BENGOUGH

CARICATURIST

Announcement From Canada's Cartoonist.

The following from Mr. J. W. Bengough, until lately caricaturist for Grip, will be read with interest: SEPTEMBER 27th, 1892.

To whom it may concern:
Having severed my connection with
Grip, of Toronto, I have entered into an exclusive agreement with the publishers of the Montreal Daily and Weekly Star to furnish to them alone, for their publications, caricatures and sketches from time to time. J. W. EENGOUGH.

An instance in which a dream was us in preventing an impending catastroph recorded of a daughter of Mrs. Ruther recorded of a daughter of Mrs. Rutherto at Ederton, the granddaughter of Sir W-ter Scott. This lady dreamed more the once that her mother had been murder by a black servant. She was so mu-upset by this that she returned home, an upset by this that she returned home, and, to her great astonishment and not a little to her dismay, she met on entering the house the very black servant she had met in her dream. He had been engaged in her absence. She prevailed upon a gentleman to watch in an adjoining room during the following night.

About 3 o'clock in the morning the gentlemen heard footsteps on the stairs,

[Review of Reviews.]

About 3 o'cleck in the morning the gentlemen heard footsteps on the stairs, came out and met the servant carrying a quantity of coals. Being questioned as to where he was going, he answered confusedly that he was going to mend the mistress' fire, which at 3 o'clock in the morning in the middle of summer was evidently impossible. On further investigation a strong knife was found hidden in the coals. The lady escaped, but the man was subsequently hanged for murder, and before his execution he confessed that he intended to have assassinated Mrs. Ruther.

A Sensible Command.

"Captain, we are entirely out of ammunition," said an orderly sergeant to his commander on a field day.

"What! entirely out of ammunition?" exclaimed the captain.

"Yes, entirely out," was the reply.

"Then cease firing," said the captain.

No Misunderstanding at All. Cordelia—I hear that you and Charlie parted owing to a misunderstanding? Susie—Certainly not, my dear; we under-stood each other too well.

An Enigma. Take away my first letter; Take away my second letter; Take away my third letter; Take away all my letters, and Yet I will remain the same.

The postman.

What Luck!
Mrs. Bloomer—It's shameful! Mr. Si-lentt, who is deaf and dumb, is going to marry Miss Quiett, and she's deaf and dumb.

dumb.
Mr. B.—What of it?
"Why, just think. Their children may be deaf and dumb, too."
That's all right. We'll watch where they settle, and move in next door to them."

The public are often very unjust but never consciously so. What they see clear ly to be justice they always approve. It often takes a long while to bring them to see things as they really are, but in the end their, verdict is always right. It was faith in this idea which induced the manufacturers of the "Myrtle Navy" to-bacco to stand by their superior brand under every discouragement at the outset. The public verdict has been rendered at last, and it is emphatically in their favor.
