THE DEAD STATESMAN. As announced by the ADVERTISER bulle tin a few minutes after the melancholy event, Sir John A. Macdonald died at Ottawa on Saturday evening at 10:15, aged 76 years and 4 months. The stirring events in the long public career of the dead leader have already been detailed in these columns. It is perhaps unnecessary to say that with many points in the policy of Sir John Macdenald and with many of the methods which he and his associates choose to carry their ends, we have had no sympathy; but we have had no hesitation in acknowledging his great powers in managing men and moulding them to his way of thinking. No other man in Can-adian public life has had so distinct a personality, and no other man has ever controlled and welded into a compact following elements so diverse. In these respects Sir John Macdonald was a truly wonderful man. Of the effects of his rule, and how far it conserved the best interests of the people, this is not the proper time to speak. We do not loubt that the historian will do the dead statesman full justice, and that is all that sither political friend or political antagonist can desire. At present, the one marked fact that is forced on the country is that a master hand in statecraft-th all-controlling mind in the Conservative party-is gone, and with his departure new era is about to dawn.

PERSECUTIONS OF THE JEWS. The persecutions to which 5,000,000 resident Jews are now being subjected in Russia is the astoundingly brutal climax of the the Christian era down to the present time. A few years after the crucifixion of the Saviour they were persecuted by Caligula and banished from Rome by Claudius. In the year 70, when Jerusalem was taken marks: "Some factories are still in a deby Titus, the temple was burned and plorable state. " I have notified a 1,100,000 Jews perished. At various times they were persecuted and massacred by the Romans, until 655, when Jerusalem was captured by Omar, and a number of European powers joined the army of perseeutors. In 1020 Canute banished them from his realm. In 1204, under King John, Jews of both sexes were imprisoned, and their eyes and teeth plucked out. In 1278 they were accused of olipping coin, and 267 were hanged and quartered. Twelve years later all Jews were banished from England, and were not allowed to return till the days of Cromwell. In 1603 Pope Sixtus launched edicts against them. In 1840 they were persecuted at Damascus In 1852 there was a violent outbreak against them in Stockholm; in 1864 the scene of their persecution was in Rome. and in 1866 it was changed to Bucharest. In 1881 they suffered violent persecution in Southern Russia, and now, despite of Europe's horrified protest, throughout the Russian empire cities and provinces are being forcibly cleared of them.

It is difficult to give even an imperfect idea of the impression these wholesale atrocities is producing through all Europe. Russia is not a remote country from England. It can be reached by 30 hours' trave from London, and the occurance of these me dieval barbarities so near the heart of civil-Ization is bringing English blood to boiling point. Berlin is already overwhelmed by pretched destitute Jews driven on a day's actice from their homes and swarming westward without any idea of what is to be me of them. Most harrowing stories are fold of these unfortunates. For weeks past in Moscow strong police and gendarme patrols have so patrols have scoured the city night after night; here and there a house where Jows live is surrounded, young and old are start ed out of sleep and dragged from their beds, and every corner is searched lest comeone be in hiding. If the birth certifi-sate of father and grandfather be wanting, and a person has only papers granting right of domicile, he must sign a document pledging himself to leave Moscow in three days. In many instances families have been driven with clubbed muskets from their peaceful homes. What is already known exceeds in its terrors the worst that could be imagined, and if Russia's savage threat is fulfilled that this persecution sha be stretched to cover 500,000 people, the outcome will make as black and awful a mark upon the history of this century a the French revolution did in the last.

Europe stands aghast at what is being brutally wrought before its eyes. That it may be forced to interfere seems probable but how, when, and under what form of pretext it is impossible to foretell.

NOT ENDED YET. The Briggs case in the United States Presbyterian Church has entered on a new and important phase. At the meeting of the General Assembly it was claimed by the fathers and brethren that the Assembly had a right to veto the transfer of Prof. A. Briggs from the chair of Hebrew to the of Biblical theology in the Union Theological 'Seminary in New York. The ground of objection was that Dr. Briggs was a little too much of a free lance in his criticism of the standards of the Church. The directors of Union Theological Seminary have now met and passed a reso lution adhering to Dr. Briggs' transfer, and declaring the interference of the Assembly usurpation. This is a declaration tha the appointment will stand. The theological battle will thus be resumed at the next meeting of the Assembly. TRAVEL ABOVE AND BELOW.

A movement is on foot to establish underground railways in New York city, and a discussion has been precipitated as to the relative merits and popularity of the underground and elevated railway systems. There can be no doubt that the underground railway system of London affords a popular and expeditious means of travel throughout the city, but it is by no means as pleasant for the traveler as a ride on an elevated line is. Elevated railways are, however, out of the question in the British metropolis. For one reason the streets are not sufficiently wide, and for another the authorities would never allow the thorough fares to be occupied by the unsightly tracks, or the peace of the inhabitants to be disturbed by the rush of the traffic. So careful are the metropolitan authorities of the public interests that they do not even low street car tracks to cut up the smooth payement of the streets in the city of Lonon proper. This is a necessary precaution the vehicular traffic is so great. In New York city, however, the speculative capitalists who look after the convenience of the traveling public have things more their own way. They run street cars even on crowded Broadway, they have elevated railways throughout the length and breadth of the city, and now they are about to provide a system of underground railways cities grow so fast that new agencies for getting around easily are consequently required. In London, the establishment of underground railways does not appear to have at all reduced the 'bus and hackney carriage traffic.

The ADVERTISER has not failed from time to time to impress upon patrons of cheese factories the necessity for absolute cleanliness at every step in the production and care of the milk till it is placed on the actory wagon. But all the blame does no lie with the "rascally patrons." Prof. Robertson told the Eastern Association last winter that one great trouble with the industry was that factories were not kept long series of sufferings which they have en- clean enough. Every article in and about dured at the hands of various powers from the factory should be kept clean. Referring to this subject in Eastern Ontario one of th inspectors says: "The filthy condition of a few factories is really surprising. * * Some weighing cans and floors are scrubbed only once or twice a week." Another renumber to be put in better condition for operations next season." All this may not apply in Western Ontario, but a good deal of it will. Factorymen and makers who find that the cap fits them should take the hint and clean up at once. By all mean set the patrons a good example

servative party a person capable of replacing Sir John Macdonald. wonderful how strong this idea is held at home as well as abroad. ###

'What shadows we are and what shadows we pursue !" exclaimed the late Sir John Macdonald, in the words of the famous statesman Burke, a few years ago, in announcing the death of a colleague He, too, is gone now, and in the present Parliament leaves but one membe who sat with him in 1854. Mr. Bourassa, M.P. for St. Johns, is the man.

Mr. Marshall, of East Middlesex, and Mr. Ingram, of East Elgin, dodged the vote in condemnation of Sir Charles Tupper's disgraceful conduct in the recent election. They were afraid to take a mauly stand on the subject. But when they come before the electors they will not be allowed to shirk responsibility in that way. The Government they support has made Tupper's case their own.

A good picture of Sir John Macdonald will now be demanded. Probably the best now in the market, or likely to be offered, is an original autographed etching done on copper by Harold Blackburn Harte, one of the best six artists in copper in New York, and a brother of the journalist of the same name. This is an excellent likeness of Sir John as he looked last winter before his illness, and the delicate shading and expression which is reproduced in copper medium, and is entirely lost in photography, makes the portrait of Canada's greatest personality very much more valuable than an ordinary photograph.

THE NEW YORK school commissioners have decided that female teachers must in future use their proper names, and not sign themselves "Mellie," when they mean Mary, "Teenie," when they really are named Christina, and so on. This is right. The abbreviated, pet name absurdity countenanced by grown persons in public and other positions has gone much too far. The New York school authorities set a good example i calling a halt.

THE Cabinet which Sir John Macdonald formed in 1878, when he returned to power, was thus made up: Sir John Macdonald, Hon. John O'Connor, Hon. C. Tupper, Hon. James McDonald, Hon. J. C. Pope, Hon. S. H. Tilley, Hon. J. H. Pope, Hon. Mackenzie Bowell, Hon. Alex. Campbell, Hon. J. C. Aikins, Hon. L. H. Langevin, Hon. L. F. G. Baby, Hon. L. F. R. Masson, Hon. R. D. Wil mot. Some of these statesmen are dead, some are on the bench, others have retired to private life. Only two members of this Cabinet are now in Parliament, viz., Sir Hector Langevin and Mr. Mac kenzie Bowell. The Cabinet representation from this Province is admitted to be the weakest since Confederation. Messrs. Carling, Bowell, Frank Smith and Haggart are a quartet that could easily be improved upon. Besides, two of the four have taken refuge in the Senate, and are therefore out of touch with the popular element in the constituencies. 111

AT THE Methodist conference held at Brantford the other day Rev. Dr. Cochrane, of Zion Church, in the course of a lively and interesting speech, said that if even an organic union should take place it will be between the Canadian Methodist and Canadian Presbyterian churches. He hoped sincerely that the day would come when that union would be consummated. He had preached in all the Methodist churches in the city, and no one could ever accuse him of preaching a more Calvinistic or less Armenian sermon than their own pastor. The speech, which was loudly applauded, was warmly seconded by Rev. Dr. Stafford who sincerely hoped that the feuds of the past would be forgotten, and tha union would become a serious consideration with them. The Churches are getting together.

The Great Blood Purifier.

A Word to the People.

"Truth is Mighty, and will prevail."

THE remarkable effects and most satisfactory results, in every variety of disease arising from IMPURITIES OF THE BLOOD, which are experienced and made manifest from day to day, by those who have taken NORTHROP & LVMAN'S VEGETABLE DISCOVERY, for complaints which were pronounced incurable, are surprising to all. In many of these cases, the persons say their pain and sufferings cannot be expressed, as in cases of Scrofula, where apparently the whole body was one mass of corruption.

This celebrated medicine will relieve pain, cleanse and purify the blood, and cure such diseases, restoring the patient to perfect health after trying many remedies, and having suffered for years. Is it not conclusive proof that if you are a sufferer you can be cured? Why is this medicine performing such great cures? It works in the BLOOD, the Circulating Fluid. It can truly be called the

GREAT BLOOD PURIFIER.

The great source of disease originates in the BLOOD, and no medicine that does not act directly upon it, to purify and renovate, has any just claim upon public attention. When the blood becomes lifeless and stagnant, either from change of weather or of climate, want of exercise, irregular diet, or from any other cause, NORTHROP & LYMAN'S VEGETABLE DISCOVERY will renew the Blood, carry off the putrid humors, cleanse the stomach, regulate the bowels, and impart a tone of vigor to the whole body.

The conviction is, in the public mind as well as the medical profession, that the remedies supplied by the VEGETABLE KINGDOM are more safe and more effectual in the cure of disease than mineral medicines. The Vegetable Discovery is composed of the juice of most remarkable roots, barks and herbs. It is pleasant to take, and is perfectly safe to give an infant. Allow us to ask you a candid question:—Do you need it? Do not hesitate to try it. You will never regret it. All druggists have it for sale.
