THE NEW TIME TABLE
The winter time table for the C. P. R. came into effect on Sunday Oct. 9th. The changes are not so marked as was anticipated. The morning express arrives from the east at 7:25. The evening express from the west arrives at 6:29 and leaves at 6:39. The local in the morning leaves at 8:55 and the west bound local leaves at 3:15 p. m.

AFTER THE INDIANS
Constable Walker was sent into the Upper Elk Valley this week to investigate a report that a tribe of Alberta Indians have invaded that district on a hunting expedition and are slaughtering the big game. The trip is a long one and Mr. Walker may be absent several more days. There is a vast country in the district north of Michel where the Indians in past years have made regular expeditions. The need for game wardens in this section has been mentioned before. A systematic patrol at certain times would effectually prevent the Indians' invasions.

LATER—Constable Walker arrived this morning with five Indians whom he caught shooting game. They had 12 pack horses loaded with hides. One Indian eluded arrest.

STARTS COMIC PLAYERS
Stuart's comic players gave three performances in Fernie, Friday and Saturday evenings and a matinee on the latter day. Mr. Post is a comedian of considerable ability and his best work was shown in the Irish roles he portrayed. The rest of the Company appear to be little better than amateurs. The plays put on were extremely light comedy and they did not make a strong hit with the Fernie playgoers.

The Hewitt Co. who come to the Opera House, Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, Oct. 17, 18 and 19 are classed as one of the best attractions on the road, putting up a better show than many companies of 40 people. Mr. Hewitt carries 18 trunks, the contents of each he claims is equal to not less than 3 performers. "Hio" is the new illusion that caused all New York to talk; a positive and air suspension, the Louisiana Sun Flower, "Peeped from Sing Sing" "Xobobogryd Mystery", are some of the latest work in the line of magic and illusions. Zetia in wireless telephone and Edison in the "Burial" are clever assistants for Hewitt. Prices 25, 50 & 75c.

Chief of Provincial Police McMahon in answer to his application for the admission of Harry Annet into the Old Man's Home at Kamloops has received the necessary permission and the old man will be sent over at the first opportunity.

The Harold Nelson Company will appear in Fernie on Oct. 24 and 25. On the first night this company will present the very effective drama "Heart and Sword" and on the latter night "Faust". Mr. Nelson carries a very strong Company and everywhere he plays to crowded houses. He has many admirers in this city who will be glad of another opportunity to show their appreciation of his ability.
