Six-Round Bout Pulled Off-O'Brien Landed Oftener, But Not as Hard as Fitz.

Philadelphia, July 23.—Jack O'Brien and Bob Fitzsimmons today fought the fastest six-round bout ever witnessed in this city between men of their weight. When the gong announced the closing of the fight both men were on their feet, but both bore the marks of the gruelling fight they had just come through. Fitzsimmons lips were twice their normal size and his left eye was almost closed, while O'Brien's left, eye was also cut and While O'Brien landed the greater number of blows, they did not do nearly so much damage as those landed by Fitzsimmons and the latter was the fresher at the close of the fight. There was not a clean knock down during the bout, but three times O'Brien went to the floor, twice in endeavoring to get away from Fitzsimmons and the third time partly from Fitz's right which landed on O'Brien's neck and partly through the latter's feet getting tangled. The fight was held on the National League baseball grounds, the ring being pitched directly between the pitcher's box and the grandstand, immediately over the home plate.

It was the first open-air boxing exhibition ever given in this city and the novelty of the affair drew a crowd of about 6,000 persons. liberal sprinkling of women in the grandstand, and sitting close to the .492 ringside was Mrs. Fitzsimmons, who, for the first time, was to witness her husband fight. Five o'clock was the hour set for the men to enter the ring, but it was 5:06 before Fitzsimmons, accompanied by Billy Lester, Benny Murphy, Joe Edmonston and Smudge, his seconds, made his appearance. Seven minutes later O'Brien came on. He was looked after by Lew Bailey, Joe Hagen, Billy McCarney and A long wrangle ensued over the kinds of bandages worn by Fitzsimmons. Underneath the strips muslin were, O'Brien claimed, plaster bandages. O'Brien said the bandages must come off or there would Fitzsimmons replied: "Then there will be no fight." keeping the spectators waiting for ten plaster. Each man selected his own gloves and at 5:28 they were called to the center of the ring by the referee and given their instructions. At 5:30 the gong sounded and the battle was
