THE GREEK PREMIER. ATHENS, To-day a correspondent of the Press with reference to a statement made by King Constantine in the Associated Press, in which the King outlined the reasons for his attitude in the war, said that he could be more unjust to King Constantine than the persistent assertion that he is pro-German. He is pro-Greek only pro-Greek. He is the last man in Greece to be influenced by a motive by any prejudice or prejudice of opinion whatever of the day. The nation created by the Emperor's failure to recognize the Cabinet. The Premier said the Cabinet is political only in the sense that we do not seek to escape responsibility for our acts; in every other sense we take office under the constitution under which the previous ministry operated, that of the most responsible

The Logical Mind.

By RUTH CAMERON.

RUTH CAMERON

The mother had been laboriously explaining something to her little boy instead of putting off his "why" with a "because" as busy mothers are so apt to do.

"You certainly have more patience than I would," said the neighbor.

"No, I am not patient," said the mother, but I do want to train my boy to have a logical mind. I want him to ask why, and I always try to answer him carefully, though I admit I get terribly tired sometimes."

What do you think about it, reader friends? Is hers a worth-while ambition?

Personally, I can scarcely imagine a more worthy one.

A logical mind is one of the most precious possessions one can have.

A Logical Mind Better Than A Good Memory.

A good memory is a blessing but a logical mind is ten times more valuable.

Memory deals only with the past, a logical mind deals with the present and the future in their relations to the past.

A memory deals with fact, but a logical mind deals with big truths behind these facts.

The logical mind is never the narrow mind. Prejudices have no place in it. It is the open mind. Since the thing it continually seeks after is the truth, it cannot afford to shut itself up and keep truth out.

Logic And A Sense of Humor.

Again, a logical mind and a sense of humor usually seem to go hand in hand.

Nor is a logical mind only valuable in a mental way.

It also influences the character of him who possesses it.

For one thing, a passionate sense of justice is the sure corollary of a truly logical mind.

Again, the logical mind is the forbearing mind, because it is clear-sighted enough to know its own weaknesses, and logical enough, to draw the conclusion that other people must have their weaknesses.

If there be any power of will joined to it, the logical mind will steadily mould its owner's character toward the best because it will see so clearly what is good and what is bad.

The Logical Mind Has Its Faults.

Of course, the logical mind has its faults. The habit of pushing things to logical conclusions, even though something worth-while is trampled upon, a disdain for expediency, and an impatience of stupidity and lack of logic in others are some of these.

But the very trend of mind that brings these faults helps to overcome them.

If I were a fairy godmother, with power to give a child one gift, I am not sure it would not be a logical mind. In fact, if it were a man child, I am pretty sure it would be. Perhaps you can guess what I might give the woman child.

VACATIONERS.

I've been where countless people went for recreation and repose, where forty kinds of scads are spent for motor rides and things like those. There were, for those who had the price, all kinds of harmless, cheerful stunts, and there was every known device to make a man forget his cares. I sat and watched them, all day long, beneath a quaking aspen tree; to find so sad and glum a throng, a funeral you'd have to see. The tourist plodded on his way, as though he'd lost his dearest friend; his face, despondent, seemed to say, "I'll see this ordeal to the end." With gloom expressed in every act he went the rounds, where others went, and saw the Rainbow Cataract, or gazed on fakers in a tent. The Windy Cavern he explored, and trilled along some dizzy curve, and all the while he looked so bored the guides and apologetists told their nerve. I saw ten thousand tourists thus; they loitered along through scenes sublime, and looked as though they'd like to cuss so vain a waste of precious time.

AT THE CRESCENT.

The Crescent Picture Palace presents a big variety programme this week-end. "The Chain of Evidence" is a thrilling feature produced in two reels by the Biograph Company with a strong cast including Viola Smith, Jack Muthall and Ivan Christy. Billie Reeves, the great English music hall comedian, features in "Fascination," a fine comedy. "A Reformation Delayed" is a great dramatic story by the Biograph Company. Burns and Stoll the best aerobics and tumblers in America, as Poles and Jabbs, in "Their Wedding Day," a lively Vim Comedy. Mr. Sant Rose sings "When the Sun Goes Down in Romance," one of the latest ballads. Professor McCarthy presides at the piano playing the newest and best music. The usual big matinee on to-morrow, extra pictures for the children, send them to the Crescent.

WOMEN'S STOMACH TROUBLES

The Great Woman's Medicine Often Just What Is Needed.

We are so used to thinking of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound as a remedy exclusively for female ailments that we are apt to overlook the fact that it is one of the best remedies for disorders of the stomach.

For stomach trouble of women it is especially adapted, as it works in complete harmony with the female organism, since it contains the extracts of the best tonic roots and herbs. It tones up the digestive system, and increases the appetite and strength. Here is what one woman writes showing what this medicine does:—

Newfield, N.Y.—"I am so pleased to say I can recommend Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound as an economical and beneficial remedy in most ailments, pertaining to women. At least I found it so by only taking two bottles. I had indigestion in a bad form and I am now feeling in the best of health and owe it all to Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound."

Mrs. BURN WELLS, R.D. No. 29, Newfield, N.Y.

Many women suffer from that "all gone feeling," and "feel so faint," while doing their work. Ten chances to one their digestive system is all out of order. A tablespoonful of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound after each meal should completely remedy this condition in a few days.

Reservist L. Hayden Honoured.

What Are You Doing for that Eczema?

"Nothing; I've about given up trying to cure it."

"That is not wise. Do as I did and you will probably be cured in a short time. I used Zylex and Zylex Soap with it and my Eczema began to improve at once. A couple of boxes cured. You can get Zylex at your druggists."

Cattle Killed by Train.

We learn from passengers on yesterday's express that while passing Mount Moriah near Curling the engine ran down and killed a fine milch cow and a two-year-old bull. The former was cut in pieces, while the latter was knocked clear of the track and, dropping down a precipice 150 feet high, was dashed to death on the rocks. No blame can be attached to the engineer as the express at the time of the accident was coming round a short curve when the animals suddenly loomed up ahead; the brakes were immediately applied but too late to be of any avail. So violent was the shock that passengers were standing in the cars were thrown to the floor, the train swayed from side to side as if it would topple over the steep incline, but fortunately the engine held the track.
