. Macaulay that he was empowered to make a general examination for infectious as well as contagious diseases. He avers that he had discussed the subject of another disease, measles, with the medical health officer when getting the warrant. This, Dr. Ternan absolutely denied in his evidence, which was similar to his previous formal charge.

Dr. Macaulay also admitted changing the warrant given him, but said he thought he was empowered to do so when he ascertained more definitely the disease existing in the city. He also admitted responsibility for subsequent assurances given to the returned warrant by Dr. Ternan.

The evidence of Drs. Farquharson and Irving was unimportant. The former reported a conversation between Drs. Macaulay and Ternan with reference to the return of the warrant, and the latter told of a conversation he had early in February with Dr. Macaulay as to the amount of the disease existing in the city.

At the hearing this morning the evidence of Drs. H. B. Smith, Duhan, and Whitaker, Mayor Griese, and two women from the disorderly houses in the north end was heard. The physicians gave evidence on the alleged unprofessional conduct of the defendant, Mayor Grieseback on the action that the city commissioners had taken and the women on the statements that Dr. Macaulay had made when insisting on the alleged examination.

Counsel followed in arguments after which Judge Scott reserved judgment until the afternoon when the evidence taken in shorthand had been prepared. It was evident, however, that he was decidedly favorable to the prosecution.

ATTEMPTED LIFE OF HIS FRIEND

Dr. Clyn Smith Escaped Being Murdered by Slipped Deflection of Bullet.

Winnipeg, Man., July 28.—Charged with a foul and cowardly attempt to murder Dr. Clyn Smith, a man whom he had called friend, Robert Quigley, alias Sample, is now under arrest at Hartney, Man. When he is brought before the bar there will be offered evidence of a crime that has disgraced the city's record, and if that evidence is not overcome Robert Quigley, alias Sample, will have to thank mercy of the law for his life.

Quigley's career in a penitentiary ended upon the gallows. He attempted to rob and murder Dr. Smith, of St. Louis, here, while they were driving. The fugitive was arrested last midnight on the farm of a man named Morton, who is alleged to be a relation of Quigley. The arrest was made by Constable Bradbury of Hartney, acting under instructions from Chief McEneaney of Winnipeg. The prisoner was lodged in jail and will be brought to Winnipeg this morning. When arrested he refused to give a name, the arrest having been made on the description sent out. He had gone directly from the city to Hartney.

BORAH'S FINAL WORD WITH HAYWOOD JURY

Leading Counsel for State Reviews Evidence in Famous Case, and Points an Accusing Finger at Haywood. He Appeals to the Jury to do its Duty.

Boise, Idaho, July 28.—Evidence and argument are at an end, and tomorrow the jury will be left to decide whether Wm. D. Haywood, secretary of the Western Federation of Miners, is guilty of participation in a criminal conspiracy to assassinate ex-Governor Steunenberg, who was murdered with a bomb at his home in Caldwell on December 30, 1905.

United States Senator Wm. E. Borah, engaged by the State of Idaho as special counsel for the prosecution, spoke the last word tonight. Tomorrow William Fremont Wood will charge and instruct the jury, and it is then to retire to consider the verdict about eleven. The crowd's seeking admission to the court room tonight broke all record in a murder trial in Idaho. Two hundred persons remained in the grounds when the doors were closed after the morning session, and hours before they opened again all approaches were blocked.

Stood Under Windows.
When every inch of space within the courtroom was filled, several hundred stood on the lawn under the open windows, that they might catch sentences from the impassioned plea of the lawyer for the defence.

Senator Borah laid the foundation for his argument last night. This morning he began an analysis of the evidence, but he confined himself to the murder of Steunenberg and the conspiracy. He linked Orchard to Simpson, Simpson to Moyer, and Moyer to Pettibone. Then, only selecting the evidence of witnesses for the defence and leaving Orchard's confession out, he wove the lives and movements of the five men together. Without departing from the records and incidentally clearing up situations "left somewhat clouded," he brought these men and members of the Western Federation of Miners together. Then he took Orchard from Denver and back again to Boise, to the headquarters of the Western Federation of Miners. This was done carefully and almost in a motuown tone.

Then his voice and manner changed. He sprang forward, and with his voice quivering and hand upraised he said: "Watch them now. Watch the five conspirators. Steunenberg is to die in thirty days, and they are making an execution. Some of you men have stood the test in the past in your homes and your flag. You have never faced a duty that required a higher courage than now. In every home in Idaho the thoughts of our people are with you, mingling with thoughts of things that must be done. Some of you men stand for right and use force."

At the close of Senator Borah's address and the adjournment of court the Senator was surrounded and courtestrained by nearly every one in the court room, including counsel for the defence.

MAN PROMENADES IN A BARREL.
Trousers Taken While in Water, he Denies Alternative.
St. Louis, July 28.—Walking half a mile across the Chautauque grounds in a barrel was the experience today of Charles L. Newcomb, president of a wall paper firm. Although Newcomb had on a bathing suit, his trousers had been stolen while he was washing in a pool with several young women. The rules of the grounds prohibit anyone walking across them in bathing costume, so Mr. Newcomb knocked in the door of a barrel and escorted the women to their cottage. Later he found his trousers fastened to a tree with a "for sale" sign attached thereto.

Championed What Darrow Cursed.
All things denounced or sneered at by counsel for the defence found a bold and brilliant paragraph of defence in Senator Borah's interludes. Christianity, future law and order, home and country found in him a ready champion. The State of Idaho, his people and the chief executive chief in turn were lauded. Under it all Haywood was practicing.
