TO ADVERTISERS. Hereafter parties who have contractadvertisements in the WEEKLY MERGURY must bring in their fresh advertisements, or give us notice of the same, on Saturday, before the first side of the next week's paper is printed. We are obliged to make this rule in order to prevent the duplicating of advertisements, which is sometimes the Case Row, and which we cannot do in future on account of our crowded space.

North Riding Nomination. We have just received a despatch from Mr. J. Anderson, Registrar for North Wellington, and Returning Officer for that Riding, that he has appointed the nomination to be held at Arthur Village on Friday, the 2nd of August, and the polling day on the 9th of the same month. We urge our friends in the North Riding to make good use of the time still at their disposal on behalf of Col. Higinbotham.

Found a Place at Last.

Sir Francis Hincks, one of the wandering knights now perambulating through Ontario, has at last found constituency. North Renfrew would have none of him, the people of Ottawa refused to have him foisted on them, Carleton declined to have anything to do with him, and the yeomanry of Oxford would scarcely give hun a heaving. In sheer desperation, and out of pity for the desolate knight the Tory Head of this town proposed that he should try his hand in Southi Wellington, but this scheme, like all others which emanate from that sheet, was so ridiculous that Si Francis would not even give it a thought. But the patient and long suffering knight has at last found rest for the soles of his feet. We are told by the Mail that 'vielding to the urgent solicitations of his very numerous friends and admirers in South Brant. Sir Francis Hincks, Minister of Finhance for the Dominion has consented to become a candidate for the representation of the South Riding of Brant at the ensuing Parliamentary elections." This means when properly interpreted that the whole influence of the Government has been brought to bear on Mr. Watts, the Conservative candidate who was out for this Riding to reture in favor of Sir Francis, and that that patrotic individual, taking hit on the almost despairing Finance Minister, has given way, and will no doubt be well rewarded at some future day for his generosity. We have long known that Sir Francis was tiching to get retu ned for an Ontario constituency, and it was equally well known that the collected for North Renfrew. It became therefore, a matter of necessity to find refuge for him somewhere, and after a great deal of maneuving and going to and fro, South Brant has been selected as the place of refuge. It is truly a pitiable sight to see a Minister of the Crown hawking the county in the way Sir Francis has done, imploring one constituency after another to take him in. It is the strongest possible proof of his personal unpopularity, as well as that of the Government to which he belongs. We trust the electors of South Brant will show by their decided rejection of him on them, Carleton declined to have anything to do with him, and the sible proof of his personal unpopularity, as well as that of the Government to which he belongs. We trust the electors of South Brant will show by their decided rejection of him that they will not allow this wandering candidate to be foisted upon them without even asking their consent. We hope they will resent the obsequious conduct of Mr. Watts, who seeks to hand them over to Sir Francis without even asking them if they are agreeable to the change. We hope they will never allow their constituency to be made the resting place of a minister whose political character and popularity are both goue.

The prospects of the Reformers in Kingston never looked better than they do to-day. The requisitions in favor of Mr. Carruthers, the opponent of Sir John, are being numerously signed by all creeds and classes.

signed by all creeds and classes.

The St. Catharines Times says it is runnered that a requisition is being got up to invite the perambulating statesmen. Sir John and Sir Francis to speak in that town. The friends of Mr. Merritt begin to recognize their danger, but neither Sir John nor Sir Francis will save them from defeat.

The writs for Brockville have been received, and the Returning Officer has appointed the 29th July for the nomination, and the 5th August for polling. Sheriff Dickinson has fixed the 30th July for the nomination in North Leeds, and the 6th August for polling. In South Grenville, the 29th July is the nomination day, and the 5th August polling day.

The canvass is being actively push.

5th August polling day.

The canvass is being actively pushed on in South Grey. A large meeting was held at Holstein, Township of Egremont, the other day. Addresses were delivered by Dr. Landerkin, the Reform candidate, and Mr. Jackson. The meeting was almost unanimous for Dr. Landerkin. A general feeling prevails that Mr. Jackson should not again represent South Grey. His defeat is certain.
