

Announcing Our First Shipment of

Regular Wall Papers for Spring, 1919

This shipment of American Wall Papers comprises all that is BEAUTIFII and ARTISTIC in design; is of the HIGHEST QUALITY and pleasing variety and surpasses any stock of Wall Papers previously shown by us. We make Wall Papers a SPECIALTY, and aim to please our customers.

May we have the pleasure of showing you OUR WALL PAPERS?

May we have the pleasure of Marshall Bross

An Almost Unbelievable Story.

She and her husband had recently moved into a new house. It is chases do with and saving. the house was bought they spent a good deal of thought and time and more money than they care ations,-papering, painting, putling on a bay window, building in a bookase, changing the electric lights, etc. If you have ever bought or thought of buying a house you know without my

As soon as the house was completed she invited an intimate friend to come on and celebrate her attainment of a real guest room by making her a visit.

One Small Word of Praise For

Whole House. The friend came, and of course, the ceremony of showing her about the new house was duly undergone. She was shown all the points of special pride to the owner, the linen closet with its drawers long enough to lay out a skirt at full length, the little sleeping porch, the built-in bookcases, and the ice chest with its outthey came to that she said, "That's a pretty paper." And that was every single word of praise that woman

It seems almost inconceivable, doesn't it? But I tell it just as it was

It Is Hard To Be Always Admiring. his turn, by explaining, "I am Bis- al would make you think a circus is mark." "That," said the Cardinal, in town. The sextons chortle as they ax'-the only explanation of such the shadow of the kirk the pastor graceless conduct is that the second yells "Hooray!" The undertaker is on woman has herself long wanted a hand, with festive lats and tunus, and one. To have to admire another wo- ing ragtime tunes. man's greater good fortune, was too

ICING SUGAR.

BREWIT.

DRINKET.

INSTANT POSTUM.

CAMPBELL'S SOUPS.

WINE SAP APPLES.

GRAPE FRUIT.

EGG POWDER-8 oz. tins.

CALIF. NAVEL ORANGES.

CALIFORNIA LEMONS.

Here is a little ways admiring and exclaiming ove tale which a wo- the evidences of other people's pros-

Perhaps One Needs A Natural Gift

ever out their friends' pationed by de-able degree, is one of the most graceple long to have noticed, that admires discriminatingly and lavishly, and yet cultivation of the habit. But onyone who is not utterly selfatrorbed can surely say enough to cover the law of decency and courtesy.

ROOZE.

Old Booze is dead, so toll the knell for this old maudlin knave the mourners raise a joyful yell as they stand by the grave. Old Booze hung or with tooth and nails, he tried to dodge the tomb he hoped to sell

He hoped to do his ancient task till Father Time is gone; but we've outgrown the jug and flash, outgrown the demijohn. Old Booze is the last room to be shown and when dead, at rest he lies, cashed in beyond recall; he never helped a man to rise, but made a million fall. Old Booze will sleep beneath the loam until the bright sun pales: he never a-built a toiler's home, but he filled many jails. Old Booze has crossed the great divide to see what's doing there; and we'll have less of suicide, and less of black despair. And we'll see less The only excuse, no, I do not of women's tears, of children needing mean excuse,-I am reminded once breed, of wages gone for foaming more of the Cardinal's reply when beers, since Old Man Booze is dead. Bismark excused himself for push- He'll dish no more the poison drink to ing his way into an audience, out of knock the good man down; his funer-"explains, but does not excuse, your work and dig the clammy clay, and in

When you want Steaks, Chops It is hard, I will admit, to be al- Cutlets and Collops, try ELLIS'

SHORTENING, i.e. Crisco, 1 lb. tins. Kream Crisp—Small. Kream Crisp—Medium.

Parsons' Household Ammonia

Purity Milk. Libby's Unsweetened Milk. St. Charles' Unsweetened

size. Scrubb's Ammonia.

40 barrels tancy New York Parsnips, Extra fine stock.

Jobbers.

loose the sails of love and let lovers say:

Man need not blush his tenderness just about treble his former catch. 'Tis shame to love and never

shame

Let loose the sails of love and let

She is a prize too lovely to forsake. Be not ashamed to send your val She has your love, but needs its

Milk. Carnation Unsweetened Milk. ALMERIA GRAPES. C. P. Eagan Duckworth Street and Queen's Road

CUBE SUGAR,

in 2 lb. Cartons and by the Pound.

Wholesale Importers and

ST. VALENTINE'S DAY.

Not he who shows his love deserves gians helped in the work, and in But he who speaks not what she Ostend caught 89,000 tons of fish.

There's is no shame in love's devoted craft with motors. This simple

To keep his heart forever out of Not he the fool who lets his love But he who spurns it when his love are still Which first of all they should be

The tender breezes till they day be Only the fool chokes out life's senti-

Fads and Fashions.

A seemingly permanent style is the belted suit coat with a waistcoat. Sole white laces embroidrered in silver are favored for evening wear. The latest coat is a combination of a tight scant skirt and a full, loose W. GOSSE, Plymouth Road

Hats Off to Fishermen.

"The Grand Fleet could not exist without the trawlers," recently de-clared Lord Jellicoe speaking at Hull. Certainly Britain could not have existed without the Grand Fleet, so it follows that the nation was saved ne example. During the past year the fried-fish shops of one supplied At the beginning of the war the admiralty had only 150 small vessels weeping, mine-laying, and a number ell back on the fishing fleet, and be

Before the war, the Grimshy fishng fleet numbered 700 vessels. Of owners for Government purposes. Of other ways. Is it any wonder, then, favourable for a walk take some good that fish is scarce and dear?

Splendid Patriotism.

Take the record of the men. It is ust as wonderful. Before the war. worked our coal pits. Of these 400,000 joined up, or 6 per cent. This is a great record, yet does not equal that of the fishermen. In 1913, 37,422 men were employed in fishing in England and Wales. Of these almost exactly half Scotland has done equally well. The casualties among fishermen have been very heavy indeed. They have averaged 2,760 a year since August, 1914. As Mr. Clynes said recently, in the annals of war nothing will be found finer than this record. The wonderful thing is the way in which the remnant of the fishing fleet has carried on. Even in 1917, in most less than 400,000 tons of fish were landed in British ports. This is about 1917 the Belgian trawlers exiled from Government helped by fitting a number of the old-fashioned sailingchange enables a converted boat to

Waiting to be Caught. Better days are dawning. At the Board of Fisheries all is bustle. Such fishermen as can be spared from the arduous task of mine-trawling are blouse over a skirt of plain color. being sent back to their old calling with all speed. What is most encouraging for the house, and not yet been able to buy by the fence the village band is playMen proudly vaunt their love of gold has had the rest which it has long and fame, future is the fact that the North Sea High station and accomplishments Dogger Bank are swarming with flat forms of ornamentation on cloth fish of a size not seen for a genera-Yet of life's greatest conquest they tion past. Fish before the war frocks brought fishermen only one and onethird of a penny a pound. This must duvetyn is composed of a plain skirt never happen again, but, all the same, and sleeveless jacket with a waist of we on land ought to be revelling in cheap fish by next spring.

Stafford's

Stafford's Liniment Stafford's Prescription Stafford's Phoratone. pointedly by looking down the table Stafford's Ess. Ginger Wine. FOR SALE IN THE EAST END BY

J. J. ST. JOHN, Duckworth St

Milady's Boudoir.

in as well. Should the weather be un indoior exercises, with dumbbells. Indian clubs, or calistehnics, before the corset is donned. It means a great deal of time and patience if the stout woman would keep her flesh within fashion's boundaries. The present day mode of hairdressing does not permit of straight lines. oined the Navy or Reserve, while of and in consequence artificial means the rest all of military age were en- must be resorted to. Heated irons colled in a special Navy Reserve, and should never be used for curling the a certain number called up monthly. hair. Their use will injure the hair follicles, causing the hair to split, be-

The hair can be very prettily waved by the aid of soft kid curlers. They are old-fashioned but not injurious to the hair. If one finds difficulty in keeping the hair curled even when it has been lightly with glycerine and rose water. one-third of the average taken in the This solution causes it to become a five years preceding the war. Bel- trifle sticky and more adaptable to the curling process.

Fads and Fashions.

A surplice chemisette of rose-colwith pleated bands of voile.

Striped and blocked tricolette is charmingly worn as a sleeveless the skirt of an afternoon frock, which begins with a bodice of black velvet. Eyelet work, embroidery, selfcolored, is one of the most refined

A sports costume of rose pink

Conquers His Shyness.

(From Stray Notes.)

A certain surgeon, who was very young and rather shy, was invited to dinner by a lady, who was at least fifty, but frivolous enough for twenty. She imagined herself very clever when making rude remarks. At dinner she asked the young surgeon to carve a fowl, and, not having done so before, he failed lamentably. Instead of trying to cover his confusion, the hostess called attention to it and saying loudly: "Well, you may be a very clever argeon, but if I wanted a leg cut off should not come to you to do it." "but then, you see, you are not

Your Feet Will Never Beh

And you really can't expen them to, when you listen Columbia's Dance Records. one-steps, two-steps, waltz and fox-trots.

Come in and listen to the Columbia Records—as many you would like to hear. you will hear them at the very best, played on the Cal umbia Grafonola.

Grafonolas

and Records We have many oth Columbia Records will please and this vou—the newest pop lar and patriotic song instrumental and voo selections by world-famous artists, a splendid variety of band and orchestral music.

> U. S. Picture a Portrait Co., Grafonola Dept.

The prices quoted on the following goods will convince keen purchasers that all these items are well up der present values.

Floor Coverings.

DUNOLEUM SQUARES 12 x 12 $17.28 9 x 6 $6.24 6 x 6 $4.32 8|4 Dunoleum . . . $1.80 8|4 English Linoleum,

$2.80 & $3.00 yard.

This is extra good value.

STAIR CARPET. 18" wide, $1.80 & $2.25 yard. 22½" wide, $2.00 & $2.50 yard.

27" wide, $2.70 yard. HEARTH RUGS. Latest designs, $5.0 to $12.00 each CASEMENT CLOTHS. Tapestry upholstering, Imitation Leathers.

"No, madam," he replied politely, Forty Years in the public service. -The Evening Telegram

333 WATER STREET

day asked whethe ould have the power to al sions of the Peace Treaty Bonar Law replied that i impossible: that about aments would discuss the the treaty. He added that Great Britain was concerneaty would not be satisfacparliament had expressed t the treaty would have to

PING ARRANGEMENT.

PARIS, Feb. 13. ning, says the Maritime and Council met February 1st d Feb. 11 and important de ere made as to allocation for ent and use of Austrian and nnage. Passenger vessels ainly employed in the ren of troops, and cargo ves-the carriage of food to dif-

S. S. Adolph to-day:

E BUTTER, 2 lb. prints.
10 bexes DATES.

30 cases PARSONS' OUSEHOLD AMMONIA.

PURE FRUIT JAMS. . 1 lb. Strawberry Jam. . 1 lb. Raspberry Jam. . 1 lb. Marmalade.

TE ICING SUGAR (Am.)

CUBE SUGAR.

ystal-1 lb. boxes.

ases PURITY MILK.