Damaged by Storm.

The wind blew with hurricane force last night and this morning from the N.W. at Torbay, Flatrock, Outer Cove and Pouch Cove and other places north of St. John's. It was accompanied by heavy snow and sleet and the highest sea ran on the shore for many days. At Torbay, stages owned by Messrs. John and L. Thorn, the Messrs. Martin and other people on the north side were completely swept away and much other damage brought and the same applies to the other places mentioned. Fences were blown down, chimneys and roofs damaged and general havoc wrought.

Causes Damage.

At nearly all the city wharves this morning and last night a big under-wood ran, and to save vessels from being damaged they had to be given extra moorings. The s.s. Spica at Bowings burst her after spring and others had to be bent to prevent her leaving the premises. The same applied to the Hawk and Lady Napier moored there. The Adventure burst some of her lines and had to be hauled out into the stream from A. J. Harvey & Co's. pier, and the schr. X 10 U S at Job's smashed her rails, bulwarks, etc., and was only secured after much difficulty. A big sea is running outside the port and is breaking across the Narrows.

The storm of N. N. E. wind kicked up a wild sea at Petty Harbor last night, and when the tide was at its height the sea swept away half the stages and damaged the rest very badly. Hundreds of dollars will be required to repair the damage to the stages and flukes. The only property left intact is Monroe & Co's.

Painful Accident.

While Capt. Marshall of the Lady Napier was this forenoon putting a "service" on the lines which moored the Lady Napier at Bowings wharf, the ship made a sudden lurch in the undertow, the line he was working at became suddenly taut, and his fingers were caught between it and the hawse blocks. He narrowly escaped losing his hand, and as a matter of fact one of the fingers was almost completely severed, the upper joint being left in his glove. The captain had to go to Dr. Rendell for treatment.

The big new ore boat Tellus, built for the N. S. S. Co. to run in the ore trade, arrived at Bell Island yesterday morning from Philadelphia and sailed last evening for the same port with 12,430 tons iron ore, which is about double the cargo that the largest of the boats running last year could carry.

TRIDUUM.—The annual Triduum previous to the Feast of Our Lady of Good Counsel, will commence with the exposition of the Blessed Sacrament on Sunday morning (April 23), 9.30 on Sunday morning (April 23), at the Chapel of Our Lady of Good Counsel, Presentation Convent, Cathedral Square. Benediction will be at 1 o'clock on each evening of the triduum.

Harbor Grace Notes.

The girls of St. Andrew's Sunday School are holding their sale and so-called this afternoon and are anticipating a pleasant time.

The marriage of Miss Annie Casey and Mr. R. K. Kennedy took place at 7 o'clock last evening. The best wishes of the whole community go to Mr. and Mrs. Kennedy, who are both very popular, for a long and happy married life.

We regret to record the serious illness of Mrs. Williams, wife of the much respected ex-Head Constable Williams. Although over 80 years of age, it is hoped through the loving care of husband and sons, and the skillful treatment of her physician, that she may recover and be spared to her family for many years yet.

The large number of friends of Miss Lillian Spracklin, daughter of her new home, for shortly after her marriage the pair will return to their very comfortable home at Halifax. We congratulate Mr. Emmitt on winning the hand of one of Newfoundland's fair daughters.

Already planters are about looking for boys and men for the coming fishery. Men are holding back, as two bad fisheries, and the danger of a third on the one hand, with plenty of work at Bell Island, Sydney and other places on the other, is hard to choose between.

OBITUARY.

Uncle Walt
THE POET PHILOSOPHER.

A dollar will do more good to a man who is down and out than the gaudiest platitude that a generous man can spout. The world beaten sport comes by, and says he out of luck, and hands me a DOLLARS AND a soulful sigh, and asks for a silver buck. And O, how I DISCOURSE like to preach, before I hand out the cash, to show that I am a peach at making a moral hash! Of precepts I have a store, of maxims and helpful saws; I pass them along till sore and sprained are my joyous jaws. I'd rather give good advice than go to a game of ball, or swallow a lemon ice, or play with a rubber doll. I'd rather wind up my tongue, and then let the same run down, than dance with the daintiest young girl graduate in the town. And so when I meet a gent who's needing a shirt and tile, I hand him a Lincoln cent, and preach for quite a while. I've platitudes by the peck, and oiks that will quiet strife; I'm loaded clear to the neck with lessons and rules of life. I've bandages, salves and splints for morals that lamely go; I'd rather give helpful hints than go to a minister show.
