IMPORTED A TROTTER MARE.
New York, Oct. 30.—The White Star Line steamer Botic, which arrived today from Liverpool, brought a trotting mare known as Botic R., record 2:12 1/2. This mare won many trotting events in England under the name of Folly G., and in France as Adia. The mare will enter the show at Madison Square Garden. Entries for the horse show which opens the week of Nov. 13 show that though the total number of horses on exhibition will be about the same as in the last two or three years, there is an entirely different complexion as to the exhibitors. Whether it is the new conditions, barring winners and champions, or whatever it may be, the fact remains that not in any year has there been so large an infusion of new blood.
