[Special to The Advertiser.]
Rochester, Nov. 23. — Peter Paull and his son Clifford, of Stratford, Ont., were both asphyxiated in their room here today by gas flowing from a tube that was connected with a heater. Coroner Kilip, who conducted an investigation, decided that in some manner Pauli must have accidentally turned on the gas after turning it out.

Pauli came to Rochester several years ago from Stratford, where his years ago from Stratford, where his

HAY IS HIGH

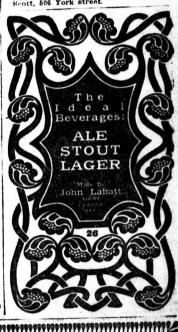

Two Loads Brought Forty Dollars on Chatham Market.

[Special to The Advertiser.] said on the market today for hay. Two loads were disposed of and brought $20 per ton. It is the highest price recorded in Chatham in years. The crop, owing to a long drought, is reported from many rural sections to be almost a complete failure. Farmers have scarcely enough of the provender to feed their own stock for the winter.
