A request the committee reconsider its action in reducing city teamsters' wages from $1.10 to $1 per hour was filed.

J. M. Donohue appeared before the committee requesting that members re-consider their instructions to the city engineer to pave Nelson street hetweer Adelaide street and Dreaney avenue, declaring this one block to be in as good condition as the remainder of the street. He urged economy, and stated that he was not present to threaten legal proceedings, but to appeal to the common sense of the committee. Chair-"On Debenture man Wilson vouchsafed the suggestion that the engineer delay paving this block, and mentioned " a love letter in the paper to Ald. Drake." Coupon-day

At this point Ald. Childs passed a comment which Chairman Wilson did not hear. He requested Ald. Childs to repeat his comment, but the latter re-fused. A storm loomed upon the hori-zon when Chairman Wilson addressing Ald. Childs said: "I don't think much of a man who is afraid of what he says, He is not much of a man." They pointed out that houses were sold on agreement that sewers would be laid, and emphasized the loss to the city if these dwellings were thrown back upon the commission by disappointed owners. City Engineer Brazier reported that a sewer for Hamilton road east, including Pine Lawn subdivision, and the new public school on Hamilton road, would cost approximately $100,000. He was instructed to report the cost of a sewer for commission houses on Pine Lawn and the Ealing School at the next meeting of No. 2 committee, leaving Hamilton road off his estimates.
